Suspected Of Planting Bombs

2 Chicago Policemen Slain By Ex-Marine In Shootout

SHOOTING IN CHICAGO. A police marksman is shown with his sniperscope trained on the house where a berserk Purple Heart veteran killed two policemen and injured five more persons with grenades and gunfire Monday in Chicago before he surrendered. CHICAGO (AP) — Two policemen were slain in a shootout with a former Marine suspected of planting a number of bombs in public places, one of which killed a woman a week ago in a department store.

Firing rifles and pistols and hurling homemade bombs, Frank Kulak, 42-year-old veteran of fighting in World War II and Korea, barricaded himself Monday in his third-floor flat on the city's South Side to hold off police seeking to question him.

The bullet-riddled bodies of the policemen were found on a third-floor porch after Kulak surrendered.

Two other policemen and a civilian were wounded in the prolonged exchange of shots and several others were injured by falling debris from the explosions.

Kulak told police that he wanted to show people the horror of war.

Before he was taken away in a patrol car, Kulak was asked why he did it.

"Well, they came at me," he said. "The police, that's who. They came after me."

The siege began when three policemen went to Kulak's door about 3 p.m. to question him about several recent South Side bombings, including an explosion April 7 at a store in which a woman was killed and eight others injured.

When the policemen identified themselves, they said, Kulak fired through the door with an automatic weapon, wounding Detective William McInerney, 45. Detective Michael A. Spiotto said Kulak moments later emptied a carbine into Sgt. James Schaffer, 48, and Det. Jerome A. Stubig, 40, whose bodies were

Missing With 31

TOKYO (AP) — The North Koreans, who captured the intelligence ship Pueblo, reported their air force shot down a large U.S. reconnaissance plane today. The U.S. Defense Department said a Navy reconnaissance plane with 31 aboard was missing in the Sea of Japan.

Japanese fishing boats joined U.S. planes in a search for survivors. The U.S. Embassy in Moscow asked the Foreign Ministry for the assistance of any Soviet ships in the area.

The official Korean Central News Agency said "a large-size modernly equipped reconnaissance plane" intruded deep into North Korean air space and was shot down at 1:50 p.m.—11:30 p.m. EST Monday.

The broadcast gave no information on the fate of those aboard.

It said only that the North Korean air force shot the plane down at a high altitude "by showering fire of revenge upon it."

The U.S. Defense Department said a four-engine Navy EC121 propeller reconnaissance plane based at Atsugi, Japan, has been missing since 2:10 p.m.

A spokesman said the flight began about 7:10 a.m. and the aircraft commander was under orders to approach no closer than 50 miles to the coast of North Korea.

In Seoul, a high-ranking U.S. military spokesman refused to comment on the reports.

The North Korean agency said the "U.S. imperialist aggressor army which has been rapidly intensifying the war provocation maneuvers against North Korea of late perpetrated on the morning of the 15th the grave provocation of infiltrating deep into the territorial air of the republic a large-size modernly equipped reconnaissance plane to conduct recongrave provocations along the military demarcation line."

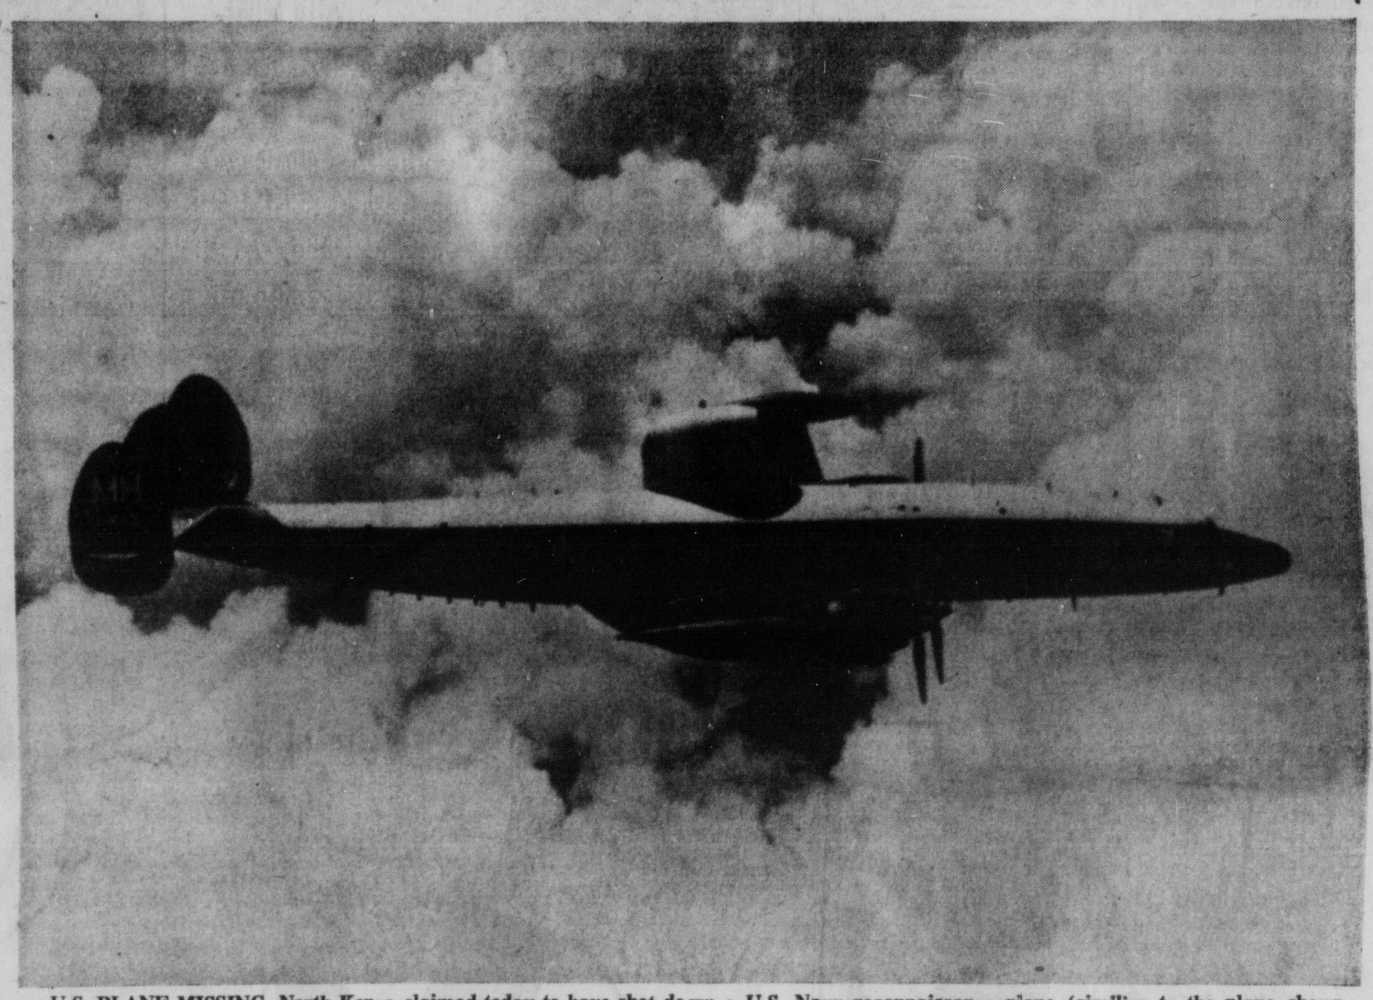
It said the North Korean air force "instantly spotted" the plane and "scored the brilliant battle success" of shooting it down.

"The U.S. imperialist aggressors must bear in mind that the stern warning of the Korean People's Army is not empty talk and the Korean People's Army counters any provocation of the U.S. imperialist aggressors instantly with a hundred-fold, thousand-fold retaliatory blow," the broadcast said.

The Pentagon said an air search was being made approximately 95 miles southeast of Chongjin, North Korea.

About the time of the announcement in Washington, the U.S. Navy in Saigon abruptly cancelled an awards ceremony Wednesday aboard the aircraft carrier Ranger off Vietnam. A Navy spokesman in Saigon said he did not know if the cancellation was directly connected with the plane incident.

South Vietnam's defense minister and other officials had been scheduled to go aboard the Ranger to present medals to about 50 U.S. Navy men.



U.S. PLANE MISSING. North Korea claimed today to have shot down a U.S. Navy reconnaissance plane (similiar to the plane shown here) with 31 persons aboard. The plane was reported missing by the Defense Department which said aerial search operations were under way in the Sea of Japan. (UPI Telephoto)

'Potentially Unpopular Decisions'

Nixon Budget Cuts Aimed At Surplus Of $5.8 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon unveiled today more details about budget cuts said to represent "hard choice and potentially unpopular decisions." The only agency to wind up with more money is the Justice Department.

Announcing new spending figures for each agency under a revised budget calculated to produce a $5.8 billion surplus in the fiscal year starting July 1, Nixon revealed more than half of the $4 billion in reductions he is claiming come out of defense and military-aid programs and scaled down legislation to increase Social Security benefits.

The cut in planned military spending, put at $1.1 billion, was attributed largely to "lower consumption of ammunition in Vietnam," a cutback of the antiballistic missile program proposed by former President Lyndon B. Johnson and "modification" of purchases of short-range attack missiles.

Another $1 billion of the reductions was attributed to whittling down another Johnson plan —never transmitted to Congress but included in his January budget—to increase Social Security benefits.

Nixon called for a 7 per cent increase in those benefits and proposed liberalization of the retirement test so retired persons can retain their benefits while receiving increased outside earnings.

The $4 billion in claimed savings cut all across the board, although some individual programs within agencies were granted increases.

The Justice Department budget was boosted $16 million to $730 million—a reflection of Nixon's plans, yet to be spelled out, to step up anticrime measures.

In a statement, the Budget Bureau said the revisions embrace "hard decisions on priorities, important program reforms and targeted new initiatives."

"All are part of the administration's concern for the cities, for the poor and for fundamental change in the domestic program systems of the federal government," it said.

The revised budget calls for a 10 per cent increase in spending for the poor in the coming fiscal year—a boost from $24.4 billion to $26.9 billion.

The administration claimed its budget provides more actual cash assistance to the poor than Johnson had proposed in January because of removal of a freeze on aid to families with dependent children—a $307 million item.

"Hard choice and potentially unpopular decisions have not been avoided," the statement said. "Where good judgment dictated a budget reduction because we believe a program has outlived its usefulness, that decision has been made."

Wanta Buy A Duck?

TROY, N. Y. (AP) — "Look, I'm not trying to be funny or anything," the voice on the telephone told Troy Police dispatcher Charles J. Tillotson, "but there's a duck tied to a pole just outside your station."

The plainclothesman who went to the scene found the little quacker attached to a pole outside the central police station with this note: "Please take care of my baby. I can no longer provide for him. Mrs. Donald Duck."

The blue - coated foster parents remanded the duck to the Hudson-Mohawk Humane Society.

Chapel At Springhill Cemetery

Dinner, Other Plans Made For Memorial To Newlin

A kickoff dinner has been set for May 29 in conjunction with the campaign to raise funds for a memorial honoring Marine Pfc. Melvin E. Newlin of Wellsville, who was killed in action in Vietnam.

Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio is scheduled to speak.

The memorial, in line with plans outlined during a meeting Monday night, will take the form of a chapel designed for 25 persons in Springhill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Architect Robert Beatty of East Liverpool, who is donating his services, is to tour the cemetey and begin his design within the next week.

Wayne Rose, president of Wellsville Council, announced that the city of Wellsville will donate land for the chapel and that the administration will cooperate in every way possible.

The project was outlined Monday night by 25 representatives of Wellsville and East Liverpool American Legion posts during a meeting at Post 70 in Wellsville.

A permanent committee will be appointed and Beatty's report heard during the next meeting May 1 at Post 70.

Miss Shirley Allen of the Wellsville Press, in charge of countywide publicity, said all interested in the project are requested to attend.

Pfc. Newlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Newlin of 1312 Commerce St., was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor posthumously recently in ceremonies at Washington attended by his parents.

165 Die, 1,200 Hurt In Pakistan Tornado

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP) A freak tornado from the Bay of Bengal ripped through Dacca Monday, killing at least 165 persons and injuring 1,200 in East Pakistan's capital.

Rescue workers were still digging through the debris for bodies today.

GIs Kill 198 Red Soldiers In Viet Clash

SAIGON (AP) —U.S. ground troops, planes and artillery killed at least 198 North Vietnamese soldiers early today when two enemy battalions tried to overrun a day-old camp near the Cambodian border.

Thirteen Americans were killed and three were wounded, an American spokesman said.

Spokesmen said some of the attackers got within 30 yards of the perimeter wire before they were brought down by the American firepower. It was the largest number reported slain in any recent single action along the border.

Later, an American air observer reported "40 to 50" enemy dead stacked in a field two miles from the battle site on the Cambodian side of the border. Apparently they had been carried away by the North Vietnamese for burial.

"We had helicopter gunships working from the northwest, planes from the south and artillery firing from seven different locations on the enemy," said one officer.

The base, known as Diamond III, was carved out of the jungle about 30 miles northwest of Saigon Monday by infantrymen of the 25th Division's 2nd Battalion. Hours later the GIs detected movement 200 yards beyond the camp perimeter and called in artillery support.

A division spokesman said about 500 enemy troops attacked at 3:15 a.m., charging out of the woods in waves from three directions, firing rocket grenades, mortars and small arms.

Lt. Col. Vincent Oddi of Green Cove Springs, Fla., the 2nd Battalion commander, directed the battle from a helicopter overhead. Another helicopter used a searchlight to illuminate enemy gun positions, and gunships knocked out two .51-caliber antiaircraft guns that were firing on the American infantrymen.

After the battle, infantrymen swept the area and captured eight wounded prisoners and a truckload of enemy weapons, including 40 automatic rifles, 34 rocket-grenade launchers, 198 rocket grenades and 291 hand grenades.

9th Consecutive Day

Another Artillery Battle Rages Along Suez Canal

By The Associated Press

An artillery battle raged along most of the Suez Canal today, the Israeli army announced. It was the ninth consecutive day that Israeli and Egyptian forces had exchanged fire across the waterway.

An Israeli spokesman said Egypt opened fire at 12:30 p.m. on Israeli troops entrenched on the east bank of the canal, first along the southern half of the waterway and shortly after as far north as El Quantara.

Israeli forces were firing back "to silence the sources of the Egyptian shelling," the spokesman said.

Israeli and Arab gunners also dueled today across the Jordan River cease-fire line, and Israel and Jordan each claimed the other started that fighting.

An Israeli army spokesman said an Israeli patrol was attacked with bazooka, mortar and small arms fire near Ashdot Ya'Aqov, on the southern shore of the Sea of Galilee. One Israeli soldier was slightly injured, the spokesman reported.

A Jordanian military spokesman said the Israelis opened up on Jordanian forces, touching off a 35-minute machine gun and tank duel. He said two Jordanian soldiers were slightly injured.

The Israelis claimed they hit a Jordanian gun position, and Jordan claimed to have damaged an Israeli tank and halftrack and inflicted a number of casualties.

Israel also claimed Arab infiltrators set off an explosive charge on a road near the mountainous Lebanese border.

United Nations observers restored the cease-fire along the Suez Canal Monday night after Israel and Egypt dueled with jets, artillery and tanks for the eighth straight day.

Israel reported two of its soldiers were killed and two wounded. Egypt said one of its soldiers and a civilian were wounded.

Both nations also claimed they downed a fighter-bomber. It was the first time in more than a month that aircraft had been used in the hostilities across the 103-mile waterway.

Israel denied that any of its planes had been lost but said an Egyptian MIG21 was seen going down and the pilot parachuting. Egypt acknowledged that one of its MIGs made a forced landing and claim its pilots downed an Israeli Mirage jet and damaged another.

In New York, the chief U.N. delegates of the Big Four powers held the longest of their three meetings since they began Middle East talks April 3, but as usual there was no disclosure of what was said in the meeting that lasted nearly four hours.

An announcement after the meeting said the ambassadors, from the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France, will meet again Thursday.

Before their meeting, the delegates talked informally with King Hussein of Jordan, who visited U.N.

Forecast Takes Bite Out Of Tax Problems

Though busy battling today's tax deadline, the weatherman took time out long enough to come up with a favorable forecast for tri-state area residents.

He promises that the skies will clear tonight and that Wednesday will be mostly sunny and warmer, with a high ranging between 68 and 74.

An encouraging note in an otherwise gloomy day for those who have to dig deep to pay Uncle Sam.

Nine Cases Scheduled For Grand Jury Today

LISBON — The Columbiana County Grand Jury had nine cases for investigation today—a "breather" after the 17 studied Monday.

This is the panel's fourth day in session. Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis said nine cases are scheduled today and eight Wednesday. The jury may make its inspection of the County Jail tomorrow afternoon, he said.

Cashdollar Gets Chester Council Post

Roy Cashdollar was appointed to fill the Second Ward Council seat by a 3-1 vote at the meeting of Chester City Counil Monday night at City Hall.

Cashdollar will fill the unexpired term of Richard Johnston who was appointed city clerk. Cashdollar, former Councilman and city clerk, is Beaver Local superintendent of schools.

William Tuttle abstained, saying that Cashdollar holds a seat on the city Water Board, and would have to resign that post to become Councilman.

Discussion was held on the summer street sealing program will be delayed until later in the summer when new funds will be come available.

Lester Kirschler, chairman of the City Park Commission, announced a public meeting would be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at City Hall when Anthony Torchio of Weirton and a representative of the state Department of Commerce from Charleston would speak on possibilities of obtaining recreational facilities for Chester and the federal grants which may be available.

By a 3-2 margin, Council voted against the increase of rent paid by the water and sewage board for the City Hall office.

Remittances totaled $4,513, and bills totaling $5,316.45 were ordered paid. The 1969-70 levy order was approved.

The next meeting will be April 28.

The DOCTOR Says

Aspirin Can Relieve Some Arthritis

Q—What is the difference between arthritis and rheumatism? Is any medication better than aspirin for rheumatism?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — Arthritis is an inflammation of the joints. Rheumatism is a broad term that also includes inflammation of the muscles (myositis), tendons (tenonitis) and fibrous tissues (fibrositis) in the region of a joint. Many drugs are used to treat these diseases. All have their advantages and their disadvantages. For certain types of arthritis, aspirin is one of the best.

Q — What is asyptomatic arthritis? Can it be cured?

A — When there is evidence of inflammation in the joints (objective signs rather than symptoms which are entirely subjective), the arthritis may be said to be asymptomatic. This would be relatively rare and limited to the earliest stage of the disease. It can be treated but not cured.

Q — I am 37. In the morning I wake up with a stiff neck. During the day it limbers up some but not completely. Can this be arthritis? Is aspirin safe to take for relief?

A — Your stiffness is probably a form of arthritis. Aspirin relieves pain rather than stiffness and is widely used in the treatment of this disease. In most persons one tablet four times a day is safe.

Q — I have heard that popping one's knucklts causes arthritis. I have also heard that this prevents it. What do you think.

A — The popping sound is caused by a tendon snapping across a bony prominence. So far as I know it will neigher cause nor prevent arthritis.

Q — For several years I have taken Deronil for arthritis. It is the only drug that has helped me much. Now my doctor says I cannot take it any more. What are its harmful side effects? Would hot mud baths be of any value?

A—Dexamethasone (Deronil) is one of the cortisone-like drugs. Its side effects include moonface, ache, dizziness, weakness and headache but the most harmful effects are weakening and collapse of the vertebrae, loss of resistance to infection and bleeding from the digestive tract. Some persons can avoid these by taking a small maintenance dose of the drug and omitting its use every fourth week.

ANY FORM OF heat will have a soothing effect but will not cure the disease or arrest its progress.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Would Provide $25-A-Day Fine

Bill Due In Ohio House To Curb Police Strikes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The issue over strikes by policemen is being taken to task in the Ohio Legislature.

Rep. Norman A. Murdock, R-70, Cincinnati, planned to introduce in the House today a bill to provide collective bargaining and compulsory arbitration between policemen and government ruling bodies.

Murdock said the bill would prohibit police strikes and provide a $25-a-day fine for those who do.

Murdock said the Fraternal Order of Police is backing the bill.

Earlier in the session, Murdock introduced a bill to give firemen identical collective bargaining rights.

"Any arbitration bill dealing with a single occupation will be difficult to get passed," Murdock said. "Many legislators feel there should be a package bill covering all public employes.

"Although there is strong sentiment for doing something about bargaining for public employes, I don't know if we'll get a bill out this session."

In legislative action Monday night, the Senate passed 29-1 a bill to allow most large counties to practically double their unvoted debt limitation. It would raise the present debt limitations in 64 of the 88 counties, allowing them to use general fund money rather than fees to retire the bonds.

Sen. Ralph S. Regula, R-29, Navarre, who voted against the bill, said it would allow affected county commissions to issue $177 million more without voter approval.

"Do we want to give this kind of authority to county commissioners?" he asked the Senate.

The bill sets the unvoted bonded indebtedness of counties at a flat rate of 1 per cent of its tax list.

At present, a county's indebtedness can not exceed 1 per cent of the first $100 million of the county's tax list, plus one-half of 1 per cent of the tax list in excess of that amount.

In other action, Sen. Ronald M. Mottl, D-24, Parma, introduced a resolution calling for firmer discipline for campus disorders.

Mottl said the last legislature gave colleges and universities the power to suspend or expel anyone interfering with the orderly educational process.

"Our colleges and universities have the power to stop these riots when they start," he explained. "I feel that it is time to enforce the law."

In the House, a bill to prohibit nonfarming corporations from taking over Ohio farms was introduced.

Shafer's Tax Plan Hit By Rep. Miller

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Shafer's persistence in seeking a statewide personal income tax has drawn the criticism of a Republican legislator who maintains the people are "diametrically opposed" to the proposed levy.

Rep. Marvin E. Miller of Lancaster County suggested in a floor speech Monday that Shafer refrain from holding any more regional town meetings designed to drum up support for his record $2.52 billion general operating budget.

"The average taxpayer...is fulfilling his social responsibility to society to a degree greater than in the history of any nation," Miller said, "but he is wearied and ill at ease at the thought of another direct tax upon his pay even before he gets it."

House Republicans went on record against the income tax soon after Shafer proposed it, calling instead for cuts in the budget and the financing of some $132 million in spending through borrowing.

Minority Leader Lee A. Donaldson Jr., R-Allegheny, said, however, that Miller was speaking as an individual legislator and not in behalf of the 96-member House GOP caucus. Donaldson had no further comment on the speech.

Majority Leader K. Leroy Irvis, D-Allegheny, questioned the wisdom of "painting yourself into a corner." House Democrats, who opposed Shafer's 1967 tax program, have yet to take a caucus stand on the income tax.

Miller noted that Shafer planned to be in Lancaster Thursday to explain for the benefit of area residents the reasons for his proposed 25 per cent inhis recommended income tax.

The two-term legislator said he had polled his constituency and found it to be 92 per cent against an income tax. He suggested Shafer was wasting his efforts on the town meetings.

Two Plead Not Guilty In Drink Sale Charge

LISBON — Two local residents arrested early Sunday when state liquor agents riaded the Pine Tree Inn on Route 45 pleaded not guilty Monday at arraignment before Judge J. L. MacDonald in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

John R. Tullis, employed at Pine Tree, is charged with selling an intoxicating drink to a minor and the minor, Gerald Sanders, 19, is charged with buying the drink and consuming it on the premises.

Judge MacDonald said the case will be assigned for trial. The defendants posted bonds of $100 each.

Shootout

found later on the porch of the three-story brick building.

At this point, police said, Kulak barricaded himself in his apartment. He was armed with what a police spokesman called "a small arsenal."

The arsenal included a large amount of black powder, a number of concussion grenades and homemade bombs, a grenade launcher, several automatic weapons and a .45-caliber automatic pistol.

Police exchanged gunfire with Kulak for nearly an hour. Several grenades and bombs, hurled or shot by Kulak, rocked nearby buildings and shattered windows up to two blocks away.

Police evacuated residents of the building that housed the gunman as well as the apartment buildings on either side.

Finally, two hours and a half after the shooting started, police ceased fire and attempted to talk Kulak into surrendering.

Kulak's brother, Harold, and his sister, Mrs. Catherine Potts, pleaded with their brother to give himself up, but he wouldn't answer.

Mrs. Potts and Harold then entered the building with Deputy Police Supt. James Rochford. They made their way up to the second floor landing. From there they tried to persaude Kulak to give up. He refused.

Rochford eventually talked Kulak into allowing him to come up alone and unarmed. Kulak, with a pistol in hand, met Rochford at the third floor landing.

Rochford talked with Kulak for nearly an hour. At 9:15, Kulak surrendered.

Rochford said Kulak admitted planting a homemade black powder bomb in the basement of Goldblatt's store a week ago and asserted the former Marine was responsible for several other bombings in the city.

State Dismisses City Liquor Case

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control has dismissed a reported violation by the holder of a liquor permit of the Inn Town Motel, Inc., which did business as the Coach Lounge located at 320 E. 3rd St.

The Commission said a person other than the permit holder did carry on the business without written consent of the department June, 26, 1968.

The Commission ruled that since the permit holder's lease terminated in October, 1968, the case was dismissed effective April 4, 1969.

Niles Man Arrested In Counterfeit Case

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Secret Service agents have arrested a Niles, Ohio, man and charged him with possession and attempted sale of $50,000 worth of counterfeit $100 bills.

Paul Lamonge, 57, a finisher of antique furniture, was arrested Monday and admitted having a previous criminal record when he appeared before U.S. Commissioner Clifford E. Bruce. The commissioner said he would not consider a bond under $50,000.

Lamonge's case was continued and he was taken to the Cuyahoga County Jail.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Timothy J. Potts said Lamonge faces a maximum of 30 years in a federal prison if convicted.

Freedom For A Price

Traffic in human beings, the buying and selling of individuals, once was an accepted business practice in many parts of the world. In some areas, the slave market still exists.

But in Romania today the traffic in people is slightly different. And it is selective. The only ones being "bought" and "sold" are Germans.

Actually the "purchaser" is not buying the German as a slave. He is, instead, buying his or her freedom.

THE ROMANIAN administration has been "selling" Germans covertly since 1959. Estimates are that some 28,000 Siebenburgen Germans have been "bought out" of Romania by relatives and friends and that Romanian prison and border area commanders pocketed some $3.2 million as a result of the transactions.

One former lawyer from Stuttgart has "bought" and delivered 3,984 Germans himself.

An ordinary German is reported to "sell" for $500 with his passport and exit visa included but a skilled, professional and young physically fit Germans bring up to $1,250. A prominent person has been known to have a price tag of $12,500.

Industry in labor-short West Germany, sensing the opportunity to dip into this pool of manpower, but put pressure on the Bonn government with the result that a repatriation commission is in Romania negotiating for the "sale" of more Germans. The government is offering long-term credits and pipelines (classified as strategic goods) instead of cash.

There are some 76,000 Siebenburgen Germans residing in East Germany. When they heard of the mass repatriation of Germans from Romania, 62,000 of these registered to return to Romania so they could also be "sold" into West Germany.

But Walter Ulbricht, Communist party head in East Germany, quickly stopped the sudden drain on his manpower, closed the East German repatriation office and ordered its 19 employes out of his country within 48 hours.

THERE WERE 389,000 Germans in Romania before the "selling" process began. Predictions are that if Russia does not interfere in some way, all of the Romanian Germans will have been "sold" into West Germany by Easter of next year.

A major difference between the bartering over slaves in the conventional markets of old and the current "sales" arranged in Romania is that only the purchaser could be expected to be pleased about his purchase in the slave market, while in the Romanian German transactions the "seller," the "buyer" and the "sold" are happy.

The Nuclear Age

The Shippingport nuclear power plant, which began producing electricity in 1957, was designed as the world's first commercial atomic facility but was of modest capabilities in line with its somewhat experimental nature.

The new Beaver Valley Station now under construction adjacent to the first plant will be another of the recent fullscale applications of nuclear power to the electrical generating net of the U.S. which will add 847,000 kilowatts to the power capacity of Duquesne Light, Penn Power and Ohio Edison.

Within a decade, nuclear energy sources will be producing more than a fifth of all the electricity in the nation, compared to the 60,000 kilowatts which first went out on lines from Shippingport just 12 years ago.

Completion of the Beaver Valley Station in 1973 will mark another historic first for the Duquesne operations at Shippingport — the full cycle from a pioneer peacetime application of the potential of the atom to a major realization of this potential in serving the mushrooming power needs of this region as we move well into the Nuclear Age.

The Shame Of It

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — The wonderful thing about our neighborhood in Washington, D.C., is that the people rally around when someone is in trouble.

Art Buchwald

For example, one of our neighbors is McPherson, who happens to own a Silver Shadow Rolls-Royce. It was his proudest possession, but in McPherson's defense, it must be said that he never lorded it over the rest of us. Occasionally he might have brought up the Rolls in conversation, but he'd always turn it into a joke such as, "I had a heck of a time parking the chariot this morning"; or, "My clock stopped in the Rolls last night, and I had no idea if the motor was running or not." There was nothing offensive in these remarks, but there was no question that the Rolls symbolized everything McPherson had worked for all his life.

WHILE THERE WERE a few neighbors who were bored by McPherson's talk about his Silver Shadow, most of the rest of us had a live-and-let-live attitude about it.

Then last week the roof fell in. It was announced that Rolls-Royce was calling in all its Silver Shadows and Bentley T models because of a possible faulty setscrew in the steering lever.

The first person all of us thought of was McPherson. We tried to phone, but the line was busy. So my wife said, "In a tragedy like this, they'll need food," and she started to make a casserole.

That morning we went over to McPherson's carrying the casserole.

SEVERAL NEIGHBORS were already there. The minister of the church had also arrived, and when we walked into the living room, he was talking to McPherson:

"The Lord giveth and the ord taketh away. You have to understand there are everlead conditions, even on Rolls-Royces, that no one knows anything about. The mysteries of steering mechanisms are beyond the comprehension of mortal man, but you must believe that there is some master plan beyond all this, and in the long run it will all be for the good."

"I know how you feel," I said sympathetically.

McPherson turned on me. "What do you mean, you know how I feel? None of you knows how I feel. How can I face my friends, my business associates, my golf partners? All my life I dreamed that someday I'd have a Silver Shadow, and now they're taking it away from me."

"Look, McPherson," I said, "it isn't the same as having a Chevrolet or a Ford or a Chrysler recalled, but all of us have lived through a similar experience. Believe me, in time no one will remember they recalled your Rolls-Royce."

Nolan, another neighbor who was sitting in the living room, said, "Would you like to borrow my Volkswagen while your Rolls is in the shop?"

It was obviously the wrong thing to say because McPherson broke into tears. "Oh, the shame of it. Whoever thought that one day I'd be driving a Volkswagen?"

THE MINISTER took McPherson's hand. "Try to imagine that your Silver Shadow has gone off on a trip. Your Rolls-Royce is now in that beautiful, great garage in the sky. And don't forget, you're not losing a car, you're gaining a new steering lever mechanism."

All day long the neighbors came to the house to pay their condolences. Many had baked cakes, others took the McPherson children into their homes, and still others offered to drive the McPhersons anywhere they wanted to go.

By evening McPherson was able to function again and the first upbeat thing he said was, "Well, I guess there are always taxis."

Musings From Max

By MARTIN MILLER

The snowdrops are withering and spring has barely started, weatherwise, that is. But the season moves on with crocus, jonquils, hyacinth and daffodils in turn, blooming and fading. To say nothing of winter onions rearing their fragrant stalks.

In South Africa the summer is just ending and the elephant is eating the ripened marula which ferments in the pachyderm producing alcohol and making the beast an animated still.

People in South Africa tell of half-stoned elephants chasing their autos and mowing down fences.

Meantime back in the northern hemisphere, homo sapiens also feel the sap running and such places as Palm Springs, Calif., and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., are again making news.

Up north here as the sun warms the little green things and the birds are nesting, two-legged animals also are chasing autos and mowing down fences, both literally and figuratively.

Rudyard Kipling in his "Jungle Books" told of the "spring running" when the beasts of the jungle went berserk and raced hither and thither they knew not why.

It happens every year.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana is a cool customer. He has great reservations about the ABM system even though deployment of the antiballistic missiles is slated for his own state if finally approved.

Some people in Montana naturally could profit financially from the ABM system but he lectured his constituency on the difference between pork barrel legislation and legislation which might escalate the world nuclear arms race and endanger world peace.

His appearance on "Meet the Press" two or three weeks ago was a model of how to give brief and to the point answers to complicated questions.

A friend who is an industry executive and empirical economist gave me his annual income tax lecture. He says the government takes 50 per cent of industry's profits which actually means that industry management is working half-time for the government, besides working for itself and stockholders.

He really has hardly any fault to find with the system and thinks it probably is the best ever devised. The government encourages private enterprise, lets the companies compete like cats and dogs to maintain efficiency and then takes a healthy bite of the profits which such free enterprise has created.

He calls it a modified form of state socialism. Deep stuff.

His biggest concern is that individual productivity is declining. He says this caused the economic difficulties of France and England and says the United States is going the same road.

To get back to spring.

Anybody who has peeled potatoes lately will tell you the potatoes from last winter are getting pretty spongy and have eyes sprouting from the back of their heads.

If new potatoes are just around the corner can summer be far behind?

Letters To The Editor

As a junior at East Liverpool High School, I am deeply concerned about the two levies coming up before voters on May 6. As citizens of East Liverpool, I am asking you for your complete support, and appeal to you all to vote yes, whether you agree or not.

I am proud to be a student at the finest and most beautiful high school in the state. We have had many differences and conflicts between many organizations and individuals in the school system. There are many things that need corrected at the new high school. There are many that refuse to support the schools because they don't like a certain individual on the school board or they don't agree with the decisions made by them and the Superintendent.

But, all of these things can be corrected with your help. If the levies do not pass, the school system will lose state financial aid and the schools would lose more than half of their operating funds. The schools would then have to shut down.

Our schools would follow the Youngstown Route, because some people in this town are just to stuborn to compromise or give in a little. Next year I would like to attend our own high school. The senior year and activities are the most important things a student has to look forward to.

Do you have enough money to pay tuition for your children to go to another school, or will they have to suffer through another year of sub-par education because you were not willing to give a little for this, the most important of all our concerns?

Citizens, please do not let the students of the East Liverpool School District down. These levies are just renewals. Does it hurt you to pay for something you have already been doing? The only ones you are hurting are the students. If you defeat the levies, you are defeating the future citizens of East Liverpool.

Endorse the levies! Convince others they should vote yes!

Editorial Rapped

Despite the clarifications in the Review's editorial April 7, I remain mystified to why abortion, the destruction of the fetus, the killing of the unborn, is a matter of choice like selecting an umbrella or choosing a pair of gloves.

Since when has murder become such a casual affair that it may be left to each individual conscience to determine whether or not it should be committed?

Western society, as it presently exists, is founded upon certain Judaic-Christian concepts among which is the right to life of every human being, born or unborn, or eloquently stated in our own Declaration of Independence.

This right of each human person to possess life (unless the person himself culpably forfeits his right by certain crimes against society) is not a matter for debate, option or determination by consensus.

It is an absolute and inalienable right in the religious, moral and political thought of Catholic, Protestant and Jew alike, living together in a pluralistic society.

Such a right must logically and inevitably extend to the unborn human being whether or not the fetus is thought to have a soul at some nascent stage of its development. Quite a number of people do not admit the reality of the soul at any stage of human development before or after birth, but such a belief scarcely gives them the right to eliminate any "souless" fellow citizen, defective or not, whom they happen to think is an inconvenience to themselves or to the state.

Also, if the bill is passed, there is the sinister question whether the proponents of liberalized abortion will remain content with pre-natal killing or will seek to extend their "merciful" designs ot include post-natal stages of human life as well.

Just what is the term of the kind of thinking the editorial indulges and encourages?

If unhindered, will such thinking end with the killing of the old as well as the very young? Or will it extend further to other segments of the population against whom other citizens have religious, racial or ethnical prejudices, compounded by distorted historical perspectives?

What other Hitlerian, anti-life permissiveness will follow upon legalized abortion?

As I reflect on the editorial, it becomes easier to understand why so many young people today are repudiating the decadent utilitarianism of an older generation.

After reading the letter of March 19, it did my heart good to see some one speak up for the good old USA and what they and we stand for.

If you ask me, I have been darned tired the way thing have been going and think it is high time we act like real Americans and do something about it.

RAYMOND MOLEY

The Hatching Of A Nation

The title of this piece is suggested by the cover of the playbill of the Broadway show "1776." It portrays a large egg labeled with the Union Jack and breaking through the shell is a scrawny ugly chick bearing a banner with a strange device.

When I was 21, I conceived, for reasons I cannot now fathom, an ambition to become a drama critic. That summer in Ann Arbor, Mich., where I took some courses, I told a distinguished professor of the dramatic art that I was undecided between that career and the law. Knowing a lot about the theater and nothing about the law, my advisers strongly suggested law. I got the hint and never in the years since have I written about a play—until now.

BUT MY REFLECTIONS about the amazing Broadway success of "1776" have less to do with the anatomy of the play than its impact upon the critics and the public.

The performance presents upon a stage, with only one set, several sessions of the Continental Congress in Philadelphia in the spring and early summer of 1776. It was a year after blood had been shed at Lexington and Concord, but apparently the delegates of the states were still perplexed about what they were going to do about their quarrel with England. It was in truth a do-nothing Congress. Specifically, the matter at issue and the theme of the play concerned the conception, writing and adoption of the Declaration of Independence.

There is represented, among many others, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin and the young redhead Thomas Jefferson, fresh from his study with the most learned man in the Colonies, George Wythe. Until then, the most fanatical energy of Adams had kept this idea of independence alive in the Congress. At his insistence, a committee was formed to draft the declaration, and the older members coerced Jefferson to find the words necessary to the divorce of the Colonies. The Virginian had been away from home six months, and his creative facilities needed the comforting influence of his young wife, Patty. And so Adams brought her to Philadelphia, and the elixir of love loosed the flow of the Jefferson intellect. The course of the drama from then follows history.

This story is told in hundreds of books and is well known to countless schoolboys and girls. It provides nothing new. The records are all complete. As material for drama, it would seem to be suitable only for a "pageant at homecoming day" at some village, surely not for a "sophisticated" Broadway audience.

And especially in the climate of the 1960s, when an appeal to tradition rings forth only hoots and jeers or when the blight of cynicism infects the land. Plays these days, it seems, must reveal the urban problem, the war in Vietnam, the black revolt or other subjects of social significance. Our flag is dishonored and the light of religion is extinguished in the name of civil liberty. Our schools are in disarray and our youth are taught that the past is no guide to the future.

Against all this, the people who created "1776" cast their die—they challenged all of the traditions of musical comedy. They disdained the box-office appeal of name stars. They had only two women in the show, and one, Abigail Adams, was still in Massachusetts. There was no shouting chorus. No songs you can remember, no dancing except a bit of choreography by Benjamin Franklin between bouts of gout.

AS WALTER KERR wrote in the New York Times, "how, pray, do you get a musical out of that? By going about your business without compromise, apology, self-consciousness, piety or fear . . . It is the most independent musical comedy in years, and if you've got any character of your own you'll go and see it instantly just to keep its independence company."

I attended this show during its first week, not as a critic but as a paying guest, just to gain more muscle for my belief in the essential soundness of the American people. But a packed house boisterously joined me in my appreciation. I saw and heard there the answer to all this talk about a "sick society." For in its crude beginnings this country had the stuff out of which its greatness came to be inevitable. Tickets are selling for months ahead, and more than one critic has said it will be running until 1976.

Congress Expects New Laws

U.S. Power To Regulate Tobacco Ads Due Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — A verdict on the government's power to force radio and television stations to use antismoking messages could come from the Supreme Court, perhaps within the next few weeks.

While Congress contemplates new legislation, the court could guide the lawmakers by ruling on the claim that the Constitution's broad guaranty against government censorship can be used as a shield against regulation of radio-TV advertising.

The tobacco and broadcasting industries are banking heavily on 1st Amendment freedom of speech and press guarantees as they try to cut down the 1967 Federal Communications Commission rule requiring antismoking messages.

Their appeals, pending before the Court, argue that the broadcasting industry has been singled out unfairly—and unconstitutionally; that the government could never get away with this kind of regulation if it tried to apply it to newspapers, for instance.

"Are broadcasters distinguishable for 1st Amendment purposes?", the National Association of Broadcasters asks.

The tobacco manufacturers, meanwhile, have reminded the justices that they held long ago the 1st Amendment "protects the citizen not only against governmenal prohibitions on what he wishes to say, but also against governmental dictation of what he must say."

The object of this spirited attack is the FCC rule that stations carrying cigarette commercials must provide "a significant amount of time for the other viewpoint"—the viewpoint that cigarette smoking can be a hazard to health.

Successful in court so far, the FCC has moved on to propose a flat ban on all cigarette commercials on radio and television —with the possible exception of cigarettes "low in tar and nicotine and related filter aspects."

The fate of this stiffer fiat probably rests as much with the Supreme Court as with Congress.

If the justices turn their backs on the broadcasters and the tobacco people, refusing even to grant them a full-dress hearing, congressional proponents of antismoking measures would be emboldened to drive ahead.

However, if the justices set the appeal down for a hearing next term, the effect likely would be to restrain the more adventurous legislators. A very real prospect of court disapproval will have been raised.

The FCC, for its part, has brushed aside the 1st Amendment argument and pitched its case to protecting the public against "the powerful blandishments" of cigarette advertising.

The agency argues that one side to the debate over smoking, the cigarette manufacturers, have "economic interests and resources unmatched by any opponent."

Therefore, the agency says, the Constitution and the public interest are served "by an attempt to address the balance" with government-ordered antismoking messages.

Plans Made For Honoring Top Students

Plans were advanced for the annual dinner for the top 10 per cent of the graduating classes of East Liverpool, Beaver Local, Oak Glen and South Side high schools when the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce education committee met Monday.

The dinner will be held May 20 in the banquet room of the Travelers Hotel at 6 p. m. Edwin Maloney is in charge of certificates and Collin Neal is in charge of decorations.

The committee agreed to underwrite and help prepare a pamphlet to assist in the recruitment of teachers for the East Liverpool school system.

Leo Lawrence, chairman of the chamber committee and co-chairman of the citizens' committee, outlined the program for promotion of the levy renewals which will face voters May 6.

During Action Monday Night

Lisbon Council To Lease Roller For Street Work

LISBON — Council voted Monday night to lease a roller for six months at $300 a month with an option to buy it for $200 at the end of the lease period.

Council President Bill Mattix and Street Commissioner Third Flugan inspected the roller yesterday at the Tri-State-Asphalt Co. in Martins Ferry.

Mattix was reimbursed $25 last night for the trip.

Flugan said the roller weighs between four and six tons and has auxiliary wheels for moving it from job to job. Mattix said Tri-State will make delivery. Councilman Charles Webber opposed the lease, explaining afterward he does not think it is wise to buy used equipment.

Flugan asked Council to set up a program of streets to be repaired and said he will need two more men to assist with the program as soon as the slag arrives.

—:—

COUNCIL confirmed Mayor Clyde B. Pike's employment of Edgar Phillips and Jud Griffith, local high school students, to take care of the parks this season at $1.65 an hour.

The annual spring cleanup was set for next week, with street department workers hauling away ashes and trash placed in containers at curb or alley.

Responding to a request from the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs, Council authorized Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi to draft an ordinance to discontinue any further extension of water or sewer lines outside the corporation limits.

Council also approved a motion to discontinue temporarily any further extensions of the lines outside the community until the requested ordinance becomes effective.

Reed McClure, village engineer, said the Board of Public Affairs believes that once people outside Lisbon obtain the services they no longer have an incentive to seek annexation to the village.

MAYOR PIKE said the Lisbon Area Chamber of Commerce wants to meet with Council Wednesday night to discuss the annexation suggestion made March 10.

William T. Hiscox of the Lions Club reported the annual street fair is scheduled for July 16-19, Wednesday through Saturday, on S. Park Ave. and Market St. from Lincoln Way south to Washington St. Council gave the club permission to hold the fair after Hiscox said members polled merchants in the fair area and only three registered objections.

Clerk-Treasurer John Ebert said the Ohio Highway Department has announced a public hearing for 1:30 p.m. May 15 at David Anderson High School on the proposed relocation, rerouting and abandonment of a portion of Route 45 in Elkrun and Center townships and the relocation and abandonment of a portion of Route 517 (the Lisbon-Fairfield Rd.) in Center Township. The changes result from the construction of Route 11, the Lake Erie-to-Ohio River freeway, east of here.

Ebert said he is awaiting word from the American La France Co. on its representative's inspection of Lisbon's 1941 fire truck March 26. Volunteer firemen last summer told Council the truck is beyond repair and should be replaced.

Council voted to direct Fire Chief W. A. Peters to notify James Todd to remove material from his burned out garage building on Jail Alley.

At Ebert's request, Council transferred $500 from the general fund to the swimming pool fund.

FLUGAN told councilmen that parked automobiles interfere with his use of the street sweeper. They said he should post "No Parking" signs on streets to be swept the night before he intends to work them, and police should precede the sweeper and have violators towed away.

McClure said he had been asked how much it would cost to build a new street — a 24-foot blacktop surface with two-foot gutters on each side. He said the cost would be about $13.20 a lineal foot of pavement or about $10 per square yard. The cost to the owner of a 70-foot-wide lot would be about $650, he said, and could be spread over 10 years and paid annually or semi - annually as an assessment on the real estate tax bill.

Rod Goodyear of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. asked Council to consider using calcium chloride on side streets and alleys. Councilman Ray Beers said the first responsibility is "to patch the potholes around town."

Pile Of Bills Offered On 19-Year-Olds

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General Assembly, already on record in favor of lowering the voting age, is stacking up the bills to permit 19-year-olds to do almost everything else but drink.

A number of bills already have been instroduced in the House. Monday, Senate Majority Leader Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford, came up with a blockbusting total of 40 bills on the subject.

Stroup, a lawyer and former school administrator, labelled his package the "19-year-old emancipation bills." They would he said, "amend existing legislation to reduce the age of majority in Pennsylvania by two years."

Along the lines of another blockbuster was the $961.3 million proposed capital budget for 1969-1970 which Gov. Shafer sent to the House and Senate Monday.

The budget, which outlines financing of construction of highways, schools and other public works, drew little comment from legislators, however. They were more concerned with the record $2.52 billion General Fund budget proposed by Shafer in January.

The key to the General Fund budget — a state personal income tax of possibly 3 per cent — was attacked anew by Rep. Marvin E. Miller, R-Lancaster, in a floor speech Monday.

Miller is the strongest denunciation yet of the governor by a member of his own party said:

"I suggest we reserve the area of income taxes to the federal government, which first preempted it, and to the local government, without adding a third hand in the pocket of Robert and Rachel Rankandfile."

The General Assembly, just returned from a two week recess, was not in high gear Monday and little floor action occurred.

Wetzel Opposes County Tax Plan

LISBON — State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel told the Columbiana County Republican advisory group Monday he is opposed to a proposed mandatory county income tax.

A member of the House Finance Committee, Wetzel told local GOP leaders there is enough "fat" in education and welfare allocations to meet their needs.

He said the Ohio Education Association's pressure on legislators to approve proposed bills "amounts to blackmail."

Eyler Hinchliffe of Lisbon, vice chairman, presided for the luncheon meeting at the Wick Hotel.

Inhalation Therapist Named For Hospital

Dr. Arthur Phillips is director of the new department.

Inhalation therapists administer inhalation therapy to patients with respiratory diseases, to post-operative patients and to victims of chest injuries, when prescribed by the attending physician.

Wetzel Proposes Changes In Ohio Adoption Policy

By JOHN THOMAS
Review Correspondent

COLUMBUS — Couples could adopt children of different racial, religious and cultural backgrounds than theirs if it were judged in the best interests of the youngsters under a bill introduced in the House Monday night by State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel (R-Columbiana).

Presently, the racial, religious and cultural backgrounds of the adopting parents and the children are to be considered by the welfare agencies.

But, Wetzel's bill would permit disapproval of the adoption on those grounds only when such factors could be shown to be psychologically detrimental to the children.

In other House action Monday Wetzel introduced three other pieces of legislation, including one bill that would provide night differential pay for state employes who work from 2 p.m. to 6 a.m.

The differential would be figured by paying the employes the pay rate for the next higher grade, if any.

Another Wetzel bill would authorize deputy directors of state departments to act as directors in their supervisors' absences.

Football Profit Set At $12,500

A net profit of $12,510 for the 1968 football season was reported during Monday night's meeting of the East Liverpool High School Athletic Association.

The report — from June 1, 1968, to March 1, 1969—showed an income from all sources of $47,116 and expenses of $34,606.

—:—

IN OTHER action, the association allocated $150 for the purchase of equipment for a girls' track and field team and authorized the use of the Patterson Field track, when not needed by the boys' team.

Mrs. Carol Pearson, adviser, informed the board that 70 girls have signed for the squad and some 42 have been attending practice sessions each evening at Thompson Park.

She pointed out that there are several girls' teams in the district, none of which, however, is directly connected with the schools since they do not have certified personnel working with them — a requirement under a school program.

Frank Moss, assistant football coach, also spoke on behalf of the team.

Joseph Smith, treasurer, said the basketball and wrestling reports will be submitted at the May meeting.

Smith reported an association balance of $19,773 as of April 1, broken down as follows: $10,455 in the track savings account, $4,353 in the regular savings account and $4,964 in the checking account.

A discussion was held on cars being driven on the East Elementary grounds.

—:—

BOARD Member Harry McConville, commenting on the recent study of the Professional Rights and Responsibilities Commission of the Ohio Education Association, declared:

"Every uniform ordered has been done so through athletic board action."

He was referring to a statement in the group's report that a board of education member had authorized the ordering of athletic uniforms. McConville said he had conferred with the other board members and was assured that they had taken no such action and emphasized that he had not.

First reading was given to the revised constitution and bylaws.

The association will meet again May 12.

Democratic Senators Face '70 Election Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The legacy of a landslide falls due next year and, ironically, it poses a problem for the Democrats who won it.

Democratic senators who won their terms in former President Lyndon B. Johnson's electoral blitz of 1964 must run again in 1970, and the Republican National Committee says the GOP has a chance of winning control of the Senate for the first time in more than two decades.

Democratic analysts are frankly worried.

Normally, an off-year election produces congressional gains for the party which does not control the White House, but in 1970 the arithmetic and the circumstances could work against tradition.

There are 33 Senate seats at stake, 25 of them now Democratic, only eight Republican.

Democrats now control the Senate, 58 to 42. But a gain of eight seats—making the parties even—would put the GOP in charge because Vice President Spiro T. Agnew would cast the decisive vote in a tie.

Frequently, an off-year election casts the presidential party in a defensive role. But the Democrats are not sure that will be the case next year.

One official at the Democratic National Committee already is advising Sen. Fred R. Harris, the chairman, that the party should brace for a GOP on the offensive.

This Democratic strategist maintains the party should map its campaign plans on the assumption that President Nixon will succeed in settling the two biggest problems he faces: The war in Vietnam and inflation at home.

If that is the situation when campaign time comes, he says, "the Republicans will not only not be on the defensive in 1970 but quite on the contrary will be robustly on the attack."

Furthermore, a Democratic analysis of the 1964 returns indicates another problem—Republicans who won seats in that election withstood the undertow of Sen. Barry Goldwater's losing ticket, while Democrats rode with the presidential tide. Johnson polled 43 million votes, Goldwater 27 million.

Outside the Deep South, only five Democratic senators elected in 1964 ran ahead of the Johnson ticket. The others, presumably, benefitted from the presidential returns.

In four of their victories, Democratic analysts believe, the coattail power of Johnson's massive showing was the decisive factor.

The Senate elections they put in this category are those of Sens. Howard Cannon of Nevada, Joseph M. Montoya of New Mexico, William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Stephen M. Young of Ohio.

Against that background, Democrats are advising their Senate candidates to make an early start on the 1970 race, not only to build for the November election, but also in hopes of averting troublesome primary contests.

The strategy-makers also counsel concentration on the suburban precincts, where President Nixon made his best showing last November.

'More Than Coincidence'

Democrat Assails Rhodes After Spending Cut Step

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes, who was elected to office seven years ago on an austerity platform, thwarted an attempt Monday by Democrats to beat him at his own game.

Rep. William E. Hinig, D-32 New Philadelphia, said it was "probably more than a coincidence" that Rhodes' order Monday morning calling for cuts in state spending came just five hours before the Democrats' news conference.

In a statement prepared several days ago, Hinig blasted the administration for spending money on ads in out-of-state papers, for proposed "welcome to Ohio signs" and for an unprofitable state magazine.

Hinig was one of five members of the Democratic Policy Committee who appeared at the news conference to attack administration proposals.

Others were Reps. David L. Headley, D-96 Barberton, Donald J. Pease, D - 75, Oberlin, James F. Flannery, D-48 Cleveland and Sen. William B. Nye, D-28 Akron.

Hinig said Ohio pays $17,000 every time it places an ad in the Wall Street Journal. He also cited what the called other wastes in state government, including:

—State cars being misused.

—Bronze doors for the Statehouse that cost $100,000.

— The Wonderful World of Ohio magazine that costs $200,000 a year.

— A public restroom along I-71 to be opened May 31 at a cost of $62,700.

Headly attacked the State Controlling Board for "super powers" and for transferring funds from one account to another.

Pease said tax reform is necessary and the Rhodes administration refuses to consider it.

Hinig called for reevaluation of present state programs, saying Ohio should "cut out the fat, the waste, the inefficiencies."

Rhodes announced earlier Monday that he had ordered State Finance Director Howard Collier to review the state's fiscal situation "in light of current economic conditions." He said "drastic" measures might be necessary to maintain a balanced budget for the state.

Collier said the governor's new austerity program was touched off by rising welfare and medical assistance costs.

Rising welfare caseloads may produce unanticipated costs of $4 million by June, he said, cutting into the $8 million savings anticipated by the state.

Collier announced a state hiring freeze and other belt-tightening measures last January, but he said Monday they have only been about 50 per cent effective.

In ordering the austerity program, Rhodes said several possible avenues are available, including layoffs in some departments and delay in some building projects.

Nixon Aides Face AFL-CIO On Inflation, Jobless Issue

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) — The administration sent its top economic policymakers before the AFL-CIO's leaders today to give assurances that President Nixon's three-way squeeze on inflation won't put millions out of work.

Chairman Paul W. McCracken of the Council of Economic Advisors, Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy and Arthur M. Burns, counselor to the President, were on the agenda of the extraordinary closed-door meeting at the luxurious Greenbrier Hotel.

Despite a tight curtain of silence, AFL-CIO sources have disclosed that labor officials are disturbed by Nixon's planned cutback in domestic spending and fear that some of his lieutenants would be willing to permit a painful rise in unemployment to insure that inflation is quashed.

Nixon's anti-inflation strategy —extension of the surtax, cutbacks in federal spending and a tight rein on credit—was endorsed at Monday's opening session by the top economist of the Johnson administration, Dr. Arthur Okun.

"The No. 1 economic problem remains that of restraining inflation without endangering our economic prosperity in the process," said Okun, who headed the President's Economic Council until the White House changed hands.

With the Present package of anti-inflation tools, Okun added, "I am optimistic that it can be done."

Okun's endorsement was not surprising, because the Nixon program is essentially the same one he helped to prepare for former President Lyndon B. Johnson. It has been adopted by Nixon, but reinformed with an additional $2.4 billion reduction in the federal budget for fiscal 1970.

The union chiefs, including AFL-CIO President George Meany, declined to comment on the newly-pared Nixon budget, which reportedly will cut deeply into some programs favored by labor. They were similarly mum on the Okun's defense of the Nixon policy of "gradual but persistent" restraint.

Under the rules set for the three-day conference at this luxurious resort, the AFL-CIO not only has barred reporters from the meetings but also has refused to provide briefings or prepared statements on the proceedings. Most of the government officials participating have agreed to talk with newsmen.

O'Grady Says Rhodes Will Leave Politics

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — State Democratic chairman Eugene P. O'Grady predicted here Monday that Gov. James A. Rhodes will withdraw from active politics when his current term expires.

O'Grady said Rhodes' control over the Ohio Republican Party has been diminishing, partly because he is barred by law from seeking reelection and partly because he has proposed legislative programs without funds to support them.

O'Grady said Rhodes is aware of his diminishing influence and "financial crisis" and will not seek the GOP nomination for the U.S. Senate in 1970.

Commander Of Apollo 11

Civilian Slated As First Man To Walk On Moon

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — A civilian spaceman may make his mark in history by taking a walk.

The stroll would be on the surface of the moon, and space officials said Monday that Neil Armstrong, commander of Apollo 11, is scheduled to be the first man to make it.

George Low, director of the Apollo spacecraft program office, said Monday it was intended that Armstrong, 38, would be the first man to set foot on the earth's satellite after he and Air Force Col. Edwin E. Aldrin, 39, land he Apollo 11 lunar module there.

If all goes according to plan, Armstrong will explore for two hours and 40 minutes, and will be joined by Aldrin several minutes after he takes the first step.

Low said the space duo would land on the moon and immediately throw the switches that would leave the module ready for an immediate launch should an emergency develop.

Then Armstrong and Aldrin will rest for four hours aboard the little craft. Low said he didn't expect either to get much sleep.

Armstrong will start the moon surface stroll by opening the lunar module hatch and descending a ladder.

One of his first acts, Low said, would be to gather a sample of moon rock, the first of 50 pounds Armstrong and Aldrin will pick up.

With the rocks safely in hand, Armstrong will test the ability of man to perform on the airless moon surface wearing a bulky space suit and handicapped by the satellite's lesser gravity.

Aldrin will join his commander and the two will gather other lunar rocks and set up a moon experiment package which will radiodata back to earth for up to a year.

Near the end of the two-hour-and-40 minute period on the surface, the pair will hurry back to the safety of the lunar module.

Low said the two would be on the Lunar surface a total of 22 hours, but would spend only a fraction of that time outside the module.

During their moon walk, he said, they will get no farther than 50 to 100 feet from their craft.

Apollo 11 is planned for launch from Cape Kennedy July 16. The landing is expected on July 20.

Wilson's Embattled Regime To Press Belt-Tightening

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson's embattled Labor government prepared to give the British people another bitter dose of belt-tightening austerity today.

Higher taxes, a forced savings scheme or a combination of the two were expected in the annual tax budget statement Chancellor of the Exchequer Roy Jenkins was to read in the House of Commons this afternoon. It was certain to lower the government's popularity still more.

Wilson is already faced with a divided cabinet and an irate trade union movement because of his determination to take strong measures to curb the wave of wildcat strikes hurting the export drive. There are demands for Wilson's replacement, and some union leaders are demanding a nationwide, 24-hour strike to protest the proposed curbs.

Informants said Jenkins, by means of his new budget, hoped to drain off 400 million pounds —$960 million—from British pocketbooks in order to reduce buying of foreign goods.

Imports last year sent the nation's foreign payments account plunging to a deficit of nearly $1.5 billion. The deficit averaged $87.2 million—during the first two months this year—more than $1 billion on an annual basis.

The budget today is the second from Jenkins since he became chancellor soon after Britain devalued the pound 17 months ago.

Last year's budget was the toughest in British peacetime history and siphoned off nearly one billion pounds, $2.4 billion, in purchasing power. Yet it failed to inhibit the public's spending.

3 Accidents Reported To Police Here

Three traffic mishaps in which autos were damaged were reported to police Monday.

Officers said a 1966 panel truck driven by George L. Heebner, 64, of 1016 Ephriam St. and a 1967 compact owned by Richard C. Silverthorn of 1714 Park Ave. were involved in a crash at Jefferson St. about 20 feet south of the Summit Ln. intersection. Silverthorn's car was paredk.

Heebner said he was pulling into the curb to pick up flowers at a nearby church when he struck the car with his truck. There was minor damage to the right front fender of the truck, which is owned by the Carriage House of 209 E. 5th St.

Students Vote More Strike At Harvard

By The Associated Press

Several thousand Harvard University students have voted to strike classes for three more days while sit-ins continue at three other major college campuses.

At a mass meeting in Harvard Stadium, students twice voted Monday by narrow margins not to continue the strike until the university met all demands including abolition of the ROTC program.

Then on a voice vote the assembly roared its approval of a motion to continue the strike for three days and demand a public reply from the administration on the use of police to oust 200 sit-ins Thursday.

At Columbia University in New York City about 20 black students occupied an office to back demands for a larger role in recruiting more black applications. The university rejected their demands.

Wary Eye On Courts, Calendar

Sharply Split House Unit Airs Cigarette Ad Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sharply divided House Commerce Committee opened hearings on the explosive issue of cigarette advertising today with a wary eye on the courts and the calendar.

After reserving the first day of testimony to hear members of Congress, the committee has slated witnesses ranging from the American Cancer Society to the tobacco industry.

The central issue: Should the Federal Communications Commission be allowed to ban cigarette advertising from the airwaves.

The FCC has said it will if a 1965 law prohibiting it from further regulating such advertising expires on schedule June 30.

Even while the two weeks of hearings are in progress a ruling could come down from the Supreme Court on a directly related case involving the government's power to force radio and television stations to use anti-smoking messages.

The court's decision would be a guide to lawmakers on how it applies to the whole area of cigarette advertising the Constitution's broad guaranty against censorship.

In Congress there are basically three approaches being considered: Extend the ban on FCC action, allow it to stiffen existing regulations that require a hazardous warning label on cigarette packages or give the FCC a free hand by allowing the current curbs to expire.

It was the 1965 law requiring a health warning to cigarette-labeling that included the ban on the FCC from imposing changes any more on cigarette advertising for four years.

Some 80 Congressmen from tobacco-growing states have sponsored bills to keep the ban in effect, about a dozen of them members of the Commerce Committee.

Cigarette advertising brings in about $226.9 million annually to broadcasters, estimated to be roughly 10 per cent of their revenue.

The first voluntary action after the FCC announced its intentions in February came last week when The Washington Post announced that its television stations—WTOP in Washington and WJXT in Jacksonville, Fla.—would not accept cigarette advertising after June 1. The ban also will apply to WTOP AM and FM radio.

Cigarette packages now are required to carry this warning: "Caution: Cigarette Smoking May Be Hazardous To Your Health." The tougher wording favored by some Congressmen would read this way: "Warning: Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Health and May Cause Death from Cancer and Other Diseases."

3 On Wylie's Staff Resign In Pay Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three members of Rep. Chalmers Wylie's staff of nine have resigned beause, they say, the Ohio Republican has decided to deny them automatic pay raises employes are scheduled to receive in July.

They said Monday that Wylie advised them he also would reduce their pay in June to offset the four to 10 per cent salary hikes that will be going to other government workers.

Harold Schellenger, Wylie's former administrative assistant, and his wife, a clerk in the office, said they resigned after the congressman "refused our appeals to treat his employes as all other federal employes are treated."

He said Wylie did this after voting for a raise of $12,500 to $42,500 for himself.

Wylie acknowledged that four staff members resigned recently, but said only two of them, Schellenger and his wife, quit because of money.

Wylie said he took the action after learning that his staff members had received a pay increase at the directive of the House speaker without his knowledge.

"I told my employes the speaker wasn't going to dictate the wages of my office," Wylie said.

The congressman said he also opposed the $12,500 wage boost given to all members of Congress.

Schellenger noted that Wylie did not vote against the congressional pay raises and added:

"Wylie continued to say he was against the raises but he did nothing to support any movement to stop it. Some congressmen said they would not take it—turning it back, giving it to scholarship funds—but he made no move to give it up."

Another of the employes who resigned, Teddi Smith, denied quitting because of money. She said she got a job with more responsibility.

The fourth employe, who asked that her name not be used, disputed the congressman's statement that money had nothing to do with her resignation.

"Yes it did," she said. "I resigned because I found a better job and the reason I found it was I went to look after learning I wouldn't get the pay raise."

For 11 months, 1948-49, Allied airmen working around the clock brought more than 2,300,000 tons of food and supplies to blockade West Berlin. Some 275,000 trips were made.

Charlie Jackson pays 75c a day to park.
That's $187.50 a year.
His auto insurance doesn't cost that much!

Charlie's like most of us.

He didn't like it much when the rates went up at his parking lot. But he didn't fuss about it. After all, it still adds up to only a few quarters. That doesn't seem like much when you pay by the day.

And Charlie really doesn't like to pay for auto insurance, either. But he's more conscious of the cost of insurance because he pays for it with one or two checks a year. Actually, it doesn't cost as much as his parking fees.

Parking and insurance are part of the cost of owning a car. But there's one big difference. Charlie uses his parking spot 8 hours a day, about 250 days a year. His car insurance is in effect 24 hours a day, 365 days a year — protecting him and his family and anyone who rides in his car. It also protects anyone else who may suffer loss if Charlie causes an accident.

Like the cost of parking, the cost of car insurance has been going up. But it has not risen as much as the related increase in the number of traffic accidents ... the cost of repairing damaged autos ... or the cost of medical care for people hurt in accidents. These are what insurance pays for.

People can't do much about inflation. But everyone can help do something about accidents. Like driving defensively and considerately and obeying the rules of the road. The accident that doesn't happen doesn't cost anything. Every driver is helping to determine the cost of insurance whenever he's at the wheel.

Charlie, like the rest of us, sometimes forgets about that.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY GO WHEN YOU OWN A CAR?*

Figured on an operating cost of 11¢ a mile.
2.8¢ — Depreciation (from original cost)
2.1¢ — Maintenance, accessories, parts & tires
1.8¢ — Garages, parking & tolls
1.7¢ — Gas & oil (excluding taxes)
1.4¢ — Auto insurance
1.2¢ — State & Federal taxes.

St. Clair Water Snarl Holds Up Lisbon Plan

LISBON — The federal government will not consider an application for a planning grant to extend the Lisbon water system while the proposed St. Clair Water System hangs high and dry in litigation.

Columbiana County commissioners received that message Monday from the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Chicago.

The letter made no reference to the commissioners' February application to HUD for $53,150 for design and construction plans for the Salem Northeast Sewer System.

—:—

EDWARD BRUDER, assistant regional administrator for metropolitan development, made the following reply to the commissioners' request for information on the status of the request for the Lisbon grant:

"The review and evaluation of these applications has been suspended pending the outcome of litigation against your other project, WS-Ohio-33 (the St. Clair Water System) which has approved April 20, 1967.

"Of concern to our office is the possibility of similar legal action and the ability of Columbiana County to finance the increased costs of WS-Ohio-33 in addition to the local share of this project."

The county received a $240,000 federal grant two years ago toward the St.Clair project—50,000 feet of mains and two standpipes to serve portions of Glenmoor, Calcutta and Gaston Pl. The estimated cost at that time was $620,000.

HUD's third extension of the $240,000 grant expires today. The commissioners have received no reply to their request for an extension.

While the St. Clair system opponents have been reversed in Probate Court, Common Pleas Court and the Seventh District Court of Appeals, they have kept the commissioners from proceeding with construction.

Bids were opened one year ago, but HUD would not release the $240,000 until the litigation is settled to its satisfaction. Commissioners grant that the project would have to be re-bid when the way is cleared to proceed.

The latest action against the commissioners is an injunction sought by Robert Bertschy and more than 370 others. It was filed Dec. 30 while another St. Clair group's appeal from a Common Pleas Court ruling was pending in the Appellate Court which subsequently affirmed the Common Pleas Court decision.

Opponents claim some 200 of the residents did not receive written notice of the proposed improvement and tentative assessment as required by law and that the $3-per-front-foot assessment is confiscatory. They have their own water wells and do not want city water, they say.

A CONTRACT for two probate binders and one adoption record for Probate Court went to William Lilienthal & Sons of Cambridge on a low bid of $184. National Graphics, formerly the Columbus Blank Book Co. and the Heer Printing Co., bid $355.

Mrs. Ruth Kauffman, president of the County Board of Mental Retardation; Mrs. Edith Martsolf, supervisor of the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children, and Donald Hepp, County Walfare Director and a member of the mental retardation board, met with the commissioners and Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect regarding details to be completed at the new school on Route 172, west of here.

The dedication and open house is scheduled May 4. Beatty studied the board's list of work to be completed and said he would ask the various contractors to meet the demands.

The Board of Mental Retardation complained about a $1,200 bill for electric heat at the school in January and said there had been over a month's delay before anything was done to try and correct the situation. Beatty said he would get $350 from the contractors to reimburse the board for the amount over what the bill should have been with the heating system in working order.

A 13-year-old brother of one of the prisoners waiting outside attached a hack-saw blade to it. The prisoners then began sawing the bars on the windows.

Miss Jo Ann Bradfield will be faculty sponsor for the last program and Moss will act as the Jaycee representative.

The Region 8 Jaycee meeting will be held at the IBOP building April 25 at 6:30 p. m. The speak - up contest will highlight the event.

The April membership meeting was announced for April 28 at the Inn Town Motel at 7:30 p.m.

Officers to be elected at the May membership meeting will be inducted during the inaugural ball June 13 at the Willows. Entertainment will be provided by the Playboys of Steubenville.

A report was given on the Easter egg hunt and Richard Crable reported on the drivers' education program.

Paul Zehnder, chairman of the 1969 horse show committee, reported the project has been postponed until early August. The board pointed out "it believes it has a responsibility to the merchants to put on as good a show as possible and because of conditions at this time it does not feel it could do justice to the merchants who are advertising in the program."

The directors endorsed the 11-mill and 1-mill renewal operating levies for the East Liverpool schools which will be on the ballot May 6.

Moss suggested the youth and government project be held in conjunction with the "Youth in Action" club of the East Liverpool High School this year, with the strong recommendation that this be continued by next year's board. The directors endorsed the move.

Robertson Best Actor Winner

Streisand, Hepburn Tie For Best Actress Oscars

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The second tie in the 41-year history of the Academy Awards gives Oscars to both Barbra Streisand of "Funny Girl" and Katharine Hepburn of "The Lion in Winter"—and makes Miss Hepburn the first three-time winner.

Cliff Robertson in the role of the mentally retarded man whom doctors turn temporarily into a genius in "Charly" was named best actor of 1968 at Monday night's presentations.

"Oliver!," a musical spectacle based on Charles Dickens'—'Oliver Twist," was voted the year's best picture. It won in five categories, including best-director laurels for Sir Carol Reed with this, his first musical.

For supporting performances, the honors went to Jack Albertson as the blustering father in "The Subject Was Roses" and Ruth Gordon as the meddling neighbor and part-time witch in "Rosemary's Baby."

Races in all the top categories were close, but the selection of 'Oliver!" as best picture over "The Lion in Winter" was a surprise to some observers. "The academy voters apparently wanted entertainment this year," one veteran Oscar-watcher commented.

Ingrid Bergman, presenting the best-actress Oscar, looked stunned and unbelieving as she opened the envelope containing the winners' names and exclaimed: "It's a tie!"

A tie happened only once before, in 1932, when best-actor awards went to both Fredric March for "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and Wallace Beery for "The Champ."

Miss Hepburn, 59, this year became the record holder for Oscar nomination with 11. Her previous awards as best actress were for work in "Morning Glory," 1933, and "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," last year. She is the first triple winner in the lead actor catageory, either male or female. Miss Hepburn also is the second star to win twice in succession. Luise Rainer accomplished this in the 1930s.

Walter Brennan, has won three Oscars but they were for supporting roles.

Miss Hepburn, who won as the queenly Eleanor of Aquitaine in "The Lion in Winter," didn't attend the ceremonies—just as she didn't the other two times she won. She was reported to be in New York.

Robertson, on location in the Philippines, was another absentee.

Miss Streisand, the Brooklyn girl who won with a rollicking portrayal of Fanny Brice in "Funny Girl," her first movie, said from the podium: "I'm very honored to be in such magnificent company as Katharine Hepburn. The first script of "Funny Girl" was written when I was 11 years old. Thank God it took so long to get it right.

"It's like when somebody asked if I'm happy. I said, 'Are you kidding? If I was happy I'd be miserable.' I'd like to thank all the members of the academy for making me miserable."

Asked about her comments backstage, she said: "Maybe some people are basically happy when they're miserable."

She said the award was "really unexpected. I never gave it much thought. I enjoy the work, and to get the award for it is just whipped cream on the cake."

There was no explanation of the tie balloting among the 3,030 voting members of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Vote totals are never announced.

For best song the Oscar went to the intricate melody, "The Windmills of Your Mind," sung by Noel Harrison in "The Thomas Crown Affair." The French composer, Michel Legrand, was in Paris, working on another film score. The husband-wife lyricists, Marilyn and Alan Bergman, accepted their Oscars.

The Soviet Union's 6½-hour spectacular, "War and Peace," collected the award for best foreign language film. It was presented to the picture's beautiful, dark-haired star, Ludmilla Savalyeva.

Writing winners were James Goldman for adaptation of his play, "The Lion in Winter" and comedian-scenarist Mel Brooks for his original screenplay of "The Producers."

The award to the gray-haired, balding Albertson capped a long career ranging from burlesque comedy to vaudeville, theater and supporting movie roles.

"My eternal gratitude will always be reserved for the man who made this moment possible, Frank Gilroy, who wrote 'The Subject Was Roses,' " Albertson said. There were tears in his eyes as he addressed the crowd of 3,000 in the Music Center Pavilion and a nationwide television audience.

Backstage, Albertson remarked that he won Broadway's Tony award in the play and that author Gilroy "insisted I do both the play and the movie."

The 72-year-old Miss Gordon drew loud laughter by admitting she made her film debut in 1915 and: "I can't tell you how encouraging a thing like this is."

To newsmen backstage she confided, "My husband said if I didn't win this time he wasn't going to bring me again."

She was nominated as a supporting actress in "Inside Daisy Clover," a 1965 film. She is also a writer like her husband, Garson Kanin, and with him was nominated for screenplays of "A Double Life" in 1947, "Adam's Rib," 1950, and "Pat and Mike," 1952.

Bob Hope, who has been master of ceremonies of 14 Oscar presentations, was replaced this year by 10 alternating actors and actresses serving as hosts, hostesses and award presenters. But Hope made an appearance, giving Martha Raye the Jean Hersholt award "for great humanitarian service."

Motorist Fined, Jailed By Judge

A 31-year-old city man was fined and jailed for driving while intoxicated by County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine Monday.

Isaac Oesch Jr. of Rogers RD 1 was fined $10 and costs for failure to stop in the assured clear distance. Both fine and costs were suspended.

Jury Starts Deliberating Sirhan's Fate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The fate of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan rests with a jury that must weigh this question: how ill was he, mentally, when he killed Robert F. Kennedy?

The bantamweight, 25-year-old Jordanian Arab who put a gun to the head of the New York's senator last June 5 watched stolidly as the jury of seven men and five women filed from the courtroom Monday to fix the degree of his crime.

Instructed by Judge Herbert V. Walker to be "uninfluenced by pity for the defendant or by passion or by prejudice against him," the jury can return any of four possible verdicts:

—First degree murder — asked by the state—with the penalty of life in prison or death. The penalty would be determined by the jury in a separate session.

—Second degree murder—asked by the defense—with the term of five years to life in prison.

—Manslaughter, one to 10 years.

—Acquittal.

The defense contended that Sirhan's mind was so blurred that the crime didn't meet the legal definition of first degree murder. But it dit not ask for the other possible verdicts of manslaughter or outright acquittal.

Prosecutor Lynn D. Compton, in his final argument, had this to say about the testimony of mental experts in the case:

"The psychiatrists say if you hate a man a little bit and kill him, you are responsible and mature; but if you hate him a lot and kill him, you are not responsible and not mature."

Compton wound up with a plea to the jury not to "put a premium on hate" by returning a verdict of less than first degree.

Not a single vessel was sunk by gunfire in the Battle of Trafalgar. The firing of explosive shells aboard ships was then considered too dangerous to the user.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I remove candlewax dripping from a tabletop after they have hardened?

A.—First scrape as much of the wax off as possible with a wooden paddle, then remove remaining residue by rubbing lightly with a cheesecloth moistened with cleaning fluid. Do this quickly, and follow up with a dry cloth.

Republican Help Sought For Nixon Safegard Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration has moved to shore up Republican congressional strength behind President Nixon's Safeguard defense program even as a top GOP official says the antimissile system should not be a political issue.

A White House conference was called today for Republican leaders to produce a party strategy for getting approval of the embattled Safeguard system, which has been under strong attack in the Senate by members of both parties.

Sen. John G. Tower of Texas, one of those attending the White House session, said in an interview, "I think all of the party resources will be mustered on this issue. There will be a campaign for popular support of the President's decision and an effort to line up congressional backing for it."

Maryland Rep. Rogers C. B. Morton, new Republican national chairman, said Monday the national committee will assemble background information and prepare speeches in support of Safeguard.

But, he said, he hoped the system can be eliminated as a political issue.

How could it escape becoming political if the Republican National Committee supplied supporters with ammunition? he was asked.

"We are going to furnish nonpolitical background and use it for political purposes," he replied with a grin.

Morton also indicated that if the missile system becomes the subject of a partisan fight it would be mostly the fault of the Democrats.

Mike Mansfield, Senate Democratic Leader, admitted Monday some of his party members want to turn the Safeguard dispute into a partisan struggle. But, he said, most of the critics, Republican and Democratic, are opposing Safeguard for national security reasons.

One GOP Safeguard opponent, Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, also urged that the fight should not become a political dispute. Safeguard "should be removed from the arena of partisan politics as far as is possible," he said.

Mansfield said he had received "disturbing reports of outside efforts to synthesize a political partisanship where, in fact, none has existed and where none should exist."

U.S. Files Suit To Block LTV As J&L Owner

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government brought suit Monday to force Ling-Temco-Vought Inc. to give up its ownership of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

The civil antitrust suit had been awaited since the Justice Department announced last month it would try to prevent the huge conglomerate's takeover of one of the country's largest steel companies.

Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said the complaint was filed in U.S. District Court in Pittsburgh, where J&L is headquartered, and also asked for a preliminary injunction implementing an earlier agreement with LTV.

Under the agreement, LTV would not acquire more than 81 per cent of J&L stock and would keep the steel company's business and financial operations as a completely separate entity pending outcome of the government suit.

The suit was brought under the Celler-Kefauver Amendment to the Clayton Antitrust Act, a pilot move that could be a test of wheher the governmen can successfully prosecute conglomerates — giant corporations that control a number of apparently unrelated companies — through existing legislation.

Proposed New Elementary School Standards Approved

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Board of Education served notice Monday that it intends to rescind minimum elementary school standards that have existed since 1957.

The board approved a resolution which tentatively approved proposed new standards recommended by a 20-member advisory committee and set a June 9 public hearing on the proposals.

There were indications at Monday's meeting that some dissension may be forthcoming over one section of the new standards which proposes a 30-to-1 pupil-teacher ratio.

Some board members said they were not happy with the standard which would set what they call a low ratio, although the state now has no student-teacher ratio requirement.

One board member said he would like to see the state's education effort raised to 25-or 22-1. He said several board members agree.

Virginia Lloyd, chief of the state education department's elementary section, told the board that the new standards would provide for the first time a good system of inspection of elementary schools.

The proposal would require inspection of each school in all chartered school districts to insure that minimum standards are met before a school could be accredited or receive state financial aid.

Miss Lloyd described as a highlight of the proposals a new standard which would initiate restrictions and requirements for private school chartering.

She said the new standard would make no difference in the number of private schools established, but that it would permit their regulation.

In other action, the board:

—Approved setting up a joint vocational school to be operated by 11 school districts at Grand Lake St. Marys and to serve Mercer and Auglaize counties.

—Approved transfer of the Forest Hills section from the Lakewood City School District to the Heath District in Licking County. The shift had been challenged by resident of the Forest Hills section.

In force since it was established by Julius Caesar in 45 B.C., the Julian calendar gave way to the Gregorian calendar in 1582. The decree was made by Pope Gregory XIII. It was not adopted in Protestant England until 1752.

In 1867 William (Candy) Cummings introduced the curve ball in baseball.

Can you imagine holding your hand like this for 10 years?

It's the Ohio Bell symbolic low sign. The extended arm that says we try to keep costs down. And since 1959, we've managed to do just that. Local telephone rates haven't gone up one cent in those ten long years. And long distance rates have actually been reduced several times.

Now, how does it feel holding a hand like this for all that time? Pushing down against the upward trend of rising prices?

We really feel the strain. Like when we spend millions for improvement and expansion of phone service year in and year out. And pay more and more for things we buy. All without raising rates. Sure, we keep watching those pennies even closer, sharpen up our business know-how and rely on the very latest equipment. And push down harder.

But, it hasn't been easy. And it's getting tougher all the time.

Ohio Bell

Every time you pick it up, we try to keep it down.

ANN LANDERS

Ann Keeps Faith In Youth

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a middle-aged square who would like your opinion on the current campus upheavals.

What's behind this so-called alienation of youth? Have we botched things so badly that everything ought to be junked — including our university system?

I'm horrified by what I read in the newspapers and see on TV. Is there any justification for these campus revolutions? Do college students have the right to virtually close down our institutions of higher learning?

I've always been a champion of youth, but my faith has been shaken. Please, Ann Landers, express yourself. You've been noticeably silent on a subject of enormous social significance. — BEWILDERED.

Dear Bewildered: Welcome to the club. I, too, always have had great faith in our youth. And I still have. They are brighter than we were, more assertive, more articulate, and they possess a far deeper commitment to social justice.

The vast majority of campus kids are decent, law-abiding citizens who want an education. And this is what makes the campus rioting reprehensible. The hell-raisers — those who have been destroying property and obstructing justice — are clearly in the minority on every campus where there has been trouble.

In a free society, citizens have the right to dissent, to express opposition to practices they cconsider unjust. But wanton destruction of property, rifling of files, threatening college presidents and faculty members is not valid protest. It is lawlessness and must not be tolerated.

I believe students who break the law should be treated as lawbreakers. There must be no shilly-shallying, no dilly-dallying, no deals, no amnesty granted.

When we bow to the demands of the nihilists and reward criminal tactics, we encourage others to follow their lead. When we knuckle under to rioters who spit in the face of authority we are being unfair to students who want to learn, to taxpayers and alumni who support these schools, and to the embattled faculty members and administrators who wind up at the mercy of roughnecks.

Unless we take a firm stand against these anarchists, many of whom are not even students but professional troublemakers, we will see an end to the university and the birth of fascism.

Cash Described Only Major Way To Fight Hunger

WASHINGTON (AP) — Only a total attack, with cash as the major weapon, can solve America's problems of hunger and poverty, the head of a presidential commission has told Congress.

Industrialist Ben Heineman, chairman of the President's Commission on Income Maintenance Programs, reported to the special Senate hunger committee Monday on the eve of its all-day tour of poor areas in the capital.

"Even assuming all food programs worked well enough to provide adequate diets—and I personally do not believe they could be changed to do so—severe needs would still remain," Heineman said. "The main problem facing poor people is not a failure of food programs but lack of money."

He said the food stamp program, with the commodity distribution program the core of the government's food assistance plans, is failing. He cited cost and lack of knowledge as two of the reasons.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Old Tire Eases 'Bumps'

DEAR HELOISE: If you've ever had a see-saw for your children you know how hard they hit the ground sometimes . . . and the tears that follow.

Heloise

My husband solved this problem with an old tire. He cut it in half and put one piece under each end of the see-saw! This sure saves many a jarring bump.

Don't you think that was a good idea?

JOLLY ROSENTHAL.

I love you no END, and I guess that a thousand other children will love you for the same reason.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a husband who loves to WORK and he goes like a house afire. Naturally he just can't understand why I am such a lazybones.

He can see a cobweb a mile away and he goes around poking into corners and running his fingers along the tops of doors. (He always gets them dirty too!)

Anyway, I've found a surefire way to impress him and just had to tell you about it.

I just rearrange the furniture and he forgets to comment on the dust behind the refrigerator and the cookie crumbs under the table.

KANDY.

DEAR HELOISE: It's always a problem to store patterns and still be able to find them again.

I finally came up with the idea of storing them in the paper dust jackets that hi-fi records come in.

We always seem to have so many of them on hand and no use for them. So I got three large loose-leaf rings, punched holes in the envelopes and put patterns in each folder. Then I numbered each folder and made an index page to be put at the front.

I also make covers for my book of patterns by lining two pieces of heavy cardboard with adhesive-backed paper.

Now when I run out of room, I just add more folders.

MRS. T.E.W.

DEAR FOLKS: If you are making one of those chocolate puddin' pies (from a box, natch) and using that boxed "whipping cream" topping, just try adding some instant powdered coffee.

It's a lulu.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Book plates are expensive, but glue-backed return address labels are not. I put these labels in my books and they always find their way home.

JEAN WALTERS.

DEAR HELOISE: I make thin washcloths last much longer by cutting animal figures from linen or other suitable material and sewing them over the thin place with the zig-zag stitch on my sewing machine.

This makes very special washcloths for the kiddies and it gives me twice as much wear out of the cloths.

MRS. J. BROWN.

DEAR HELOISE: I have found a terrific way to decorate certain walls and ceilings, even the space over the sink with the bottom part of molded egg cartons.

They can be stapled together and covered with spray paint. Two coats should do it.

You'll get lots of compliments because it gives a very modern three-dimensional look to the wall.

A READER.

I know one man who saved enough cartons to cover his entire den ceiling! He sprayed them in his garage, then took a heavy stapler and just stapled 'em up. (Besides looking great, it also acts as a sound-proofer!)

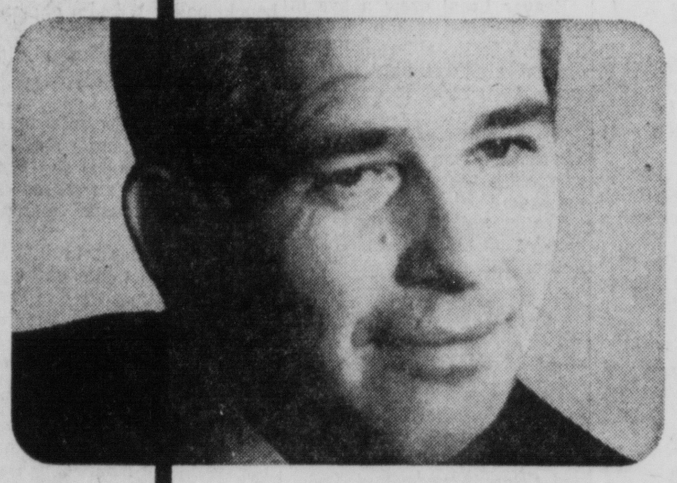
"We have a heat pump, and one of the advantages is that the same piece of equipment is used to both heat and cool the house, so the cost includes air conditioning."

Hayden Hannabass*

"I have a heat pump, and it costs me considerably less money because it's about twice as efficient. The ducts were already in existence, therefore, all they had to do was set the unit inside and the other one outside, and insulate. There's no reason at all why you can't install electric heat in any older home."

Raymond Dervin*



"We have a heat pump, and it's very economical! There's very little repair and if it's insulated and builf properly it will compete or beat any other type of heat on the market. There's a definite guarantee on them and it's definitely no more expensive to operate. We've had it for 8 years and we're well pleased with it."

Potter Trackmen Place Second In Triangular At Chaney

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Three Beaver County schools, Rochester, Midland and Beaver Falls, have protested the recent basketball realignment made by the WPIAL.

The WPIAL, breaking with tradition, split up powerful Section 3, which had been untouched in recent realignments, shifting Alliquippa and Ambridge to Section 6 and moving Seneca Valley from Section 6 to Section 3. Geographically, the move makes sense. The shift was brought on by a request from Aliquippa, claiming that travel distance from Aliquippa to Farrell and Sharon was too long. It also might be noted that the latter two teams have been the chief obstacles to Aliquippa's finishing first in the Section the past few seasons.

THE PROTESTS are not unxepected, but it's doubtful that they will bring any results. Both leagues are Class A. Section 3 is (or was) the strongest league in the state. From 1949-61, the seven team league (Butler was added later) sent nine teams to the state finals, including six champions. In every case the team was Farrell, Sharon or Aliquippa. Farrell and Ambridge team added state titles in 1969 and 1967. Section winners, with the exception of the 1965 Midland team, have been eliminated early in the WPIAL playoffs.

Midland, Rochester and Monaca of Section 6 are Class B schools in enrollment, choosing to play in a Class A league. Their protests contend that advance notice of the realignment should have been given, giving the schools a chance to choose Class B play. Whether to go Class B or not will provoke many arguments in Midland. The 1969-70 Leopards, playing in class B, could conceivably win the state title, but this is an empty honor compared to the triumphs of 1965. In Class A, Midland could still win Section 6, even with the new entries, but their domination of the loop, evidenced by nine titles the past 13 seasons, would not continue.

BEAVER FALLS is protesting the realignment because it would be deprived of any Beaver County Section 3 foes. Seneca Valley, thrown into the lions den, is naturally upset, but it has Class A enrollment and cannot change its status.

While not approving of the WPIAL's tradition-breaking move, I feel that Midland has the talent to continue Class A competition. The Leopards aren't afraid of Aliquippa, they had scheduled them for a pre-season game. Many people in Pennsylvania have heard of Midland only because it was the 1965 Class A champion. A switch to Class B cold lead to oblivion.

Beaver Local 9 Blanks Southern

Beaver Local opened Buckeye Border Conference baseball play yesterday with an 8-0 win over Southern Local at Beaver Local.

Sophomore Bob Robinson picked up his first win, though Ralph Wolford pitched the last inning as Robinson tired. Southern was held to four hits and only two runners got as far as second base. The Beavers pulled off two double-plays, both of the line drive variety.

Beaver Local slammed eight hits, including four doubles, and stole eight bases, including home twice, in handing George Thompson the loss. The game was the first of the season for Al Girone's Indians, while Nevitt Stockdale's club is 3-1-1.

Scott Dubberly and Lew Brown had two hits each for the Beavers, while Dean Horger had two walks, a hit and three stolen bases. Terry Kellison had two hits for Southern.

The Beavers started off in the first inning when Dubberly singled and Mike Smith doubled him home. Smith took third on a passed ball and Gary Klembara was hit by a pitch. The pair worked the double steal, with Smith scoring. Klembara took third on another passed ball and scored when the throw got away from the third baseman.

In the second the Beavers scored twice without a hit. Horger walked and stole second and third. Dubberly walked and the double steal was tried again. Thompson threw the ball into center field, letting Horger score and Dubberly advance to third. The reheaded outfielder then stole home.

In the third Klembara doubled, Lew Brown singled and Rick Sheppard plated Klembara with a sacrifice fly. In the fifth Brown singled, took second on a wild pitch and scored on Sheppard's double. Horger scored the final run in the sixth when he walked, took second on a grounder, stole third and scored on the overthrow.

Cubs Knock Bucs From 1st; Expos Win Home Opener

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dan McGinn and the Montreal Expos were upset winners as major league baseball came to Canada for the first time ever. Back in the United States Richie Allen came up with a surprise, too.

The Expos won a wild home opener 8-7 Monday over St. Louis before a standing room crowd of 29,184 on Coco Laboy's double and run-scoring single by winning pitcher McGinn in the seventh inning.

And in Philadelphia, Allen crashed a 500-foot two-run homer that helped the Phils to a 5-1 victory over the New York Mets. The tape-measure blast of Allen's comes as no surprise though, but what he did after it certainly rates a double-take.

Allen, trotting to his first base position after the third-inning clout, tipped his hat to the applauding home opener crowd of 13,070. It was the first time in years he had acknowledged the cheers of the fans who have booed him in the past.

In other National League games, Chicago swept to its sixth victory in seven games, stopping Pittsburgh 4-0 and Houston bombed Los Angeles 11-5. The San Francisco at Cincinnati game was rained out in the only other scheduled game.

McGinn, a fireballing lefthander, earned his first major league victory with 5 1-3 scoreless innings of relief, allowing only three hits.

McGinn, drafted by the Expos from the Cincinnati Reds, said he was getting even with the Cardinals. "They beat me in my first major league game last year in 11 innings."

The Expos had blown a 6-0 lead as Mack Jones drove in five runs with a three-run homer and two-run triple in the first two innings but the Cards came back with a seven-run fourth inning.

The Expos contributed five errors and Dal Maxvill sliced a grand slam homer to right field in the inning.

Deron Johnson's second-inning homer had given the Phils a 1-1 tie before Allen cracked a Jim McAndrew pitch over a 10-foot high sign atop the left field roof for his first home run of the year.

Woody Fryman got the victory as he scattered four hits as the Mets lost their fourth straight.

After the game Allen was asked why he tipped his hat: "If I told you why, they'd shoot me in the morning," Allen said.

"I'm not looking to change my image around here," he said. I don't care a thing about the crowd."

Allen hasn't changed his attitude against the Mets, either. It was his 26th home run against them and he has a .330 lifetime average against New York pitching.

"I'm a mistake hitter and the Met pitcher must make a lot of mistakes," Allen said.

Doug Rader and John Edwards knocked in two runs apiece in a seven-run third inning in the Astros' victory. Houston right-hander Larry Dierker blanked the Dodgers on two hits until the eighth when Wes Parker crashed a two-run homer

Ken Holtzman stopped the Pirates on seven hits and the victory moved the Cubs into first place in the East Division.

The Cubs shelled Pirates' starter Bob Veale for two runs in each of the first two innings as Billy Williams doubled in one run and Randy Hundley singled in another in the opening inning. Don Kessinger and Glenn Beckert knocked in the Cubs' second-inning runs.

Kansas City Wins, Widens West Lead

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pete Ward and the Kansas City Royals have pocketed a pair of prized keepsakes—reluctantly gift-wrapped by Hoyt Wilhelm and John Kennedy.

Ward's two-run double off knuckleballer Wilhelm climaxed a four-run eighth inning rally that swept the Chicago White Sox past the California Angels 4-3 Monday night.

Kansas City capitalized on two errors by Seattle shortstop Kennedy and nipped the Pilots 2-1 in the season's first meeting of American League expansion teams.

"It's so difficult to hit Wilhelm, I'm gonna clip out the box score and frame it," Ward said after bringing the White Sox from behind against the 45-year-old relief specialist, who pitched for Chicago last season.

Kennedy would like to forget his first 1969 start. The Seattle glove man misplayed a sixth-inning grounder before Joe Foy's checked-swing single tied the game 1-1, and booted Jerry Adair's smash in the eighth as Foy raced home from second with the winning run.

In the only other game on the AL schedule, Boston topped Baltimore 5-3, Tony Conigliaro delivering the deciding run with an infield single in his first Fenway Park appearance since he suffered a serious eye injury two years ago.

The White Sox went into the eighth trailing 3-0, with just one hit off Jim McGlothlin. But successive singles by Gail Hopkins, Buddy Bradford and pinch hitter Walt Williams produced one run and chased the Angels starter.

Wilhelm came on and fanned Duane Josephson, but Carlos May doubled home another run and Ward stroked his go-ahead double one out later.

Dick Stuart homered for the Angels off winner Tommy John.

Foy poked four hits for the Royals, who remained atop the league's West Division, reliever Dave Wickersham rescued winning pitcher Roger Nelson from a bases-loaded jam in the ninth.

Tommy Harper doubled off Nelson in the first and moved around to score on two ground outs, but the Kansas City righthander allowed only five more hits before filling the bases on three walks in the ninth. Wickersham came out of the bullpen and retired Mike Hegan on a foul pop for the last out.

Conigliaro, who sat out the 1968 season after being hit in the eye by a Jack Hamilton pitch on Aug. 18, 1967, broke a 3-3 tie in the fourth by beating out a bases-loaded roller down the third base line.

The Red Sox banged out 14 hits on the way to their fifth victory in six games. Winner Ray Culp allowed five hits, including Elrod Hendricks' three-run homer, before giving way to reliever Sparky Lyle in the eighth.

W. Beaver Nine Nips Northwestern

Western Beaver rallied for two runs in the last of the sixth to edge Northwestern 4-3 on the Golden Beavers' field yesterday.

The win evened Western's mark at 2-2, while Northwestern is 1-3.

Mike Hornick's club made good use of the bunt in the winning rally. Eli Rakas started the inning with a pinch - hit single. Ron Misorski and John Petchel bunted safely. Don Traylor forced Rakas at home, but Misorski scored on a passed ball. Dave McCreery then bunted to score Petchel with the winning run.

Traylor was the winning pitcher, going the route. He also slammed a triple.

Namath Arrested, Denies Drunkenness

MIAMI (AP) — Super Bowl hero Joe Namath admits he "cussed the cop out" after his arrest on a drunken driving charge, but contends he hadn't had a drink in two hours and only had three or four to begin with.

"Sure I cussed the cop out and I was wrong to do it," the New York Jets' quarterback declared after the incident early Monday.

"But I was sober," he said in an interview at the exclusive Palm Bay Club, his residence when in Miami.

"I had two here at the Palm Bay Club and either one or two at the Harbor Lounge before we left there about 2 a.m."

About 4:05 a.m., Namath's rented 1969 Cadillac was pulled over on the 79th Street Causeway, a swinging nightclub strip, by officer Ray De Santis of the North Bay Village Police Department.

De Santis said Namath was speeding at 70 miles per hour. He charged the football star with drunken driving, careless driving and driving without a valid license.

"I got mad when he refused to allow me the courtesy of going back to the Palm Bay Club to get my driver's license. In Pennsylvania they give a person 48 hours to do that. I could have done it in 10 minutes," he said.

Namath's residence is on the mainland end of the causeway to Miami. Halfway between is Broadway Joe's Restaurant, a quick service eatery owned by Namath.

De Santis reported when he stopped the car, Namath said "You know me. You know who I am."

Namath's attorney, Laurence Schroeder, said he "had a few words" with the officer.

In the car with him were Lenny Perna, a nightclub entertainer; Mike Bite, an attorney; and a "young lady" who was Bite's date, Namath said.

Namath was taken to Dade County Jail at 6 a.m. where he volunteered for a Breathalyzer test. The device showed an alcoholic blood content of .02 per cent, one-fifth the legal level for intoxication.

He was released on order of Metropolitan Judge Louie Bandel without posting bond about 7 a.m. in the custody of his attorney. Bandel said he did not know when Namath's case would come to trial.

Fish's Javelin Throw Of 256-1 Sets Ohio Mark

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Bobcat strongman Don Fish hurled the javelin 256 feet, 1 inch in the Ohio Relays Saturday to set an all-time Ohio record.

The feat was one highlight of the 10th annual relays, which also saw sprinter Orin Richburg of Kent State and distance runner Sid Sink of Bowling Green each win two events.

Fish's toss cracked his own relays record of 225-11 set a year ago. The 6 - foot-3, 185-pound senior from Manchester, Conn., also eclipsed the all-time Ohio mark of 231-7 set by Larry Bell of Miami (Ohio) in 1938.

Richburg, two - time Mid-American Conference cash king, won the 100-yard in 9.8 and sped the 220 in 21.8. The swift senior also helped the Kent runners cop the sprint medley relay with a 47.6 lock-ing on the 440 leg.

Sink ran the mile Saturday in 4:12.7 after settling a relays' record Friday in the six-mile with a 28:50.5 effort.

A total of six records were broken and four individuals successfully defended their 1968 titles. Other records fell in the 880-yard run, three-mile run, 440 hurdles and hammer throw.

Some 600 athletes from 23 schools competed in the spring meet, which signaled the start of the outdoor collegiate track season.

Ohio U. Led the 27-event program with six victories, followed by Ohio State with five and Kent State, four. No team totals were kept.

Pacers, Chaps Stave Off Elimination

By The Associated Press

Indiana and Dallas, with barely enough time to take a deep breath after avoiding elimination from the American Basketball Association semifinal playoffs, start panting again tonight when they face another do-or-die situation.

Indiana kept alive in its Eastern Division semi by crushing Kentucky in the final period for a 116-97 victory Monday night in Indianapolis that cut the Colonels lead to 3-2in the best-of-7 series.

Dallas also pulled within 3-2 of New Orleans in its Western Division semi by pulling away early to a 123-112 triumph at New Orleans.

The scenes for the sixth games now shift to Louisville and New Orleans tonight, while Minnesota also tries to avoid elimination in its sixth game against Miami in another East semi at Minnesota. Miami leads that one 3-2.

Indana led only 80-78 after three periods, but Kentucky went more than 10 minutes without a field goal in the final quarter to hand over the decision as Bob Netolicky scored 35 points and Roger Brown 34 for the Pacers.

Dallas led by Cincy Powell's 31 points,went ahead late in the first quarter and moved to a 68-53 bulge at halftime that increased to 20 points as the Chapparrels breezed home in the final half.

Jimmy Jones of New Orleans led all scorers with 37 points in the game that was marked by technical fouls, arguments and irate fans throwing objects on the court in protest.

New York Wins, Trails Boston 3-2

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — With their backs against the wall, the New York Knicks have resorted to thievery to make sure their no tomorrow wasn't today in the National Basketball Association playoffs.

Stealing time by swiping the ball, the Knicks fought off elimination in their Eastern Division final series against Boston by beating the Celtics 112-104 Monday night to cut their deficit to 3-2 in the best-of-7 series.

"But we still have to get that game back we lost here," said Dick Barnett, thinking ahead to the Knicks' next all-or-nothing test in Friday's sixth game in Boston while looking back to their series opening loss in New York which cost them the home-court advantage.

Boston still needs only one victory to eliminate the Knicks and advance to the NBA final against the Western Division winner—Los Angeles or Atlanta. The Lakers take their 2-0 lead into the third game of that best-of-7 set, which continues tonight in Atlanta.

Despite the figures which show only an eight-point victory and Boston outshooting the Knicks from the field, 52.5 per cent to 44.3, New York rebounded from a one-point loss Sunday in Boston for an easy victory Monday.

The Knicks forced Boston to give up the ball 17 times in the first half—when New York surged into a 60-46 advantage—and 25 for the game.

"You can't pinpoint one man," said Sam Jones of the Celics. "They all played well. They had a job to do and they did it. They knew if they didn't win there would be no tomorrow."

Player-Coach Bill Russell of the Celtics, who had only six rebounds and six points when the Knicks took control in the first half, also gave New York credit.

"We took only 80 shots and threw the ball away 25 times," he said. "Sloppy, but New York's defense contributed to it."

"I don't remember getting many free shots," agreed John Havlicek, whose 29 points led Boston.

"When you get 17 more shots than a team, you should beat them," said Willis Reed, who led the Knicks' balanced offense with 24 points.

Leading the thieves, as usual, was quick-handed Walt Frazier, who also scored 23 points and led the Knicks with 12 rebounds and nine assists.

"Aggressive defense," he called it. "We knew we had to go out and win and we knew we had to do it with defense."

The Knicks opened a 54-36 lead and then increased it to 81-57 before the Celtics came on in the final minutes to make the score respectable.

Burgettstown Outlasts South Side

Burgettstown scored four times in the seventh inning to pull out a 13-10 decision over South Side on the losers' diamond Monday.

The Rams, in losing their fourth straight game, were hurt by 11 errors. Nicksick had five hits for the winners and Haluka a triple and single.

Doug Williamson had three hits for the losers, while Larry Anderson and Larry Cox had two hits each. Larry Lockhart had a double. Sam Laughlin went the distance for the loss.

ABA Draft Slated Today

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — The American Basketball Association holds its player draft today to honor a new member, the Carolina Cougars, formerly the Houston Mavericks.

Officially, all 15 rounds will be held today, but there has been specuaation the first two rounds were held secretly several weeks ago.

The league has not announced results of any previous draft, but the Miami Floridians have signed their first choice, Larry Cannon of LaSalle.

Results of the first five rounds are to be announced at midday and there is to be another announcement in the evening.

The picks are to be made in reverse order of the regular season standings.

The New York Nets, Eastern Division tailenders, have announced that their first choice is three-time All-American Lew Alcindor of UCLA, but he already has signed with Milwaukee in the National Basketball Association.

The Carolina Cougars, who as the Houston Mavericks finished last in the Western Division, will get the second pick.

They lost a coin toss with the Nets as to who should pick first. The Cougars have announced their first choice will be Neal Walk of Florida.

Mel Daniels Heads ABA All-Stars

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Indiana center Mel Daniels missed by just two ballots of becoming a unanimous selection on the American Basketball Association All-Star team announced today.

Daniels received 965 points out of a possible 1,000 in the voting by a panel of sports writers and broadcasters covering the league. Joining Daniels on the first team were guards Larry Jones of Denver and James Jones of New Orleans, and forwards Rick Barry of Oakland and Connie Hawkins of Minnesota.

The Jones boys, first in ABA history to score more than 2,000 points in a single season, received an identical number of points—895.8.

Barry received 876.7 and Hawkins 873.3.

Daniels, 6-foot-9 star at New Mexico two years ago, and the league Rookie of the Year in 1967-68, was named the league's outstanding player.

Named to the second team were Miami's Don Freeman, Louis Dampier of Kentucky, John Beasley of Dallas, Doug Moe of Oakland and Austin Robbins of New Orleans.

Gina Marie Monte Advances In Gym

Gina Marie Monte, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Monte of Wellsville, advanced in the qualifying for the junior olympics with her gymnastic performance at Shenango High School Saturday.

The next step for Gina Marie is at Mt. Lebanon High April 26.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of J. T. Watkin, Jr. who passed away, April 14th, 1967: Sad and sudden was the call of one so dear and loved by all. His loving heart had ceased to beat, Before we knew it, he was gone, a bitter grief, a shock severe, to part with one we loved so dear. God loved him, too, and thought it best, so He took him home to eternal rest. But only those who loved him best can tell the heartache of not saying farewell. Sadly missed by niece and family, Janet and Jimmy Shaw and "Kristi Ann" and sister and husband, Mae and William Snyder.

Junior Editors Quiz on NIAGARA FALLS

QUESTION: Why does the water at Niagara Falls run downstream?

* * *

ANSWER: Water always seeks the lowest point it can flow to. This is because the attraction of gravitation is always pulling it down toward the center of the earth. Niagara Falls is situated on the Niagara River, which connects Lake Erie with Lake Ontario. It is water from all the Great Lakes except Lake Ontario which is thundering over Niagara Falls. To understand why it runs the way it does, you must understand the relation between the Great Lakes, Niagara Falls, and the sea. This is clearly shown in our diagrams (left, above). On top is a Great Lakes steamer, which gives some idea of how big these lakes are. In the middle we look down on them. Lake Superior, to left, is the highest, so the water must spill down into the others. It goes spilling down from lake to lake. After spilling into Lake Erie, it races down the Niagara River, spills over Niagara Falls and into Lake Ontario. From here it spills down into the St. Lawrence River and finally, going down in a north-easterly direction, spills from the river into the sea. The cross-section view will tell the story even more clearly.

(Scott Eminhizer of Drifting, Pa., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, April 15, the 105th day of 1969. There are 260 days left in the year.

On this date in 1945, the body of President Franklin D. Roosevelt was buried in the rose garden of his ancestral estate at Hyde Park, N.Y.

In 1638, English settlers arrived at what is now Haven, Conn.

In 1850, San Francisco was incorporated as a city.

In 1865, President Abraham Lincoln died in a Washington boarding house, across the street from Ford's Theater, where he had been shot by John Wikes Booth.

In 1923, insulin, which had been discovered by Dr. Frederick Banting of Toronto, was made available for general use.

In 1942, Japanese artillery blasted American positions on Corregidor in the Phillippines.

In 1955, the Atomic Energy Commission reported that fallout from atomic tests in Nevada had not resulted in any harmful effects.

Ten years ago — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro arrived in Washington on an 11-day unofficial goodwill tour of the United States.

Add a maximum of $10,400.00 to your health protection for only 25¢

☆ Pays you extra cash at the rate of $100.00 a week for as long as 2 full years... for each hospital stay. ☆ Guaranteed renewable for life. At last—a hospital plan that guarantees never to cancel your protection no matter how old you get or how many claims you make ☆ Pays all cash direct to you (not to the doctor or hospital) ☆ Pays in addition to any other companies' coverage you have—including Medicare ☆ No age limit—no medical examination required ☆ No salesman will call

Just 25¢ enrolls your entire family for the first month

ACT NOW—YOUR ENROLLMENT-APPLICATION MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT SAT., APRIL 19, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

ONE out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept on going the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in the famous Presidential Extra Cash Hospital Plan that

...Pays you $100.00-a-week tax-free cash whenever you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have an extra $100.00 cash coming in every week–beginning the very first day you enter the hospital.

Now, Presidential's economy plan enables you to enjoy this protection at once. Because it will NOT cost you $20.00. It will NOT cost you $10.00—or even $5.00. Your special low price is just 25¢ for the first month's coverage for your entire family. Then continue at regular low Presidential rates.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this Presidential $100.00-A-WEEK Hospital Plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Spend the money as you see fit – for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage payments – or any necessary but costly extras not fully covered by usual hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why Presidential developed low-cost Extra Cash protection that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses!

You get your $100.00 per week – TAX FREE – from your first day in the hospital, and as long as you are confined there, even for 2 years, if necessary. And, when you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, Presidential pays out an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE CASH BENEFIT. You receive not $100.00, but $200.00 a week. Your spouse receives not $100.00, but $200.00 a week. That's $400.00 in all, in cash payments to you every week while you both remain in the hospital... even for as long as 2 whole years!

For older folks—greater protection than you ever would have thought possible!

Right now, would advancing age prevent you from getting hospital insurance, or income protection with another company? Or if you could get a policy elsewhere, would you have to pay a big premium for it? Your "life saver" could be this wonderful Presidential Extra Cash Plan–because Presidential welcomes folks of all ages into its Plan. Even if you're 65 or over, even if you're OVER 100 – when you go to the hospital you collect $70.00 a week for 13 weeks and a full $100.00 weekly while you remain in the hospital afterwards... even for as long as 2 years!

We can never cancel your policy!

And you can count on Presidential's wonderful protection no matter how old you get or how many times you collect from us. It is written into your policy that we cannot cancel your protection after you've made a lot of claims, or become old–or both. It is GUARANTEED RENEWABLE FOR LIFE!

And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family–this special Presidential Plan (HP 35L-868)...

...Pays you $100.00-a-week cash maternity benefits!

Ordinary hospital insurance may take care of part of your expenses when you go to the hospital to have a baby. But what policy can you think of that gives you cash to help buy all the things you need for the new baby? Now, if both husband and wife are insured for the entire pregnancy and have added Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits, you get extra cash to use any way you want. If a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, 10 days – as long as necessary – you get $100.00 a week for every day of your confinement, up to 2 years if necessary!

All these added cash benefits.

Yes, in addition to $100.00 a week for hospitalization or $100.00 a week maternity benefits... you get all this:

Added cash benefits: Up to $2,000.00 cash for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight, when the loss occurs anytime within 90 days of the accident. The loss of a limb or eyesight is a terrible thing. Nothing can replace the loss, but a check for $1,000.00 or $2,000.00 brings peace of mind during the period of adjustment.

Added cash benefits: Choose Coverage for Children (with or without Maternity Benefits) and all your dependent, unmarried children from ages one month through 18 years will be covered, too! Presidential pays up to $6,240.00, at the rate of $60.00 a week, when your youngster is hospitalized... for tonsilitis, appendicitis or any other illness or injury. Yes, you will receive $60.00 a week cash, week after week while the child is in the hospital, even for as many as 104 weeks!

We pay your premiums when you are not able.

As a special consideration to you, if you – the person to whom the basic policy is issued – are hospitalized just 8 weeks or more, all premiums for you and all Covered Members that come due while you are still in the hospital after this period will be paid by Presidential. And your protection continues as if you were paying the premiums yourself! Then if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 180 days, Presidential will again PAY ANY PREMIUMS WHILE YOU ARE IN THE HOSPITAL–TO A MAXIMUM OF 2 YEARS–for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force – you collect a maximum of $10,400.00 for the confinement!

PAYS up to $10,400.00 CASH for each accident or illness, starting the very first day in the hospital.

PAYS up to $10,010.00 CASH if you're 65 or over—at the rate of $70.00 A WEEK for first 13 weeks, and a full $100.00 weekly while you remain in the hospital thereafter, (for 91 more weeks if necessary)... in addition to whatever benefits you receive from Medicare.

PAYS up to $41,600.00 CASH when both husband and wife are hospitalized at same time for accidental injury, for as long as both remain in the hospital—at the rate of $400.00 A WEEK.

PAYS up to $2,000.00 CASH for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.

PAYS $100.00-A-WEEK CASH for each pregnancy requiring a hospital stay, when both husband and wife are insured for the entire pregnancy and have Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits.

PAYS up to $6,240.00 at the rate of $60.00 A WEEK when a child goes to the hospital for any accident or illness (when Coverage for Children has been added to the basic plan).

NO age limit – no medical examination required – no salesman will call.

IF YOU ARE 65 OR OVER YOU WILL COLLECT UP TO $10,010.00 CASH IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE BENEFITS

Why are smart folks over 65 now hastening to protect themselves with the Presidential Extra Cash Plan in addition to what Medicare will do for them?

Even though Medicare is a great boon to folks over 65, it will not, of course, pay all the bills that quickly pile up as a result of illness or accident.

Regardless of your age, you still need additional health protection.

We have designed this plan as the important addition to whatever is paid by Medicare – or health insurance you may have in any other companies. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. And you will be glad to know the checks will be big ones! In addition to what is paid by Medicare, Presidential pays you $70.00 a week for first 13 weeks, and a full $100.00 weekly while hospitalized thereafter... for an additional 91 weeks, if necessary! You can receive as much as $10,010.00 for each new illness or injury when hospitalized!

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON

Only 25¢ for First Month – Money-Back Guarantee.

You can now have your first month's protection for your entire family for only twenty-five cents! But you must act immediately. Your request for this wonderful Extra Cash Hospital Plan must be mailed on the convenient Enrollment-Application NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT of the date shown.

This midnight expiration hour cannot be extended. If your enrollment form is mailed later, it cannot be accepted.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your Presidential policy covers every conceivable kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by war or any act of war; any mental disease or disorder; where care is in a U.S. Government hospital; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered immediately!

How can 25¢ buy so much?

You can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay the regular rates, if you wish. But Presidential can now provide you and your entire family with tax-free Extra Cash Protection for just 25¢ the first month. Only because we enroll a large number of people at one time – direct by mail! This highly efficient "Mass Enrollment" method cuts costs to the bone – and the savings are passed on to you!

Medical Costs Skyrocketing!

Govt. figures reveal your present health protection... may no longer protect you against today's rising medical costs! Don't leave your loved ones defenseless! Act at once to add coverage that provides to a maximum of $10,400.00 health protection for only 25¢ for the first month for entire family.

Make your decision carefully.

Think how costly a hospital confinement will be. Imagine paying for those indispensable doctor, surgical and nursing services that are not covered by your present insurance.

Would you be able to afford the quiet and privacy of a private room and a private nurse, should you so desire? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones? Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? Who would pay your bills that keep on coming in at home? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet such expenses. And no one knows whose turn it will be next.

Why you must act before the date shown on your Enrollment-Application–just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to apply for your insurance policy–only a few days? Because we must receive your Enrollment-Application the same time as all the others in order to pass on to you the savings that come from processing many policies at one time.

We mail you the policy as soon as we receive your enrollment form. When the policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. Take all the time you need. It's a very short document, and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover there is NO FINE PRINT. Then – show it, if you wish, to someone you trust. Perhaps your lawyer, accountant, or doctor. Better still – show it to your own insurance man... even though he may very well be working for another company! If he is a personal friend, he has your best interests in mind. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere – at any price!

Money-back guarantee — in case you change your mind.

Even after you mail your Enrollment-Application below...even after you examine the policy in your own home and talk it over with anyone you wish... even after all this you are still free to return the policy within 15 days and your quarter will be refunded at once. There will be no obligation whatever.

Meanwhile, all during the 15 days you are making up your mind – you'll be protected by $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash benefits just as if you had already said "yes." That's right, you will be covered all this time for any accident or illness which puts you in the hospital, even if you finally decide to return the policy.

However, after you've seen the policy for yourself, you will surely agree that this is a tremendous value and you'll want to continue this $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash protection.

HERE ARE THE WONDERFUL LOW RATES

The following rate chart shows how little it costs after the first month to cover yourself, your spouse, and any adult dependents. Each person must be 16 years old or over, and pays (per person) the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
16-44	only $3.45
45-49	only $3.95
50-54	only $4.45
55-59	only $4.95
60-69	only $5.95
70-74	only $6.95
75 and over	only $8.95

Only $2 more covers all your dependent, unmarried children.

...from the ages of one month through 18 years. And then, if you wish, just add $1 more to that, and you're covered for maternity benefits, too! Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month – at no additional cost!

NOTE: The regular Monthly Premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this Presidential plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

Act NOW — "Later" May Be TOO Late!

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.)

THESE 19 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell you how Presidential's EXTRA CASH HOSPITAL PLAN gives you the protection you need—at amazingly low cost!

1. How much will my policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
$100.00 per week—to the full maximum of $10,400.00 cash. (If you're over 65, you collect to a maximum of $10,010.00 cash benefits on top of any Medicare benefits. $70.00 a week for first 13 weeks, and $100.00 weekly while you remain continuously hospitalized afterwards, for a maximum of 91 additional weeks!) You collect cash not just for yourself, but for all covered members of your family when they are hospitalized! And you collect cash even if you're in the hospital for only one day!

2. When do I collect $2,000.00 extra cash for accidents?
We pay you $1,000.00 extra cash for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye, and $2,000.00 extra cash for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes—even if the loss occurs as long as 3 months after the accident.

3. What if I am hospitalized by the same illness—again?
You still collect your $100.00-a-week extra cash to the full maximum of $10,400.00. You need only to have resumed full normal activities for just 180 days—then if you are hospitalized for the same illness you begin to collect all over again.

4. If I receive more money than my total medical bills—do I keep the "extra cash"?
You certainly do! We always pay you the full $100.00 a week—all the way to the maximum of $10,400.00 cash. And even if your bills add up to just part of that amount, you still keep every dollar of the extra cash—tax-free! That's why this policy's called an extra cash plan. It's perfectly possible under this plan for you to come out of the hospital with extra dollars you can use for bills, rent, or anything else. And if you already have some health or hospital insurance—all the better for you. Because we pay you anyway, on top of what they pay you! On top of Blue Cross, Major Medical, Workmen's Compensation, or whatever insurance policies you have with other companies!

5. Do you pay me cash even for my children, too? And... for my "future" children?
You collect $60.00-a-week cash anytime your child goes to the hospital, when Coverage for Children is added to basic plan. A maximum of $6,240.00 each time any dependent, unmarried child (ages 1 month through 18 years old) is in the hospital for sickness or injury. And if you have a growing family—as soon as your newborn child's one month old, he too is covered —automatically . . . at no additional cost to you.

6. Will you pay me $100.00-a-week cash—even for pregnancy?
Yes! Many health plans don't cover pregnancy. But we do, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits are added to the basic plan. You collect maximum cash benefits of $10,400.00—for pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay. (Both parents have to be enrolled in this plan for entire pregnancy period.)

7. Are there times I might collect as much as $20,800.00... *as much as $41,600.00?
There are! Remember, we pay cash not just for you, but for every covered member of your family. So if you or your spouse are hospitalized more than once... or even both of you more than once... or if a child gets sick or has an accident—you could end up collecting $20,800.00 or more! And that's not the whole story. Presidential gives policyowners an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE-CASH BENEFIT. If you and your covered spouse are both in an accident and go to the hospital at the same time... Presidential pays you $400.00-a-week tax free cash. This amount is paid for as long as both of you remain in the hospital. Even for 2 years! You receive up to a maximum of $41,600.00—to pay for doctor and hospital bills and other expenses resulting from one accident alone! We hope illnesses and accidents don't strike your home—but should something happen, isn't it reassuring to know you're so well protected?

8. Can I spend my cash benefits any way I please?
Yes! Spend the money any way you choose. Use it to pay your hospital, doctor, and nursing bills. Use it to pay for rent, food, clothing. Or put it in the bank to replace any savings spent during your hospitalization. All cash comes straight to you (not to doctor or hospital unless you request it) so you alone decide how it is to be spent!

9. Must I pay taxes on the money you send me?
Certainly NOT! Every dollar we send you is 100% tax-free.

10. Am I ever allowed to stop paying premiums during a long stay in the hospital—yet still remain fully covered?
Yes, you are! All premiums that come due after you—the person to whom the basic policy is issued—are in the hospital just 8 weeks or more... do not have to be paid! Yes, even if you are in for months, a year, or longer! We pay all premiums for you, and for all covered members of your family, too, while you remain hospitalized. You aren't expected to pay us back either.

11. How can you give me so much—for so little?
Because you buy your policy directly from the company. You don't deal through middlemen. You eliminate costly processing charges and "red tape" that are included in the cost of most insurance. That's the reason why Presidential can provide you with exceptional high-savings health insurance protection, including a full month's coverage for your family for only 25¢!

12. How do I go about submitting a claim?
We invite you to contact CASH BENEFITS HEADQUARTERS direct. Whether you want to submit a claim, or just ask us a question, don't hesitate to contact us. As a Presidential policyowner, you are entitled to prompt, courteous and direct attention at all times... and you will get it.

13. Because Presidential costs less... do I get less protection?
Absolutely not. You get more! $100.00 weekly cash payments for a maximum of 2 years for each hospital stay. And that goes for all covered members of your family. Yet all you pay to put this policy in force for one month is... 25¢. And if you want, continue this protection afterwards at the regular low Presidential rate! That's why we urge you—for your own satisfaction—to compare these big cash benefits with any comparable policy issued by any other insurance company... anywhere.

14. Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover?
Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers everything except conditions caused by (a) war or act of war; (b) mental disease or disorder; (c) where care is in a U.S. Government hospital; (d) pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and (e) any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for only two years. Everything else is definitely covered.

15. Will you cancel my policy if I make too many claims? Or because of age?
No—positively not! Only you can cancel. The company cannot—no matter how many claims you have... how old you get or for any other reason whatsoever. A GUARANTEED-RENEWABLE-FOR-LIFE clause has been written into your policy.

16. If I'm hospitalized less than a week—do you still pay in full?
Yes! We pay you every day you're in the hospital. There's no "waiting period" before you start collecting.

17. What are the requirements to enroll in this Extra Cash Hospital Plan?
You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health; and, to qualify during this enrollment period, you must enroll before midnight of the date shown in the Enrollment-Application.

18. Besides saving money—are there any other advantages of joining Presidential during the enrollment period?
Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a regular application – just the brief enrollment form in the corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!

19. How do I enroll?
Fill out the brief Enrollment-Application and mail it with just 25¢ for the first month's protection for your entire family. Mail to: The Presidential Life Insurance Company of America, 11401 Roosevelt Blvd., Philadelphia, Pa. 19154.

Get your Enrollment-Application into the mail today–because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today – before anything unexpected happens.

Red Koreans Gun Down U.S. Plane

Missing With 31

TOKYO (AP) — The North Koreans, who captured the intelligence ship Pueblo, reported their air force shot down a large U.S. reconnaissance plane today. The U.S. Defense Department said a Navy reconnaissance plane with 31 aboard was missing in the Sea of Japan.

Japanese fishing boats joined U.S. planes in a search for survivors. The U.S. Embassy in Moscow asked the Foreign Ministry for the assistance of any Soviet ships in the area.

The official Korean Central News Agency said "a large-size modernly equipped reconnaissance plane" intruded deep into North Korean air space and was shot down at 1:50 p.m.—11:30 p.m. EST Monday.

The broadcast gave no information on the fate of those aboard.

It said only that the North Korean air force shot the plane down at a high altitude "by showering fire of revenge upon it."

The U.S. Defense Department said a four-engine Navy EC121 propeller reconnaissance plane based at Atsugi, Japan, has been missing since 2:10 p.m.

A spokesman said the flight began about 7:10 a.m. and the aircraft commander was under orders to approach no closer than 50 miles to the coast of North Korea.

In Seoul, a high-ranking U.S. military spokesman refused to comment on the reports.

The North Korean agency said the "U.S. imperialist aggressor army which has been rapidly intensifying the war provocation maneuvers against North Korea of late perpetrated on the morning of the 15th the grave provocation of infiltrating deep into the territorial air of the republic a large-size modernly equipped reconnaissance plane to conduct recon- grave provocations along the military demarcation line."

It said the North Korean air force "instantly spotted" the plane and "scored the brilliant battle success" of shooting it down.

"The U.S. imperialist aggressors must bear in mind that the stern warning of the Korean People's Army is not empty talk and the Korean People's Army counters any provocation of the U.S. imperialist aggressors instantly with a hundred-fold, thousand-fold retaliatory blow," the broadcast said.

The Pentagon said an air search was being made approximately 95 miles southeast of Chongjin, North Korea.

About the time of the announcement in Washington, the U.S. Navy in Saigon abruptly cancelled an awards ceremony Wednesday aboard the aircraft carrier Ranger off Vietnam. A Navy spokesman in Saigon said he did not know if the cancellation was directly connected with the plane incident.

South Vietnam's defense minister and other officials had been scheduled to go aboard the Ranger to present medals to about 50 U.S. Navy men.

Suspected Of Planting Bombs

2 Chicago Policemen Slain By Ex-Marine In Shootout

CHICAGO (AP) — Two policemen were slain in a shootout with a former Marine suspected of planting a number of bombs in public places, one of which killed a woman a week ago in a department store.

Firing rifles and pistols and hurling homemade bombs, Frank Kulak, 42-year-old veteran of fighting in World War II and Korea, barricaded himself Monday in his third-floor flat on the city's South Side to hold off police seeking to question him.

The bullet-riddled bodies of the policemen were found on a third-floor porch after Kulak surrendered.

Two other policemen and a civilian were wounded in the prolonged exchange of shots and several others were injured by falling debris from the explosions.

Kulak told police that he wanted to show people the horror of war.

Before he was taken away in a patrol car, Kulak was asked why he did it.

"Well, they came at me," he said. "The police, that's who. They came after me."

The siege began when three policemen went to Kulak's door about 3 p.m. to question him about several recent South Side bombings, including an explosion April 7 at a store in which a woman was killed and eight others injured.

When the policemen identified themselves, they said, Kulak fired through the door with an automatic weapon, wounding Detective William McInerney, 45. Detective Michael A. Spiotto said Kulak moments later emptied a carbine into Sgt. James Schaffer, 48, and Det. Jerome A. Stubig, 40, whose bodies were

'Potentially Unpopular Decisions'

Nixon Budget Cuts Aimed At Surplus Of $5.8 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon unveiled today more details about budget cuts said to represent "hard choice and potentially unpopular decisions." The only agency to wind up with more money is the Justice Department.

Announcing new spending figures for each agency under a revised budget calculated to produce a $5.8 billion surplus in the fiscal year starting July 1, Nixon revealed more than half of the $4 billion in reductions he is claiming come out of defense and military-aid programs and scaled down legislation to increase Social Security benefits.

The cut in planned military spending, put at $1.1 billion, was attributed largely to "lower consumption of ammunition in Vietnam," a cutback of the antiballistic missile program proposed by former President Lyndon B. Johnson and "modification" of purchases of short-range attack missiles.

Another $1 billion of the reductions was attributed to whittling down another Johnson plan —never transmitted to Congress but included in his January budget—to increase Social Security benefits.

Nixon called for a 7 per cent increase in those benefits and proposed liberalization of the retirement test so retired persons can retain their benefits while receiving increased outside earnings.

The $4 billion in claimed savings cut all across the board, although some individual programs within agencies were granted increases.

The Justice Department budget was boosted $16 million to $730 million—a reflection of Nixon's plans, yet to be spelled out, to step up anticrime measures.

In a statement, the Budget Bureau said the revisions embrace "hard decisions on priorities, important program reforms and targeted new initiatives."

"All are part of the administration's concern for the cities, for the poor and for fundamental change in the domestic program systems of the federal government," it said.

The revised budget calls for a 10 per cent increase in spending for the poor in the coming fiscal year—a boost from $24.4 billion to $26.9 billion.

The administration claimed its budget provides more actual cash assistance to the poor than Johnson had proposed in January because of removal of a freeze on aid to families with dependent children—a $307 million item.

"Hard choice and potentially unpopular decisions have not been avoided," the statement said. "Where good judgment dictated a budget reduction because we believe a program has outlived its usefulness, that decision has been made."

Chapel At Springhill Cemetery

Dinner, Other Plans Made For Memorial To Newlin

A kickoff dinner has been set for May 29 in conjunction with the campaign to raise funds for a memorial honoring Marine Pfc. Melvin E. Newlin of Wellsville, who was killed in action in Vietnam.

Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio is scheduled to speak.

The memorial, in line with plans outlined during a meeting Monday night, will take the form of a chapel designed for 25 persons in Springhill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Architect Robert Beatty of East Liverpool, who is donating his services, is to tour the cemetey and begin his design within the next week.

Wayne Rose, president of Wellsville Council, announced that the city of Wellsville will donate land for the chapel and that the administration will cooperate in every way possible.

The project was outlined Monday night by 25 representatives of Wellsville and East Liverpool American Legion posts during a meeting at Post 70 in Wellsville.

A permanent committee will be appointed and Beatty's report heard during the next meeting May 1 at Post 70.

Miss Shirley Allen of the Wellsville Press, in charge of countywide publicity, said all interested in the project are requested to attend.

Pfc. Newlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Newlin of 1312 Commerce St., was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor posthumously recently in ceremonies at Washington attended by his parents.

Wanta Buy A Duck?

TROY, N. Y. (AP) — "Look, I'm not trying to be funny or anything," the voice on the telephone told Troy Police dispatcher Charles J. Tillotson, "but there's a duck tied to a pole just outside your station."

The plainclothesman who went to the scene found the little quacker attached to a pole outside the central police station with this note: "Please take care of my baby. I can no longer provide for him. Mrs. Donald Duck."

The blue - coated foster parents remanded the duck to the Hudson-Mohawk Humane Society.

GIs Kill 198 Red Soldiers In Viet Clash

SAIGON (AP) —U.S. ground troops, planes and artillery killed at least 198 North Vietnamese soldiers early today when two enemy battalions tried to overrun a day-old camp near the Cambodian border.

Thirteen Americans were killed and three were wounded, an American spokesman said.

Spokesmen said some of the attackers got within 30 yards of the perimeter wire before they were brought down by the American firepower. It was the largest number reported slain in any recent single action along the border.

Later, an American air observer reported "40 to 50" enemy dead stacked in a field two miles from the battle site on the Cambodian side of the border. Apparently they had been carried away by the North Vietnamese for burial.

"We had helicopter gunships working from the northwest, planes from the south and artillery firing from seven different locations on the enemy," said one officer.

The base, known as Diamond III, was carved out of the jungle about 30 miles northwest of Saigon Monday by infantrymen of the 25th Division's 2nd Battalion. Hours later the GIs detected movement 200 yards beyond the camp perimeter and called in artillery support.

A division spokesman said about 500 enemy troops attacked at 3:15 a.m., charging out of the woods in waves from three directions, firing rocket grenades, mortars and small arms.

Lt. Col. Vincent Oddi of Green Cove Springs, Fla., the 2nd Battalion commander, directed the battle from a helicopter overhead. Another helicopter used a searchlight to illuminate enemy gun positions, and gunships knocked out two .51-caliber antiaircraft guns that were firing on the American infantrymen.

After the battle, infantrymen swept the area and captured eight wounded prisoners and a truckload of enemy weapons, including 40 automatic rifles, 34 rocket-grenade launchers, 198 rocket grenades and 291 hand grenades.

9th Consecutive Day

Another Artillery Battle Rages Along Suez Canal

By The Associated Press

An artillery battle raged along most of the Suez Canal today, the Israeli army announced. It was the ninth consecutive day that Israeli and Egyptian forces had exchanged fire across the waterway.

An Israeli spokesman said Egypt opened fire at 12:30 p.m. on Israeli troops entrenched on the east bank of the canal, first along the southern half of the waterway and shortly after as far north as El Quantara.

Israeli forces were firing back "to silence the sources of the Egyptian shelling," the spokesman said.

Israeli and Arab gunners also dueled today across the Jordan River cease-fire line, and Israel and Jordan each claimed the other started that fighting.

An Israeli army spokesman said an Israeli patrol was attacked with bazooka, mortar and small arms fire near Ashdot Ya'Aqov, on the southern shore of the Sea of Galilee. One Israeli soldier was slightly injured, the spokesman reported.

A Jordanian military spokesman said the Israelis opened up on Jordanian forces, touching off a 35-minute machine gun and tank duel. He said two Jordanian soldiers were slightly injured.

The Israelis claimed they hit a Jordanian gun position, and Jordan claimed to have damaged an Israeli tank and halftrack and inflicted a number of casualties.

Israel also claimed Arab infiltrators set off an explosive charge on a road near the mountainous Lebanese border.

United Nations observers restored the cease-fire along the Suez Canal Monday night after Israel and Egypt dueled with jets, artillery and tanks for the eighth straight day.

Israel reported two of its soldiers were killed and two wounded. Egypt said one of its soldiers and a civilian were wounded.

Both nations also claimed they downed a fighter-bomber. It was the first time in more than a month that aircraft had been used in the hostilities across the 103-mile waterway.

Israel denied that any of its planes had been lost but said an Egyptian MIG21 was seen going down and the pilot parachuting. Egypt acknowledged that one of its MIGs made a forced landing and claim its pilots downed an Israeli Mirage jet and damaged another.

In New York, the chief U.N. delegates of the Big Four powers held the longest of their three meetings since they began Middle East talks April 3, but as usual there was no disclosure of what was said in the meeting that lasted nearly four hours.

An announcement after the meeting said the ambassadors, from the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France, will meet again Thursday.

Before their meeting, the delegates talked informally with King Hussein of Jordan, who visited U.N.

Forecast Takes Bite Out Of Tax Problems

Though busy battling today's tax deadline, the weatherman took time out long enough to come up with a favorable forecast for tri-state area residents.

He promises that the skies will clear tonight and that Wednesday will be mostly sunny and warmer, with a high ranging between 68 and 74.

An encouraging note in an otherwise gloomy day for those who have to dig deep to pay Uncle Sam.

Cashdollar Gets Chester Council Post

Roy Cashdollar was appointed to fill the Second Ward Council seat by a 3-1 vote at the meeting of Chester City Counil Monday night at City Hall.

Cashdollar will fill the unexpired term of Richard Johnston who was appointed city clerk. Cashdollar, former Councilman and city clerk, is Beaver Local superintendent of schools.

William Tuttle abstained, saying that Cashdollar holds a seat on the city Water Board, and would have to resign that post to become Councilman.

Lester Kirschler, chairman of the City Park Commission, announced a public meeting would be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at City Hall when Anthony Torchio of Weirton and a representative of the state Department of Commerce from Charleston would speak on possibilities of obtaining recreational facilities for Chester and the federal grants which may be available.

By a 3-2 margin, Council voted against the increase of rent paid by the water and sewage board for the City Hall office.

Remittances totaled $4,513, and bills totaling $5,316.45 were ordered paid. The 1969-70 levy order was approved.

The next meeting will be April 28.

The DOCTOR Says

Aspirin Can Relieve Some Arthritis

Q—What is the difference between arthritis and rheumatism? Is any medication better than aspirin for rheumatism?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — Arthritis is an inflammation of the joints. Rheumatism is a broad term that also includes inflammation of the muscles (myositis), tendons (tenonitis) and fibrous tissues (fibrositis) in the region of a joint. Many drugs are used to treat these diseases. All have their advantages and their disadvantages. For certain types of arthritis, aspirin is one of the best.

Q — What is asyptomatic arthritis? Can it be cured?

A — When there is evidence of inflammation in the joints (objective signs rather than symptoms which are entirely subjective), the arthritis may be said to be asymptomatic. This would be relatively rare and limited to the earliest stage of the disease. It can be treated but not cured.

Q — I am 37. In the morning I wake up with a stiff neck. During the day it limbers up some but not completely. Can this be arthritis? Is aspirin safe to take for relief?

A — Your stiffness is probably a form of arthritis. Aspirin relieves pain rather than stiffness and is widely used in the treatment of this disease. In most persons one tablet four times a day is safe.

Q — I have heard that popping one's knucklts causes arthritis. I have also heard that this prevents it. What do you think.

A — The popping sound is caused by a tendon snapping across a bony prominence. So far as I know it will neigher cause nor prevent arthritis.

Q — For several years I have taken Deronil for arthritis. It is the only drug that has helped me much. Now my doctor says I cannot take it any more. What are its harmful side effects? Would hot mud baths be of any value?

A—Dexamethasone (Deronil) is one of the cortisone-like drugs. Its side effects include moonface, ache, dizziness, weakness and headache but the most harmful effects are weakening and collapse of the vertebrae, loss of resistance to infection and bleeding from the digestive tract. Some persons can avoid these by taking a small maintenance dose of the drug and omitting its use every fourth week.

Would Provide $25-A-Day Fine

Bill Due In Ohio House To Curb Police Strikes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The issue over strikes by policemen is being taken to task in the Ohio Legislature.

Rep. Norman A. Murdock, R-70, Cincinnati, planned to introduce in the House today a bill to provide collective bargaining and compulsory arbitration between policemen and government ruling bodies.

Murdock said the bill would prohibit police strikes and provide a $25-a-day fine for those who do.

Murdock said the Fraternal Order of Police is backing the bill.

Earlier in the session, Murdock introduced a bill to give firemen identical collective bargaining rights.

"Any arbitration bill dealing with a single occupation will be difficult to get passed," Murdock said. "Many legislators feel there should be a package bill covering all public employes.

"Although there is strong sentiment for doing something about bargaining for public employes, I don't know if we'll get a bill out this session."

In legislative action Monday night, the Senate passed 29-1 a bill to allow most large counties to practically double their unvoted debt limitation. It would raise the present debt limitations in 64 of the 88 counties, allowing them to use general fund money rather than fees to retire the bonds.

Sen. Ralph S. Regula, R-29, Navarre, who voted against the bill, said it would allow affected county commissions to issue $177 million more without voter approval.

"Do we want to give this kind of authority to county commissioners?" he asked the Senate.

The bill sets the unvoted bonded indebtedness of counties at a flat rate of 1 per cent of its tax list.

At present, a county's indebtedness can not exceed 1 per cent of the first $100 million of the county's tax list, plus one-half of 1 per cent of the tax list in excess of that amount.

In other action, Sen. Ronald M. Mottl, D-24, Parma, introduced a resolution calling for firmer discipline for campus disorders.

Mottl said the last legislature gave colleges and universities the power to suspend or expel anyone interfering with the orderly educational process.

"Our colleges and universities have the power to stop these riots when they start," he explained. "I feel that it is time to enforce the law."

In the House, a bill to prohibit nonfarming corporations from taking over Ohio farms was introduced.

Shafer's Tax Plan Hit By Rep. Miller

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Shafer's persistence in seeking a statewide personal income tax has drawn the criticism of a Republican legislator who maintains the people are "diametrically opposed" to the proposed levy.

Rep. Marvin E. Miller of Lancaster County suggested in a floor speech Monday that Shafer refrain from holding any more regional town meetings designed to drum up support for his record $2.52 billion general operating budget.

"The average taxpayer...is fulfilling his social responsibility to society to a degree greater than in the history of any nation," Miller said, "but he is wearied and ill at ease at the thought of another direct tax upon his pay even before he gets it."

House Republicans went on record against the income tax soon after Shafer proposed it, calling instead for cuts in the budget and the financing of some $132 million in spending through borrowing.

Minority Leader Lee A. Donaldson Jr., R-Allegheny, said, however, that Miller was speaking as an individual legislator and not in behalf of the 96-member House GOP caucus. Donaldson had no further comment on the speech.

Majority Leader K. Leroy Irvis, D-Allegheny, questioned the wisdom of "painting yourself into a corner." House Democrats, who opposed Shafer's 1967 tax program, have yet to take a caucus stand on the income tax.

Miller noted that Shafer planned to be in Lancaster Thursday to explain for the benefit of area residents the reasons for his proposed 25 per cent increase in his recommended income tax.

The two-term legislator said he had polled his constituency and found it to be 92 per cent against an income tax. He suggested Shafer was wasting his efforts on the town meetings.

Two Plead Not Guilty In Drink Sale Charge

LISBON — Two local residents arrested early Sunday when state liquor agents riaded the Pine Tree Inn on Route 45 pleaded not guilty Monday at arraignment before Judge J. L. MacDonald in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

John R. Tullis, employed at Pine Tree, is charged with selling an intoxicating drink to a minor and the minor, Gerald Sanders, 19, is charged with buying the drink and consuming it on the premises.

Judge MacDonald said the case will be assigned for trial. The defendants posted bonds of $100 each.

Shootout

found later on the porch of the three-story brick building.

At this point, police said, Kulak barricaded himself in his apartment. He was armed with what a police spokesman called "a small arsenal."

The arsenal included a large amount of black powder, a number of concussion grenades and homemade bombs, a grenade launcher, several automatic weapons and a .45-caliber automatic pistol.

Police exchanged gunfire with Kulak for nearly an hour. Several grenades and bombs, hurled or shot by Kulak, rocked nearby buildings and shattered windows up to two blocks away.

Police evacuated residents of the building that housed the gunman as well as the apartment buildings on either side.

Finally, two hours and a half after the shooting started, police ceased fire and attempted to talk Kulak into surrendering.

Kulak's brother, Harold, and his sister, Mrs. Catherine Potts, pleaded with their brother to give himself up, but he wouldn't answer.

Mrs. Potts and Harold then entered the building with Deputy Police Supt. James Rochford. They made their way up to the second floor landing. From there they tried to persaude Kulak to give up. He refused.

Rochford eventually talked Kulak into allowing him to come up alone and unarmed. Kulak, with a pistol in hand, met Rochford at the third floor landing.

Rochford talked with Kulak for nearly an hour. At 9:15, Kulak surrendered.

Rochford said Kulak admitted planting a homemade black powder bomb in the basement of Goldblatt's store a week ago and asserted the former Marine was responsible for several other bombings in the city.

State Dismisses City Liquor Case

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control has dismissed a reported violation by the holder of a liquor permit of the Inn Town Motel, Inc., which did business as the Coach Lounge located at 320 E. 3rd St.

The Commission said a person other than the permit holder did carry on the business without written consent of the department June, 26, 1968.

The Commission ruled that since the permit holder's lease terminated in October, 1968, the case was dismissed effective April 4, 1969.

Niles Man Arrested In Counterfeit Case

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Secret Service agents have arrested a Niles, Ohio, man and charged him with possession and attempted sale of $50,000 worth of counterfeit $100 bills.

Paul Lamonge, 57, a finisher of antique furniture, was arrested Monday and admitted having a previous criminal record when he appeared before U.S. Commissioner Clifford E. Bruce. The commissioner said he would not consider a bond under $50,000.

Lamonge's case was continued and he was taken to the Cuyahoga County Jail.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Timothy J. Potts said Lamonge faces a maximum of 30 years in a federal prison if convicted.

Freedom For A Price

Traffic in human beings, the buying and selling of individuals, once was an accepted business practice in many parts of the world. In some areas, the slave market still exists.

But in Romania today the traffic in people is slightly different. And it is selective. The only ones being "bought" and "sold" are Germans.

Actually the "purchaser" is not buying the German as a slave. He is, instead, buying his or her freedom.

THE ROMANIAN administration has been "selling" Germans covertly since 1959. Estimates are that some 28,000 Siebenburgen Germans have been "bought out" of Romania by relatives and friends and that Romanian prison and border area commanders pocketed some $3.2 million as a result of the transactions.

One former lawyer from Stuttgart has "bought" and delivered 3,984 Germans himself.

An ordinary German is reported to "sell" for $500 with his passport and exit visa included but a skilled, professional and young physically fit Germans bring up to $1,250. A prominent person has been known to have a price tag of $12,500.

Industry in labor-short West Germany, sensing the opportunity to dip into this pool of manpower, but put pressure on the Bonn government with the result that a repatriation commission is in Romania negotiating for the "sale" of more Germans. The government is offering long-term credits and pipelines (classified as strategic goods) instead of cash.

There are some 76,000 Siebenburgen Germans residing in East Germany. When they heard of the mass repatriation of Germans from Romania, 62,000 of these registered to return to Romania so they could also be "sold" into West Germany.

But Walter Ulbricht, Communist party head in East Germany, quickly stopped the sudden drain on his manpower, closed the East German repatriation office and ordered its 19 employes out of his country within 48 hours.

THERE WERE 389,000 Germans in Romania before the "selling" process began. Predictions are that if Russia does not interfere in some way, all of the Romanian Germans will have been "sold" into West Germany by Easter of next year.

A major difference between the bartering over slaves in the conventional markets of old and the current "sales" arranged in Romania is that only the purchaser could be expected to be pleased about his purchase in the slave market, while in the Romanian German transactions the "seller," the "buyer" and the "sold" are happy.

The Nuclear Age

The Shippingport nuclear power plant, which began producing electricity in 1957, was designed as the world's first commercial atomic facility but was of modest capabilities in line with its somewhat experimental nature.

The new Beaver Valley Station now under construction adjacent to the first plant will be another of the recent fullscale applications of nuclear power to the electrical generating net of the U.S. which will add 847,000 kilowatts to the power capacity of Duquesne Light, Penn Power and Ohio Edison.

Within a decade, nuclear energy sources will be producing more than a fifth of all the electricity in the nation, compared to the 60,000 kilowatts which first went out on lines from Shippingport just 12 years ago.

Completion of the Beaver Valley Station in 1973 will mark another historic first for the Duquesne operations at Shippingport — the full cycle from a pioneer peacetime application of the potential of the atom to a major realization of this potential in serving the mushrooming power needs of this region as we move well into the Nuclear Age.

The Shame Of It

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — The wonderful thing about our neighborhood in Washington, D.C., is that the people rally around when someone is in trouble.

Art Buchwald

For example, one of our neighbors is McPherson, who happens to own a Silver Shadow Rolls-Royce. It was his proudest possession, but in McPherson's defense, it must be said that he never lorded it over the rest of us. Occasionally he might have brought up the Rolls in conversation, but he'd always turn it into a joke such as, "I had a heck of a time parking the chariot this morning"; or, "My clock stopped in the Rolls last night, and I had no idea if the motor was running or not." There was nothing offensive in these remarks, but there was no question that the Rolls symbolized everything McPherson had worked for all his life.

WHILE THERE WERE a few neighbors who were bored by McPherson's talk about his Silver Shadow, most of the rest of us had a live-and-let-live attitude about it.

Then last week the roof fell in. It was announced that Rolls-Royce was calling in all its Silver Shadows and Bentley T models because of a possible faulty setscrew in the steering lever.

The first person all of us thought of was McPherson. We tried to phone, but the line was busy. So my wife said, "In a tragedy like this, they'll need food," and she started to make a casserole.

That morning we went over to McPherson's carrying the casserole.

SEVERAL NEIGHBORS were already there. The minister of the church had also arrived, and when we walked into the living room, he was talking to McPherson.

"The Lord giveth and the ord taketh away. You have to understand there are everlead conditions, even on Rolls-Royces, that no one knows anything about. The mysteries of steering mechanisms are beyond the comprehension of mortal man, but you must believe that there is some master plan beyond all this, and in the long run it will all be for the good."

"I know how you feel," I said sympathetically.

McPherson turned on me. "What do you mean, you know how I feel? None of you knows how I feel. How can I face my friends, my business associates, my golf partners? All my life I dreamed that someday I'd have a Silver Shadow, and now they're taking it away from me."

"Look, McPherson," I said, "it isn't the same as having a Chevrolet or a Ford or a Chrysler recalled, but all of us have lived through a similar experience. Believe me, in time no one will remember they recalled your Rolls-Royce."

Nolan, another neighbor who was sitting in the living room, said, "Would you like to borrow my Volkswagen while your Rolls is in the shop?"

It was obviously the wrong thing to say because McPherson broke into tears. "Oh, the shame of it. Whoever thought that one day I'd be driving a Volkswagen?"

THE MINISTER took McPherson's hand. "Try to imagine that your Silver Shadow has gone off on a trip. Your Rolls-Royce is now in that beautiful, great garage in the sky. And don't forget, you're not losing a car, you're gaining a new steering lever mechanism."

All day long the neighbors came to the house to pay their condolences. Many had baked cakes, others took the McPherson children into their homes, and still others offered to drive the McPhersons anywhere they wanted to go.

By evening McPherson was able to function again and the first upbeat thing he said was, "Well, I guess there are always taxis."

Musings From Max

By MARTIN MILLER

The snowdrops are withering and spring has barely started, weatherwise, that is. But the season moves on with crocus, jonquils, hyacinth and daffodils in turn, blooming and fading. To say nothing of winter onions rearing their fragrant stalks.

In South Africa the summer is just ending and the elephant is eating the ripened marula which ferments in the pachyderm producing alcohol and making the beast an animated still.

People in South Africa tell of half-stoned elephants chasing their autos and mowing down fences.

Meantime back in the northern hemisphere, homo sapiens also feel the sap running and such places as Palm Springs, Calif., and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., are again making news.

Up north here as the sun warms the little green things and the birds are nesting, two-legged animals also are chasing autos and mowing down fences, both literally and figuratively.

Rudyard Kipling in his "Jungle Books" told of the "spring running" when the beasts of the jungle went berserk and raced hither and thither they knew not why.

It happens every year.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana is a cool customer. He has great reservations about the ABM system even though deployment of the antiballistic missiles is slated for his own state if finally approved.

Some people in Montana naturally could profit financially from the ABM system but he lectured his constituency on the difference between pork barrel legislation and legislation which might escalate the world nuclear arms race and endanger world peace.

His appearance on "Meet the Press" two or three weeks ago was a model of how to give brief and to the point answers to complicated questions.

A friend who is an industry executive and empirical economist gave me his annual income tax lecture. He says the government takes 50 per cent of industry's profits which actually means that industry management is working half-time for the government, besides working for itself and stockholders.

He really has hardly any fault to find with the system and thinks it probably is the best ever devised. The government encourages private enterprise, lets the companies compete like cats and dogs to maintain efficiency and then takes a healthy bite of the profits which such free enterprise has created.

He calls it a modified form of state socialism. Deep stuff.

His biggest concern is that individual productivity is declining. He says this caused the economic difficulties of France and England and says the United States is going the same road.

To get back to spring.

Anybody who has peeled potatoes lately will tell you the potatoes from last winter are getting pretty spongy and have eyes sprouting from the back of their heads.

If new potatoes are just around the corner can summer be far behind?

Letters To The Editor

As a junior at East Liverpool High School, I am deeply concerned about the two levies coming up before voters on May 6. As citizens of East Liverpool, I am asking you for your complete support, and appeal to you all to vote yes, whether you agree or not.

I am proud to be a student at the finest and most beautiful high school in the state. We have had many differences and conflicts between many organizations and individuals in the school system. There are many things that need corrected at the new high school. There are many that refuse to support the schools because they don't like a certain individual on the school board or they don't agree with the decisions made by them and the Superintendent.

But, all of these things can be corrected with your help. If the levies do not pass, the school system will lose state financial aid and the schools would lose more than half of their operating funds. The schools would then have to shut down.

Our schools would follow the Youngstown Route, because some people in this town are just to stuborn to compromise or give in a little. Next year I would like to attend our own high school. The senior year and activities are the most important things a student has to look forward to.

Do you have enough money to pay tuition for your children to go to another school, or will they have to suffer through another year of sub-par education because you were not willing to give a little for this, the most important of all our concerns?

Citizens, please do not let the students of the East Liverpool School District down. These levies are just renewals. Does it hurt you to pay for something you have already been doing? The only ones you are hurting are the students. If you defeat the levies, you are defeating the future citizens of East Liverpool.

Endorse the levies! Convince others they should vote yes!

Editorial Rapped

Despite the clarifications in the Review's editorial April 7, I remain mystified to why abortion, the destruction of the fetus, the killing of the unborn, is a matter of choice like selecting an umbrella or choosing a pair of gloves.

Since when has murder become such a casual affair that it may be left to each individual conscience to determine whether or not it should be committed?

Western society, as it presently exists, is founded upon certain Judaic-Christian concepts among which is the right to life of every human being, born or unborn, or eloquently stated in our own Declaration of Independence.

This right of each human person to possess life (unless the person himself culpably forfeits his right by certain crimes against society) is not a matter for debate, option or determination by consensus.

It is an absolute and inalienable right in the religious, moral and political thought of Catholic, Protestant and Jew alike, living together in a pluralistic society.

Such a right must logically and inevitably extend to the unborn human being whether or not the fetus is thought to have a soul at some nascent stage of its development. Quite a number of people do not admit the reality of the soul at any stage of human development before or after birth, but such a belief scarcely gives them the right to eliminate any "souless" fellow citizen, defective or not, whom they happen to think is an inconvenience to themselves or to the state.

Also, if the bill is passed, there is the sinister question whether the proponents of liberalized abortion will remain content with pre-natal killing or will seek to extend their "merciful" designs ot include post-natal stages of human life as well.

Just what is the term of the kind of thinking the editorial indulges and encourages?

If unhindered, will such thinking end with the killing of the old as well as the very young? Or will it extend further to other segments of the population against whom other citizens have religious, racial or ethnical prejudices, compounded by distorted historical perspectives?

What other Hitlerian, anti-life permissiveness will follow upon legalized abortion?

As I reflect on the editorial, it becomes easier to understand why so many young people today are repudiating the decadent utilitarianism of an older generation.

After reading the letter of March 19, it did my heart good to see some one speak up for the good old USA and what they and we stand for.

If you ask me, I have been darned tired the way thing have been going and think it is high time we act like real Americans and do something about it.

RAYMOND MOLEY

The Hatching Of A Nation

The title of this piece is suggested by the cover of the playbill of the Broadway show "1776." It portrays a large egg labeled with the Union Jack and breaking through the shell is a scrawny ugly chick bearing a banner with a strange device.

When I was 21, I conceived, for reasons I cannot now fathom, an ambition to become a drama critic. That summer in Ann Arbor, Mich., where I took some courses, I told a distinguished professor of the dramatic art that I was undecided between that career and the law. Knowing a lot about the theater and nothing about the law, my advisers strongly suggested law. I got the hint and never in the years since have I written about a play—until now.

BUT MY REFLECTIONS about the amazing Broadway success of "1776" have less to do with the anatomy of the play than its impact upon the critics and the public.

The performance presents upon a stage, with only one set, several sessions of the Continental Congress in Philadelphia in the spring and early summer of 1776. It was a year after blood had been shed at Lexington and Concord, but apparently the delegates of the states were still perplexed about what they were going to do about their quarrel with England. It was in truth a do-nothing Congress. Specifically, the matter at issue and the theme of the play concerned the conception, writing and adoption of the Declaration of Independence.

There is represented, among many others, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin and the young redhead Thomas Jefferson, fresh from his study with the most learned man in the Colonies, George Wythe. Until then, the most fanatical energy of Adams had kept this idea of independence alive in the Congress. At his insistence, a committee was formed to draft the declaration, and the older members coerced Jefferson to find the words necessary to the divorce of the Colonies. The Virginian had been away from home six months, and his creative facilities needed the comforting influence of his young wife, Patty. And so Adams brought her to Philadelphia, and the elixir of love loosed the flow of the Jefferson intellect. The course of the drama from then follows history.

This story is told in hundreds of books and is well known to countless schoolboys and girls. It provides nothing new. The records are all complete. As material for drama, it would seem to be suitable only for a "pageant at homecoming day" at some village, surely not for a "sophisticated" Broadway audience.

And especially in the climate of the 1960s, when an appeal to tradition rings forth only hoots and jeers or when the blight of cynicism infects the land. Plays these days, it seems, must reveal the urban problem, the war in Vietnam, the black revolt or other subjects of social significance. Our flag is dishonored and the light of religion is extinguished in the name of civil liberty. Our schools are in disarray and our youth are taught that the past is no guide to the future.

Against all this, the people who created "1776" cast their die—they challenged all of the traditions of musical comedy. They disdained the box-office appeal of name stars. They had only two women in the show, and one, Abigail Adams, was still in Massachusetts. There was no shouting chorus. No songs you can remember, no dancing except a bit of choreography by Benjamin Franklin between bouts of gout.

AS WALTER KERR wrote in the New York Times, "how, pray, do you get a musical out of that? By going about your business without compromise, apology, self-consciousness, piety or fear . . . It is the most independent musical comedy in years, and if you've got any character of your own you'll go and see it instantly just to keep its independence company."

I attended this show during its first week, not as a critic but as a paying guest, just to gain more muscle for my belief in the essential soundness of the American people. But a packed house boisterously joined me in my appreciation. I saw and heard there the answer to all this talk about a "sick society." For in its crude beginnings this country had the stuff out of which its greatness came to be inevitable. Tickets are selling for months ahead, and more than one critic has said it will be running until 1976.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — A delegation from the Horace Mann Home and School Association appeared before the school board to ask an addition or other action to remedy crowded conditions at the school.

Don Eckert and Jay McFadden advanced to the finals of the YMCA senior singles handball tournament by defeating Howard Bloor and John Porter, respectively.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Plans for the improved dock facilities on the Ohio River at the foot of Jackson St. were announced by Howard Parsons, operator of the Parsons Coal Co.

Pfc. Thomas W. Moore of Mulberry St. arrived in Yokohoma, Japan, to serve as a postal clerk with the 7th base post office.

TEN YEARS AGO — Mrs. Macil Flowers was welcomed as a member of the Borean Class of the Grace United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Alfred Bahm was returned as president of the East Liverpool Chapter of Hadassah and Mrs. William Sulkes as vice president.

Congress Expects New Laws

U.S. Power To Regulate Tobacco Ads Due Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — A verdict on the government's power to force radio and television stations to use antismoking messages could come from the Supreme Court, perhaps within the next few weeks.

While Congress contemplates new legislation, the court could guide the lawmakers by ruling on the claim that the Constitution's broad guaranty against government censorship can be used as a shield against regulation of radio-TV advertising.

The tobacco and broadcasting industries are banking heavily on 1st Amendment freedom of speech and press guarantees as they try to cut down the 1967 Federal Communications Commission rule requiring antismoking messages.

Their appeals, pending before the Court, argue that the broadcasting industry has been singled out unfairly—and unconstitutionally; that the government could never get away with this kind of regulation if it tried to apply it to newspapers, for instance.

"Are broadcasters distinguishable for 1st Amendment purposes?", the National Association of Broadcasters asks.

The tobacco manufacturers, meanwhile, have reminded the justices that they held long ago the 1st Amendment "protects the citizen not only against governmenal prohibitions on what he wishes to say, but also against governmental dictation of what he must say."

The object of this spirited attack is the FCC rule that stations carrying cigarette commercials must provide "a significant amount of time for the other viewpoint"—the viewpoint that cigarette smoking can be a hazard to health.

Successful in court so far, the FCC has moved on to propose a flat ban on all cigarette commercials on radio and television —with the possible exception of cigarettes "low in tar and nicotine and related filter aspects."

The fate of this stiffer fiat probably rests as much with the Supreme Court as with Congress.

If the justices turn their backs on the broadcasters and the tobacco people, refusing even to grant them a full-dress hearing, congressional proponents of antismoking measures would be emboldened to drive ahead.

However, if the justices set the appeal down for a hearing next term, the effect likely would be to restrain the more adventurous legislators. A very real prospect of court disapproval will have been raised.

The FCC, for its part, has brushed aside the 1st Amendment argument and pitched its case to protecting the public against "the powerful blandishments" of cigarette advertising.

The agency argues that one side to the debate over smoking, the cigarette manufacturers, have "economic interests and resources unmatched by any opponent."

Therefore, the agency says, the Constitution and the public interest are served "by an attempt to address the balance" with government-ordered antismoking messages.

Lisbon Council To Lease Roller For Street Work

LISBON — Council voted Monday night to lease a roller for six months at $300 a month with an option to buy it for $200 at the end of the lease period.

Council President Bill Mattix and Street Commissioner Thirl Flugan inspected the roller yesterday at the Tri-State-Asphalt Co. in Martins Ferry.

Mattix was reimbursed $25 last night for the trip.

Flugan said the roller weighs between four and six tons and has auxiliary wheels for moving it from job to job. Mattix said Tri-State will make delivery. Councilman Charles Webber opposed the lease, explaining afterward he does not think it is wise to buy used equipment.

Flugan asked Council to set up a program of streets to be repaired and said he will need two more men to assist with the program as soon as the slag arrives.

—:—

COUNCIL confirmed Mayor Clyde B. Pike's employment of Edgar Phillips and Jud Griffith, local high school students, to take care of the parks this season at $1.65 an hour.

The annual spring cleanup was set for next week, with street department workers hauling away ashes and trash placed in containers at curb or alley.

Responding to a request from the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs, Council authorized Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi to draft an ordinance to discontinue any further extension of water or sewer lines outside the corporation limits.

Council also approved a motion to discontinue temporarily any further extensions of the lines outside the community until the requested ordinance becomes effective.

Reed McClure, village engineer, said the Board of Public Affairs believes that once people outside Lisbon obtain the services they no longer have an incentive to seek annexation to the village.

MAYOR PIKE said the Lisbon Area Chamber of Commerce wants to meet with Council Wednesday night to discuss the annexation suggestion made March 10.

William T. Hiscox of the Lions Club reported the annual street fair is scheduled for July 16-19, Wednesday through Saturday, on S. Park Ave. and Market St. from Lincoln Way south to Washington St. Council gave the club permission to hold the fair after Hiscox said members polled merchants in the fair area and only three registered objections.

Clerk-Treasurer John Ebert said the Ohio Highway Department has announced a public hearing for 1:30 p.m. May 15 at David Anderson High School on the proposed relocation, rerouting and abandonment of a portion of Route 45 in Elkrun and Center townships and the relocation and abandonment of a portion of Route 517 (the Lisbon-Fairfield Rd.) in Center Township. The changes result from the construction of Route 11, the Lake Erie-to-Ohio River freeway, east of here.

Ebert said he is awaiting word from the American La France Co. on its representative's inspection of Lisbon's 1941 fire truck March 26. Volunteer firemen last summer told Council the truck is beyond repair and should be replaced.

Council voted to direct Fire Chief W. A. Peters to notify James Todd to remove material from his burned out garage building on Jail Alley.

At Ebert's request, Council transferred $500 from the general fund to the swimming pool fund.

FLUGAN told councilmen that parked automobiles interfere with his use of the street sweeper. They said he should post "No Parking" signs on streets to be swept the night before he intends to work them, and police should precede the sweeper and have violators towed away.

McClure said he had been asked how much it would cost to build a new street — a 24-foot blacktop surface with two-foot gutters on each side. He said the cost would be about $13.20 a lineal foot of pavement or about $10 per square yard. The cost to the owner of a 70-foot-wide lot would be about $650, he said, and could be spread over 10 years and paid annually or semi - annually as an assessment on the real estate tax bill.

Rod Goodyear of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. asked Council to consider using calcium chloride on side streets and alleys. Councilman Ray Beers said the first responsibility is "to patch the potholes around town."

Wetzel Opposes County Tax Plan

LISBON — State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel told the Columbiana County Republican advisory group Monday he is opposed to a proposed mandatory county income tax.

A member of the House Finance Committee, Wetzel told local GOP leaders there is enough "fat" in education and welfare allocations to meet their needs.

He said the Ohio Education Association's pressure on legislators to approve proposed bills "amounts to blackmail."

Eyler Hinchliffe of Lisbon, vice chairman, presided for the luncheon meeting at the Wick Hotel.

Dr. Arthur Phillips is director of the new department.

Inhalation therapists administer inhalation therapy to patients with respiratory diseases, to post-operative patients and to victims of chest injuries, when prescribed by the attending physician.

Pile Of Bills Offered On 19-Year-Olds

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General Assembly, already on record in favor of lowering the voting age, is stacking up the bills to permit 19-year-olds to do almost everything else but drink.

A number of bills already have been instroduced in the House. Monday, Senate Majority Leader Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford, came up with a blockbusting total of 40 bills on the subject.

Stroup, a lawyer and former school administrator, labelled his package the "19-year-old emancipation bills." They would he said, "amend existing legislation to reduce the age of majority in Pennsylvania by two years."

Along the lines of another blockbuster was the $961.3 million proposed capital budget for 1969-1970 which Gov. Shafer sent to the House and Senate Monday.

The budget, which outlines financing of construction of highways, schools and other public works, drew little comment from legislators, however. They were more concerned with the record $2.52 billion General Fund budget proposed by Shafer in January.

The key to the General Fund budget — a state personal income tax of possibly 3 per cent — was attacked anew by Rep. Marvin E. Miller, R-Lancaster, in a floor speech Monday.

Miller is the strongest denunciation yet of the governor by a member of his own party said: "I suggest we reserve the area of income taxes to the federal government, which first preempted it, and to the local government, without adding a third hand in the pocket of Robert and Rachel Rankandfile."

The General Assembly, just returned from a two week recess, was not in high gear Monday and little floor action occurred.

Wetzel Proposes Changes In Ohio Adoption Policy

By JOHN THOMAS
Review Correspondent

COLUMBUS — Couples could adopt children of different racial, religious and cultural backgrounds than theirs if it were judged in the best interests of the youngsters under a bill introduced in the House Monday night by State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel (R-Columbiana).

Presently, the racial, religious and cultural backgrounds of the adopting parents and the children are to be considered by the welfare agencies.

But, Wetzel's bill would permit disapproval of the adoption on those grounds only when such factors could be shown to be psychologically detrimental to the children.

In other House action Monday Wetzel introduced three other pieces of legislation, including one bill that would provide night differential pay for state employes who work from 2 p.m. to 6 a.m.

The differential would be figured by paying the employes the pay rate for the next higher grade, if any.

Another Wetzel bill would authorize deputy directors of state departments to act as directors in their supervisors' absences.

Football Profit Set At $12,500

A net profit of $12,510 for the 1968 football season was reported during Monday night's meeting of the East Liverpool High School Athletic Association.

The report — from June 1, 1968, to March 1, 1969—showed an income from all sources of $47,116 and expenses of $34,606.

—:—

IN OTHER action, the association allocated $150 for the purchase of equipment for a girls' track and field team and authorized the use of the Patterson Field track, when not needed by the boys' team.

Mrs. Carol Pearson, adviser, informed the board that 70 girls have signed for the squad and some 42 have been attending practice sessions each evening at Thompson Park.

She pointed out that there are several girls' teams in the district, none of which, however, is directly connected with the schools since they do not have certified personnel working with them — a requirement under a school program.

Frank Moss, assistant football coach, also spoke on behalf of the team.

Joseph Smith, treasurer, said the basketball and wrestling reports will be submitted at the May meeting.

Smith reported an association balance of $19,773 as of April 1, broken down as follows: $10,455 in the track savings account, $4,353 in the regular savings account and $4,964 in the checking account.

A discussion was held on cars being driven on the East Elementary grounds.

—:—

BOARD Member Harry McConville, commenting on the recent study of the Professional Rights and Responsibilities Commission of the Ohio Education Association, declared:

"Every uniform ordered has been done so through athletic board action."

He was referring to a statement in the group's report that a board of education member had authorized the ordering of athletic uniforms. McConville said he had conferred with the other board members and was assured that they had taken no such action and emphasized that he had not.

First reading was given to the revised constitution and bylaws.

The association will meet again May 12.

Democratic Senators Face '70 Election Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The legacy of a landslide falls due next year and, ironically, it poses a problem for the Democrats who won it.

Democratic senators who won their terms in former President Lyndon B. Johnson's electoral blitz of 1964 must run again in 1970, and the Republican National Committee says the GOP has a chance of winning control of the Senate for the first time in more than two decades.

Democratic analysts are frankly worried.

Normally, an off-year election produces congressional gains for the party which does not control the White House, but in 1970 the arithmetic and the circumstances could work against tradition.

There are 33 Senate seats at stake, 25 of them now Democratic, only eight Republican.

Democrats now control the Senate, 58 to 42. But a gain of eight seats—making the parties even—would put the GOP in charge because Vice President Spiro T. Agnew would cast the decisive vote in a tie.

Frequently, an off-year election casts the presidential party in a defensive role. But the Democrats are not sure that will be the case next year.

One official at the Democratic National Committee already is advising Sen. Fred R. Harris, the chairman, that the party should brace for a GOP on the offensive.

This Democratic strategist maintains the party should map its campaign plans on the assumption that President Nixon will succeed in settling the two biggest problems he faces: The war in Vietnam and inflation at home.

If that is the situation when campaign time comes, he says, "the Republicans will not only not be on the defensive in 1970 but quite on the contrary will be robustly on the attack."

Furthermore, a Democratic analysis of the 1964 returns indicates another problem—Republicans who won seats in that election withstood the undertow of Sen. Barry Goldwater's losing ticket, while Democrats rode with the presidential tide. Johnson polled 43 million votes, Goldwater 27 million.

Outside the Deep South, only five Democratic senators elected in 1964 ran ahead of the Johnson ticket. The others, presumably, benefitted from the presidential returns.

In four of their victories, Democratic analysts believe, the coattail power of Johnson's massive showing was the decisive factor.

The Senate elections they put in this category are those of Sens. Howard Cannon of Nevada, Joseph M. Montoya of New Mexico, William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Stephen M. Young of Ohio.

Against that background, Democrats are advising their Senate candidates to make an early start on the 1970 race, not only to build for the November election, but also in hopes of averting troublesome primary contests.

The strategy-makers also counsel concentration on the suburban precincts, where President Nixon made his best showing last November.

'More Than Coincidence'

Democrat Assails Rhodes After Spending Cut Step

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes, who was elected to office seven years ago on an austerity platform, thwarted an attempt Monday by Democrats to beat him at his own game.

Rep. William E. Hinig, D-32 New Philadelphia, said it was "probably more than a coincidence" that Rhodes' order Monday morning calling for cuts in state spending came just five hours before the Democrats' news conference.

In a statement prepared several days ago, Hinig blasted the administration for spending money on ads in out-of-state papers, for proposed "welcome to Ohio signs" and for an unprofitable state magazine.

Hinig was one of five members of the Democratic Policy Committee who appeared at the news conference to attack administration proposals.

Others were Reps. David L. Headley, D-96 Barberton, Donald J. Pease, D - 75, Oberlin, James F. Flannery, D-48 Cleveland and Sen. William B. Nye, D-28 Akron.

Hinig said Ohio pays $17,000 every time it places an ad in the Wall Street Journal. He also cited what the called other wastes in state government, including:

—State cars being misused.

—Bronze doors for the Statehouse that cost $100,000.

— The Wonderful World of Ohio magazine that costs $200,000 a year.

— A public restroom along I-71 to be opened May 31 at a cost of $62,700.

Headly attacked the State Controlling Board for "super powers" and for transferring funds from one account to another.

Pease said tax reform is necessary and the Rhodes administration refuses to consider it.

Hinig called for reevaluation of present state programs, saying Ohio should "cut out the fat, the waste, the inefficiencies."

Rhodes announced earlier Monday that he had ordered State Finance Director Howard Collier to review the state's fiscal situation "in light of current economic conditions." He said "drastic" measures might be necessary to maintain a balanced budget for the state.

Collier said the governor's new austerity program was touched off by rising welfare and medical assistance costs.

Rising welfare caseloads may produce unanticipated costs of $4 million by June, he said, cutting into the $8 million savings anticipated by the state.

Collier announced a state hiring freeze and other belt-tightening measures last January, but he said Monday they have only been about 50 per cent effective.

In ordering the austerity program, Rhodes said several possible avenues are available, including layoffs in some departments and delay in some building projects.

Nixon Aides Face AFL-CIO On Inflation, Jobless Issue

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) — The administration sent its top economic policymakers before the AFL-CIO's leaders today to give assurances that President Nixon's three-way squeeze on inflation won't put millions out of work.

Chairman Paul W. McCracken of the Council of Economic Advisors, Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy and Arthur M. Burns, counselor to the President, were on the agenda of the extraordinary closed-door meeting at the luxurious Greenbrier Hotel.

Despite a tight curtain of silence, AFL-CIO sources have disclosed that labor officials are disturbed by Nixon's planned cutback in domestic spending and fear that some of his lieutenants would be willing to permit a painful rise in unemployment to insure that inflation is quashed.

Nixon's anti-inflation strategy —extension of the surtax, cutbacks in federal spending and a tight rein on credit—was endorsed at Monday's opening session by the top economist of the Johnson administration, Dr. Arthur Okun.

"The No. 1 economic problem remains that of restraining inflation without endangering our economic prosperity in the process," said Okun, who headed the President's Economic Council until the White House changed hands.

With the Present package of anti-inflation tools, Okun added, "I am optimistic that it can be done."

Okun's endorsement was not surprising, because the Nixon program is essentially the same one he helped to prepare for former President Lyndon B. Johnson. It has been adopted by Nixon, but reinformed with an additional $2.4 billion reduction in the federal budget for fiscal 1970.

The union chiefs, including AFL-CIO President George Meany, declined to comment on the newly-pared Nixon budget, which reportedly will cut deeply into some programs favored by labor. They were similarly mum on the Okun's defense of the Nixon policy of "gradual but persistent" restraint.

Under the rules set for the three-day conference at this luxurious resort, the AFL-CIO not only has barred reporters from the meetings but also has refused to provide briefings or prepared statements on the proceedings. Most of the government officials participating have agreed to talk with newsmen.

O'Grady Says Rhodes Will Leave Politics

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — State Democratic chairman Eugene P. O'Grady predicted here Monday that Gov. James A. Rhodes will withdraw from active politics when his current term expires.

O'Grady said Rhodes' control over the Ohio Republican Party has been diminishing, partly because he is barred by law from seeking reelection and partly because he has proposed legislative programs without funds to support them.

O'Grady said Rhodes is aware of his diminishing influence and "financial crisis" and will not seek the GOP nomination for the U.S. Senate in 1970.

Commander Of Apollo 11

Civilian Slated As First Man To Walk On Moon

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — A civilian spaceman may make his mark in history by taking a walk.

The stroll would be on the surface of the moon, and space officials said Monday that Neil Armstrong, commander of Apollo 11, is scheduled to be the first man to make it.

George Low, director of the Apollo spacecraft program office, said Monday it was intended that Armstrong, 38, would be the first man to set foot on the earth's satellite after he and Air Force Col. Edwin E. Aldrin, 39, land he Apollo 11 lunar module there.

If all goes according to plan, Armstrong will explore for two hours and 40 minutes, and will be joined by Aldrin several minutes after he takes the first step.

Low said the space duo would land on the moon and immediately throw the switches that would leave the module ready for an immediate launch should an emergency develop.

Then Armstrong and Aldrin will rest for four hours aboard the little craft. Low said he didn't expect either to get much sleep.

Armstrong will start the moon surface stroll by opening the lunar module hatch and descending a ladder.

One of his first acts, Low said, would be to gather a sample of moon rock, the first of 50 pounds Armstrong and Aldrin will pick up.

With the rocks safely in hand, Armstrong will test the ability of man to perform on the airless moon surface wearing a bulky space suit and handicapped by the satellite's lesser gravity.

Aldrin will join his commander and the two will gather other lunar rocks and set up a moon experiment package which will radiodata back to earth for up to a year.

Near the end of the two-hour-and-40 minute period on the surface, the pair will hurry back to the safety of the lunar module.

Low said the two would be on the Lunar surface a total of 22 hours, but would spend only a fraction of that time outside the module.

During their moon walk, he said, they will get no farther than 50 to 100 feet from their craft.

Apollo 11 is planned for launch from Cape Kennedy July 16. The landing is expected on July 20.

Wilson's Embattled Regime To Press Belt-Tightening

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson's embattled Labor government prepared to give the British people another bitter dose of belt-tightening austerity today.

Higher taxes, a forced savings scheme or a combination of the two were expected in the annual tax budget statement Chancellor of the Exchequer Roy Jenkins was to read in the House of Commons this afternoon. It was certain to lower the government's popularity still more.

Wilson is already faced with a divided cabinet and an irate trade union movement because of his determination to take strong measures to curb the wave of wildcat strikes hurting the export drive. There are demands for Wilson's replacement, and some union leaders are demanding a nationwide, 24-hour strike to protest the proposed curbs.

Informants said Jenkins, by means of his new budget, hoped to drain off 400 million pounds —$960 million—from British pocketbooks in order to reduce buying of foreign goods.

Imports last year sent the nation's foreign payments account plunging to a deficit of nearly $1.5 billion. The deficit averaged $87.2 million—during the first two months this year—more than $1 billion on an annual basis.

The budget today is the second from Jenkins since he became chancellor soon after Britain devalued the pound 17 months ago.

Last year's budget was the toughest in British peacetime history and siphoned off nearly one billion pounds, $2.4 billion, in purchasing power. Yet it failed to inhibit the public's spending.

Heebner said he was pulling into the curb to pick up flowers at a nearby church when he struck the car with his truck. There was minor damage to the right front fender of the truck, which is owned by the Carriage House of 209 E. 5th St.

About 2:56 p.m. an auto driven by Mrs. Phyllis Nelson, 35, of Smiths Ferry RD 1 collided with a car pulling from an alley operated by Marv E. Godwin, 30, of Highland Dr., Calcutta.

Mrs. Nelson told authorities she was driving east on 5th St. and didn't see the Godwin auto. She said her vision was blocked by cars parked in the area.

Students Vote More Strike At Harvard

By The Associated Press

Several thousand Harvard University students have voted to strike classes for three more days while sit-ins continue at three other major college campuses.

At a mass meeting in Harvard Stadium, students twice voted Monday by narrow margins not to continue the strike until the university met all demands including abolition of the ROTC program.

Then on a voice vote the assembly roared its approval of a motion to continue the strike for three days and demand a public reply from the administration on the use of police to oust 200 sit-ins Thursday.

At Columbia University in New York City about 20 black students occupied an office to back demands for a larger role in recruiting more black applications. The university rejected their demands.

At Stanford University in California a student sit-in to protest military research at the Applied Electronics Laboratory ended its sixth day. Administrators said the students refused to identify themselves.

Pennsylvania State University officials established an Office for Student Discussions aimed at resolving student demands. Labor mediator Theodore W. Kheel had recommended the office to facilitate communication.

Wary Eye On Courts, Calendar

Sharply Split House Unit Airs Cigarette Ad Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sharply divided House Commerce Committee opened hearings on the explosive issue of cigarette advertising today with a wary eye on the courts and the calendar.

After reserving the first day of testimony to hear members of Congress, the committee has slated witnesses ranging from the American Cancer Society to the tobacco industry.

The central issue: Should the Federal Communications Commission be allowed to ban cigarette advertising from the airwaves.

The FCC has said it will if a 1965 law prohibiting it from further regulating such advertising expires on schedule June 30.

Even while the two weeks of hearings are in progress a ruling could come down from the Supreme Court on a directly related case involving the government's power to force radio and television stations to use anti-smoking messages.

The court's decision would be a guide to lawmakers on how it applies to the whole area of cigarette advertising the Constitution's broad guaranty against censorship.

In Congress there are basically three approaches being considered: Extend the ban on FCC action, allow it to stiffen existing regulations that require a hazardous warning label on cigarette packages or give the FCC a free hand by allowing the current curbs to expire.

It was the 1965 law requiring a health warning to cigarette-labeling that included the ban on the FCC from imposing changes any more on cigarette advertising for four years.

Some 80 Congressmen from tobacco-growing states have sponsored bills to keep the ban in effect, about a dozen of them members of the Commerce Committee.

Cigarette advertising brings in about $226.9 million annually to broadcasters, estimated to be roughly 10 per cent of their revenue.

The first voluntary action after the FCC announced its intentions in February came last week when The Washington Post announced that its television stations—WTOP in Washington and WJXT in Jacksonville, Fla.—would not accept cigarette advertising after June 1. The ban also will apply to WTOP AM and FM radio.

Cigarette packages now are required to carry this warning: "Caution: Cigarette Smoking May Be Hazardous To Your Health." The tougher wording favored by some Congressmen would read this way: "Warning: Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Health and May Cause Death from Cancer and Other Diseases."

3 On Wylie's Staff Resign In Pay Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three members of Rep. Chalmers Wylie's staff of nine have resigned beause, they say, the Ohio Republican has decided to deny them automatic pay raises employes are scheduled to receive in July.

They said Monday that Wylie advised them he also would reduce their pay in June to offset the four to 10 per cent salary hikes that will be going to other government workers.

Harold Schellenger, Wylie's former administrative assistant, and his wife, a clerk in the office, said they resigned after the congressman "refused our appeals to treat his employes as all other federal employes are treated."

He said Wylie did this after voting for a raise of $12,500 to $42,500 for himself.

Wylie acknowledged that four staff members resigned recently, but said only two of them, Schellenger and his wife, quit because of money.

Wylie said he took the action after learning that his staff members had received a pay increase at the directive of the House speaker without his knowledge.

"I told my employes the speaker wasn't going to dictate the wages of my office," Wylie said.

The congressman said he also opposed the $12,500 wage boost given to all members of Congress.

Schellenger noted that Wylie did not vote against the congressional pay raises and added:

"Wylie continued to say he was against the raises but he did nothing to support any movement to stop it. Some congressmen said they would not take it—turning it back, giving it to scholarship funds—but he made no move to give it up."

Another of the employes who resigned, Teddi Smith, denied quitting because of money. She said she got a job with more responsibility.

The fourth employe, who asked that her name not be used, disputed the congressman's statement that money had nothing to do with her resignation.

"Yes it did," she said. "I resigned because I found a better job and the reason I found it was I went to look after learning I wouldn't get the pay raise."

For 11 months, 1948-49, Allied airmen working around the clock brought more than 2,300,000 tons of food and supplies to blockade West Berlin. Some 275,000 trips were made.

Charlie Jackson pays 75c a day to park.
That's $187.50 a year.
His auto insurance doesn't cost that much!

Charlie's like most of us.

He didn't like it much when the rates went up at his parking lot. But he didn't fuss about it. After all, it still adds up to only a few quarters. That doesn't seem like much when you pay by the day.

And Charlie really doesn't like to pay for auto insurance, either. But he's more conscious of the cost of insurance because he pays for it with one or two checks a year. Actually, it doesn't cost as much as his parking fees.

Parking and insurance are part of the cost of owning a car. But there's one big difference. Charlie uses his parking spot 8 hours a day, about 250 days a year. His car insurance is in effect 24 hours a day, 365 days a year — protecting him and his family and anyone who rides in his car. It also protects anyone else who may suffer loss if Charlie causes an accident.

Like the cost of parking, the cost of car insurance has been going up. But it has not risen as much as the related increase in the number of traffic accidents ... the cost of repairing damaged autos ..., or the cost of medical care for people hurt in accidents. These are what insurance pays for.

People can't do much about inflation. But everyone can help do something about accidents. Like driving defensively and considerately and obeying the rules of the road. The accident that doesn't happen doesn't cost anything. Every driver is helping to determine the cost of insurance whenever he's at the wheel.

Charlie, like the rest of us, sometimes forgets about that.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY GO WHEN YOU OWN A CAR?*

Figured on an operating cost of 11¢ a mile.
2.8¢ — Depreciation (from original cost)
2.1¢ — Maintenance, accessories, parts & tires
1.8¢ — Garages, parking & tolls
1.7¢ — Gas & oil (excluding taxes)
1.4¢ — Auto insurance
1.2¢ — State & Federal taxes.

2 Boys Held For Burglary

LISBON — The Sheriff's office this morning filed delinquency complaints in Juvenile Court against two Lisbon area boys, 15 and 16, in connection with a burglary Monday morning at the vacant home of the late Mable Rowley near Prosperity.

Pete Chestnut of the Old Steubenville Rd. south of Route 517 (Gavers - West Point Rd.), saw two youths break into the house about 10 a.m. yesterday. His wife, Lucille, notified the Sheriff's office and Mrs. Rowley's daughter, Charlene Rice.

Deputies Robert Wellington and Richard Koffel went to the home where Mrs. Rice and Grace Hamilton told them they had talked to the boys just a few minutes before on Route 518 east of Prosperity.

Wellington tracked the boys through an old strip mine and Koffel drove north to cut them off. He left the cruiser later and chased the pair approximately two miles on foot.

Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan and Deputies Robert Beresford and Kent Garvey arrived at noon when the boys were apprehended on Route 164 north of Gavers.

The boys are in the detention room at the County Jail awaiting arraignment, still unscheduled.

St. Clair Water Snarl Holds Up Lisbon Plan

LISBON — The federal government will not consider an application for a planning grant to extend the Lisbon water system while the proposed St. Clair Water System hangs high and dry in litigation.

Columbiana County commissioners received that message Monday from the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Chicago.

The letter made no reference to the commissioners' February application to HUD for $53,150 for design and construction plans for the Salem Northeast Sewer System.

—:—

EDWARD BRUDER, assistant regional administrator for metropolitan development, made the following reply to the commissioners' request for information on the status of the request for the Lisbon grant:

"The review and evaluation of these applications has been suspended pending the outcome of litigation against your other project, WS-Ohio-33 (the St. Clair Water System) which has approved April 20, 1967.

"Of concern to our office is the possibility of similar legal action and the ability of Columbiana County to finance the increased costs of WS-Ohio-33 in addition to the local share of this project."

The county received a $240,000 federal grant two years ago toward the St.Clair project—50,000 feet of mains and two stand pipes to serve portions of Glenmoor, Calcutta and Gaston Pl. The estimated cost at that time was $620,000.

HUD's third extension of the $240,000 grant expires today. The commissioners have received no reply to their request for an extension.

While the St. Clair system opponents have been reversed in Probate Court, Common Pleas Court and the Seventh District Court of Appeals, they have kept the commissioners from proceeding with construction.

Bids were opened one year ago, but HUD would not release the $240,000 until the litigation is settled to its satisfaction. Commissioners grant that the project would have to be re-bid when the way is cleared to proceed.

The latest action against the commissioners is an injunction sought by Robert Bertschy and more than 370 others. It was filed Dec. 30 while another St. Clair group's appeal from a Common Pleas Court ruling was pending in the Appellate Court which subsequently affirmed the Common Pleas Court decision.

Opponents claim some 200 of the residents did not receive written notice of the proposed improvement and tentative assessment as required by law and that the $3-per-front-foot assessment is confiscatory. They have their own water wells and do not want city water, they say.

—:—

A CONTRACT for two probate binders and one adoption record for Probate Court went to William Lilienthal & Sons of Cambridge on a low bid of $184. National Graphics, formerly the Columbus Blank Book Co. and the Heer Printing Co., bid $355.

Mrs. Ruth Kauffman, president of the County Board of Mental Retardation; Mrs. Edith Martsolf, supervisor of the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children, and Donald Hepp, County Walfare Director and a member of the mental retardation board, met with the commissioners and Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect regarding details to be completed at the new school on Route 172, west of here.

The dedication and open house is scheduled May 4. Beatty studied the board's list of work to be completed and said he would ask the various contractors to meet the demands.

The Board of Mental Retardation complained about a $1,200 bill for electric heat at the school in January and said there had been over a month's delay before anything was done to try and correct the situation. Beatty said he would get $350 from the contractors to reimburse the board for the amount over what the bill should have been with the heating system in working order.

Charges Planned

WELLSBURG — Charges were to be filed today in connection with an unsuccessful jail break attempt by six prisoners in the Brooke County Jail over the weekend.

The plan to escape Saturday night was apparently launched Thursday, Deputy Joseph Campagna said, when the six took a cord from a mattress cover and lowered it with a coat hanger to the ground from a window.

A 13-year-old brother of one of the prisoners waiting outside attached a hack-saw blade to it. The prisoners then began sawing the bars on the windows.

Robertson Best Actor Winner

Streisand, Hepburn Tie For Best Actress Oscars

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The second tie in the 41-year history of the Academy Awards gives Oscars to both Barbra Streisand of "Funny Girl" and Katharine Hepburn of "The Lion in Winter"—and makes Miss Hepburn the first three-time winner.

Cliff Robertson in the role of the mentally retarded man whom doctors turn temporarily into a genius in "Charly" was named best actor of 1968 at Monday night's presentations.

"Oliver!," a musical spectacle based on Charles Dickens'—'Oliver Twist," was voted the year's best picture. It won in five categories, including best-director laurels for Sir Carol Reed with this, his first musical.

For supporting performances, the honors went to Jack Albertson as the blustering father in "The Subject Was Roses" and Ruth Gordon as the meddling neighbor and part-time witch in "Rosemary's Baby."

Races in all the top categories were close, but the selection of "Oliver!" as best picture over "The Lion in Winter" was a surprise to some observers. "The academy voters apparently wanted entertainment this year," one veteran Oscar-watcher commented.

Ingrid Bergman, presenting the best-actress Oscar, looked stunned and unbelieving as she opened the envelope containing the winners' names and exclaimed: "It's a tie!"

A tie happened only once before, in 1932, when best-actor awards went to both Fredric March for "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and Wallace Beery for "The Champ."

Miss Hepburn, 59, this year became the record holder for Oscar nomination with 11. Her previous awards as best actress were for work in "Morning Glory," 1933, and "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," last year. She is the first triple winner in the lead actor catageory, either male or female. Miss Hepburn also is the second star to win twice in succession. Luise Rainer accomplished this in the 1930s.

Walter Brennan, has won three Oscars but they were for supporting roles.

Miss Hepburn, who won as the queenly Eleanor of Aquitaine in "The Lion in Winter," didn't attend the ceremonies—just as she didn't the other two times she won. She was reported to be in New York.

Robertson, on location in the Philippines, was another absentee.

Miss Streisand, the Brooklyn girl who won with a rollicking portrayal of Fanny Brice in "Funny Girl," her first movie, said from the podium: "I'm very honored to be in such magnificent company as Katharine Hepburn. The first script of "Funny Girl" was written when I was 11 years old. Thank God it took so long to get it right.

"It's like when somebody asked if I'm happy. I said, 'Are you kidding? If I was happy I'd be miserable.' I'd like to thank all the members of the academy for making me miserable."

Asked about her comments backstage, she said: "Maybe some people are basically happy when they're miserable."

She said the award was "really unexpected. I never gave it much thought. I enjoy the work, and to get the award for it is just whipped cream on the cake."

There was no explanation of the tie balloting among the 3,030 voting members of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Vote totals are never announced.

For best song the Oscar went to the intricate melody, "The Windmills of Your Mind," sung by Noel Harrison in "The Thomas Crown Affair." The French composer, Michel Legrand, was in Paris, working on another film score. The husband-wife lyricists, Marilyn and Alan Bergman, accepted their Oscars.

The Soviet Union's 6½-hour spectacular, "War and Peace," collected the award for best foreign language film. It was presented to the picture's beautiful, dark-haired star, Ludmilla Savalyeva.

Writing winners were James Goldman for adaptation of his play, "The Lion in Winter" and comedian-scenarist Mel Brooks for his original screenplay of "The Producers."

The award to the gray-haired, balding Albertson capped a long career ranging from burlesque comedy to vaudeville, theater and supporting movie roles.

"My eternal gratitude will always be reserved for the man who made this moment possible, Frank Gilroy, who wrote 'The Subject Was Roses,'" Albertson said. There were tears in his eyes as he addressed the crowd of 3,000 in the Music Center Pavilion and a nationwide television audience.

Backstage, Albertson remarked that he won Broadway's Tony award in the play and that author Gilroy "insisted I do both the play and the movie."

The 72-year-old Miss Gordon drew loud laughter by admitting she made her film debut in 1915 and: "I can't tell you how encouraging a thing like this is."

To newsmen backstage she confided, "My husband said if I didn't win this time he wasn't going to bring me again."

She was nominated as a supporting actress in "Inside Daisy Clover," a 1965 film. She is also a writer like her husband, Garson Kanin, and with him was nominated for screenplays of "A Double Life" in 1947, "Adam's Rib," 1950, and "Pat and Mike," 1952.

Bob Hope, who has been master of ceremonies of 14 Oscar presentations, was replaced this year by 10 alternating actors and actresses serving as hosts, hostesses and award presenters. But Hope made an appearance, giving Martha Raye the Jean Hersholt award "for great humanitarian service."

Jury Starts Deliberating Sirhan's Fate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The fate of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan rests with a jury that must weigh this question: how ill was he, mentally, when he killed Robert F. Kennedy?

The bantamweight, 25-year-old Jordanian Arab who put a gun to the head of the New York's senator last June 5 watched stolidly as the jury of seven men and five women filed from the courtroom Monday to fix the degree of his crime.

Instructed by Judge Herbert V. Walker to be "uninfluenced by pity for the defendant or by passion or by prejudice against him," the jury can return any of four possible verdicts:

—First degree murder — asked by the state—with the penalty of life in prison or death. The penalty would be determined by the jury in a separate session.

—Second degree murder—asked by the defense—with the term of five years to life in prison.

—Manslaughter, one to 10 years.

—Acquittal.

The defense contended that Sirhan's mind was so blurred that the crime didn't meet the legal definition of first degree murder. But it dit not ask for the other possible verdicts of manslaughter or outright acquittal.

Prosecutor Lynn D. Compton, in his final argument, had this to say about the testimony of mental experts in the case:

"The psychiatrists say if you hate a man a little bit and kill him, you are responsible and mature; but if you hate him a lot and kill him, you are not responsible and not mature."

Compton wound up with a plea to the jury not to "put a premium on hate" by returning a verdict of less than first degree.

Not a single vessel was sunk by gunfire in the Battle of Trafalgar. The firing of explosive shells aboard ships was then considered too dangerous to the user.

If you have the shank end of a leg of lamb boned and split you can broil the meat. Place fat side up on the broiler rack about five inches from the heat source and broil about 20 minutes; brush with a marinade and turn and broil 15 minutes. Then turn the broiler setting low, or move the broiler rack low, and broil another half hour or until meat is tender, basting with the marinade.

LISBON — Judge Louis Tobin of Juvenile Court Monday continued until April 22 a hearing on a morals charge against an East Liverpool policeman.

Lawrence W. Smith of East Liverpool, counsel for Arthur L. Peters, requested the postponement. The case had been scheduled for today.

Peters is accused of taking indecent liberties with a 15-year-old girl March 6 at her home. The officer was suspended March 26 after the affidavit was filed.

He pleaded not guilty March 27 before Judge Tobin, and was released on $1,000 property bond.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I remove candlewax dripping from a tabletop after they have hardened?

A.—First scrape as much of the wax off as possible with a wooden paddle, then remove remaining residue by rubbing lightly with a cheesecloth moistened with cleaning fluid. Do this quickly, and follow up with a dry cloth.

Republican Help Sought For Nixon Safegard Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration has moved to shore up Republican congressional strength behind President Nixon's Safeguard defense program even as a top GOP official says the antimissile system should not be a political issue.

A White House conference was called today for Republican leaders to produce a party strategy for getting approval of the embattled Safeguard system, which has been under strong attack in the Senate by members of both parties.

Sen. John G. Tower of Texas, one of those attending the White House session, said in an interview, "I think all of the party resources will be mustered on this issue. There will be a campaign for popular support of the President's decision and an effort to line up congressional backing for it."

Maryland Rep. Rogers C. B. Morton, new Republican national chairman, said Monday the national committee will assemble background information and prepare speeches in support of Safeguard.

But, he said, he hoped the system can be eliminated as a political issue.

How could it escape becoming political if the Republican National Committee supplied supporters with ammunition? he was asked.

"We are going to furnish nonpolitical background and use it for political purposes," he replied with a grin.

Morton also indicated that if the missile system becomes the subject of a partisan fight it would be mostly the fault of the Democrats.

Mike Mansfield, Senate Democratic Leader, admitted Monday some of his party members want to turn the Safeguard dispute into a partisan struggle. But, he said, most of the critics, Republican and Democratic, are opposing Safeguard for national security reasons.

One GOP Safeguard opponent, Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, also urged that the fight should not become a political dispute. Safeguard "should be removed from the arena of partisan politics as far as is possible," he said.

Mansfield said he had received "disturbing reports of outside efforts to synthesize a political partisanship where, in fact, none has existed and where none should exist."

EAST PALESTINE — H. S. Laber, East Palestine School Superintendent for seven years, announced his resignation at a meeting of the board of education Monday night.

For three years, he was both principal and assistant superintendent.

He is a native of East Palestine, a 1922 graduate of the high school and 1926 graduate of Mount Union College where he was a star football and basketball player. His first teaching assignment was teaching and coaching at Belle Valley in Noble County. He is married.

U.S. Files Suit To Block LTV As J&L Owner

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government brought suit Monday to force Ling-Temco-Vought Inc. to give up its ownership of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

The civil antitrust suit had been awaited since the Justice Department announced last month it would try to prevent the huge conglomerate's takeover of one of the country's largest steel companies.

Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said the complaint was filed in U.S. District Court in Pittsburgh, where J&L is headquartered, and also asked for a preliminary injunction implementing an earlier agreement with LTV.

Under the agreement, LTV would not acquire more than 81 per cent of J&L stock and would keep the steel company's business and financial operations as a completely separate entity pending outcome of the government suit.

The suit was brought under the Celler-Kefauver Amendment to the Clayton Antitrust Act, a pilot move that could be a test of wheher the governmen can successfully prosecute conglomerates — giant corporations that control a number of apparently unrelated companies — through existing legislation.

Six More Ohioans Victims In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six more Ohioans are casualties of the Vietnam war, the Defense Department reported Monday.

Killed in action were Army Pfcs. Jeffery S. Dyer, Columbus; John L. Morgan Jr., Zanesville; Thomas J. Vasil of Parma and Marine 1st Lt. Laurie Barnes, McArthur.

Army Sgt. Thomas E. Hoover, Dayton, and Army Spec. 4 John T. Montgomery, Newton Falls, were changed from the list of missing to dead.

Proposed New Elementary School Standards Approved

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Board of Education served notice Monday that it intends to rescind minimum elementary school standards that have existed since 1957.

The board approved a resolution which tentatively approved proposed new standards recommended by a 20-member advisory committee and set a June 9 public hearing on the proposals.

There were indications at Monday's meeting that some dissension may be forthcoming over one section of the new standards which proposes a 30-to-1 pupil-teacher ratio.

Some board members said they were not happy with the standard which would set what they call a low ratio, although the state now has no student-teacher ratio requirement.

One board member said he would like to see the state's education effort raised to 25-or 22-1. He said several board members agree.

Virginia Lloyd, chief of the state education department's elementary section, told the board that the new standards would provide for the first time a good system of inspection of elementary schools.

The proposal would require inspection of each school in all chartered school districts to insure that minimum standards are met before a school could be accredited or receive state financial aid.

Miss Lloyd described as a highlight of the proposals a new standard which would initiate restrictions and requirements for private school chartering.

She said the new standard would make no difference in the number of private schools established, but that it would permit their regulation.

In other action, the board:

—Approved setting up a joint vocational school to be operated by 11 school districts at Grand Lake St. Marys and to serve Mercer and Auglaize counties.

—Approved transfer of the Forest Hills section from the Lakewood City School District to the Heath District in Licking County. The shift had been challenged by resident of the Forest Hills section.

In force since it was established by Julius Caesar in 45 B.C., the Julian calendar gave way to the Gregorian calendar in 1582. The decree was made by Pope Gregory XIII. It was not adopted in Protestant England until 1752.

In 1867 William (Candy) Cummings introduced the curve ball in baseball.

Can you imagine holding your hand like this for 10 years?
It's the Ohio Bell symbolic low sign. The extended arm that says we try to keep costs down. And since 1959, we've managed to do just that. Local telephone rates haven't gone up one cent in those ten long years. And long distance rates have actually been reduced several times.
Now, how does it feel holding a hand like this for all that time? Pushing down against the upward trend of rising prices?
We really feel the strain. Like when we spend millions for improvement and expansion of phone service year in and year out. And pay more and more for things we buy. All without raising rates. Sure, we keep watching those pennies even closer, sharpen up our business know-how and rely on the very latest equipment. And push down harder.
But, it hasn't been easy. And it's getting tougher all the time.

ANN LANDERS

Ann Keeps Faith In Youth

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a middle-aged square who would like your opinion on the current campus upheavals.

What's behind this so-called alienation of youth? Have we botched things so badly that everything ought to be junked — including our university system?

I'm horrified by what I read in the newspapers and see on TV. Is there any justification for these campus revolutions? Do college students have the right to virtually close down our institutions of higher learning?

I've always been a champion of youth, but my faith has been shaken. Please, Ann Landers, express yourself. You've been noticeably silent on a subject of enormous social significance. — BEWILDERED.

Dear Bewildered: Welcome to the club. I, too, always have had great faith in our youth. And I still have. They are brighter than we were, more assertive, more articulate, and they possess a far deeper commitment to social justice.

The vast majority of campus kids are decent, law-abiding citizens who want an education. And this is what makes the campus rioting reprehensible. The hell-raisers — those who have been destroying property and obstructing justice — are clearly in the minority on every campus where there has been trouble.

In a free society, citizens have the right to dissent, to express opposition to practices they cconsider unjust. But wanton destruction of property, rifling of files, threatening college presidents and faculty members is not valid protest. It is lawlessness and must not be tolerated.

I believe students who break the law should be treated as lawbreakers. There must be no shilly-shallying, no dilly-dallying, no deals, no amnesty granted.

When we bow to the demands of the nihilists and reward criminal tactics, we encourage others to follow their lead. When we knuckle under to rioters who spit in the face of authority we are being unfair to students who want to learn, to taxpayers and alumni who support these schools, and to the embattled faculty members and administrators who wind up at the mercy of roughnecks.

Unless we take a firm stand against these anarchists, many of whom are not even students but professional troublemakers, we will see an end to the university and the birth of fascism.

Confidentially

To Bitter Herbs and Ashes in the Month: It has been said that a man, like a tree, is best measured after he has been cut down. Please reserve judgment. Time will soften your views and diminish your anger. Remember that hate, like acid, does more damage to the vessel in which it is stored than to the object on which it is poured.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problem.s. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Cash Described Only Major Way To Fight Hunger

WASHINGTON (AP) — Only a total attack, with cash as the major weapon, can solve America's problems of hunger and poverty, the head of a presidential commission has told Congress.

Industrialist Ben Heineman, chairman of the President's Commission on Income Maintenance Programs, reported to the special Senate hunger committee Monday on the eve of its all-day tour of poor areas in the capital.

"Even assuming all food programs worked well enough to provide adequate diets—and I personally do not believe they could be changed to do so—severe needs would still remain," Heineman said. "The main problem facing poor people is not a failure of food programs but lack of money."

He said the food stamp program, with the commodity distribution program the core of the government's food assistance plans, is failing. He cited cost and lack of knowledge as two of the reasons.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Old Tire Eases 'Bumps'

DEAR HELOISE: If you've ever had a see-saw for your children you know how hard they hit the ground sometimes . . . and the tears that follow.

Heloise

My husband solved this problem with an old tire. He cut it in half and put one piece under each end of the see-saw! This sure saves many a jarring bump.

Don't you think that was a good idea?

JOLLY ROSENTHAL.

I love you no END, and I guess that a thousand other children will love you for the same reason.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a husband who loves to WORK and he goes like a house afire. Naturally he just can't understand why I am such a lazybones.

He can see a cobweb a mile away and he goes around poking into corners and running his fingers along the tops of doors. (He always gets them dirty too!)

Anyway, I've found a surefire way to impress him and just had to tell you about it.

I just rearrange the furniture and he forgets to comment on the dust behind the refrigerator and the cookie crumbs under the table.

KANDY.

DEAR HELOISE: It's always a problem to store patterns and still be able to find them again.

I finally came up with the idea of storing them in the paper dust jackets that hi-fi records come in.

We always seem to have so many of them on hand and no use for them. So I got three large loose-leaf rings, punched holes in the envelopes and put patterns in each folder. Then I numbered each folder and made an index page to be put at the front.

I also make covers for my book of patterns by lining two pieces of heavy cardboard with adhesive-backed paper.

Now when I run out of room, I just add more folders.

MRS. T.E.W.

DEAR FOLKS: If you are making one of those chocolate puddin' pies (from a box, natch) and using that boxed "whipping cream" topping, just try adding some instant powdered coffee.

It's a lulu.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Book plates are expensive, but glue-backed return address labels are not. I put these labels in my books and they always find their way home.

JEAN WALTERS.

DEAR HELOISE: I make thin washcloths last much longer by cutting animal figures from linen or other suitable material and sewing them over the thin place with the zig-zag stitch on my sewing machine.

This makes very special washcloths for the kiddies and it gives me twice as much wear out of the cloths.

MRS. J. BROWN.

DEAR HELOISE: I have found a terrific way to decorate certain walls and ceilings, even the space over the sink with the bottom part of molded egg cartons.

They can be stapled together and covered with spray paint. Two coats should do it.

You'll get lots of compliments because it gives a very modern three-dimensional look to the wall.

A READER.

I know one man who saved enough cartons to cover his entire den ceiling! He sprayed them in his garage, then took a heavy stapler and just stapled 'em up. (Besides looking great, it also acts as a sound-proofer!)

HELOISE.

"We have a heat pump, and one of the advantages is that the same piece of equipment is used to both heat and cool the house, so the cost includes air conditioning."

Hayden Hannabass*

"I have a heat pump, and it costs me considerably less money because it's about twice as efficient. The ducts were already in existence, therefore, all they had to do was set the unit inside and the other one outside, and insulate. There's no reason at all why you can't install electric heat in any older home."

Raymond Dervin*

"We have a heat pump, and it's very economical! There's very little repair and if it's insulated and built properly it will compete or beat any other type of heat on the market. There's a definite guarantee on them and it's definitely no more expensive to operate. We've had it for 8 years and we're well pleased with it."

Potter Trackmen Place Second In Triangular At Chaney

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Three Beaver County schools, Rochester, Midland and Beaver Falls, have protested the recent basketball realignment made by the WPIAL.

The WPIAL, breaking with tradition, split up powerful Section 3, which had been untouched in recent realignments, shifting Alliquippa and Ambridge to Section 6 and moving Seneca Valley from Section 6 to Section 3. Geographically, the move makes sense. The shift was brought on by a request from Aliquippa, claiming that travel distance from Aliquippa to Farrell and Sharon was too long. It also might be noted that the latter two teams have been the chief obstacles to Aliquippa's finishing first in the Section the past few seasons.

THE PROTESTS are not unxepected, but it's doubtful that they will bring any results. Both leagues are Class A. Section 3 is (or was) the strongest league in the state. From 1949-61, the seven team league (Butler was added later) sent nine teams to the state finals, including six champions. In every case the team was Farrell, Sharon or Aliquippa. Farrell and Ambridge team added state titles in 1969 and 1967. Section winners, with the exception of the 1965 Midland team, have been eliminated early in the WPIAL playoffs.

Midland, Rochester and Monaca of Section 6 are Class B schools in enrollment, choosing to play in a Class A league. Their protests contend that advance notice of the realignment should have been given, giving the schools a chance to choose Class B play. Whether to go Class B or not will provoke many arguments in Midland. The 1969-70 Leopards, playing in class B, could conceivably win the state title, but this is an empty honor compared to the triumphs of 1965. In Class A, Midland could still win Section 6, even with the new entries, but their domination of the loop, evidenced by nine titles the past 13 seasons, would not continue.

BEAVER FALLS is protesting the realignment because it would be deprived of any Beaver County Section 3 foes. Seneca Valley, thrown into the lions den, is naturally upset, but it has Class A enrollment and cannot change its status.

While not approving of the WPIAL's tradition-breaking move, I feel that Midland has the talent to continue Class A competition. The Leopards aren't afraid of Aliquippa, they had scheduled them for a pre-season game. Many people in Pennsylvania have heard of Midland only because it was the 1965 Class A champion. A switch to Class B cold lead to oblivion.

Beaver Local 9 Blanks Southern

Beaver Local opened Buckeye Border Conference baseball play yesterday with an 8-0 win over Southern Local at Beaver Local.

Sophomore Bob Robinson picked up his first win, though Ralph Wolford pitched the last inning as Robinson tired. Southern was held to four hits and only two runners got as far as second base. The Beavers pulled off two double-plays, both of the line drive variety.

Beaver Local slammed eight hits, including four doubles, and stole eight bases, including home twice, in handing George Thompson the loss. The game was the first of the season for Al Girone's Indians, while Nevitt Stockdale's club is 3-1-1.

Scott Dubberly and Lew Brown had two hits each for the Beavers, while Dean Horger had two walks, a hit and three stolen bases. Terry Kellison had two hits for Southern.

The Beavers started off in the first inning when Dubberly singled and Mike Smith doubled him home. Smith took third on a passed ball and Gary Klembara was hit by a pitch. The pair worked the double steal, with Smith scoring. Klembara took third on another passed ball and scored when the throw got away from the third baseman.

In the second the Beavers scored twice without a hit. Horger walked and stole second and third. Dubberly walked and the double steal was tried again. Thompson threw the ball into center field, letting Horger score and Dubberly advance to third. The reheaded outfielder then stole home.

In the third Klembara doubled, Lew Brown singled and Rick Sheppard plated Klembara with a sacrifice fly. In the fifth Brown singled, took second on a wild pitch and scored on Sheppard's double. Horger scored the final run in the sixth when he walked, took second on a grounder, stole third and scored on the overthrow.

Namath Arrested, Denies Drunkenness

MIAMI (AP) — Super Bowl hero Joe Namath admits he "cussed the cop out" after his arrest on a drunken driving charge, but contends he hadn't had a drink in two hours and only had three or four to begin with.

"Sure I cussed the cop out and I was wrong to do it," the New York Jets' quarterback declared after the incident early Monday.

"But I was sober," he said in an interview at the exclusive Palm Bay Club, his residence when in Miami.

"I had two here at the Palm Bay Club and either one or two at the Harbor Lounge before we left there about 2 a.m."

About 4:05 a.m., Namath's rented 1969 Cadillac was pulled over on the 79th Street Causeway, a swinging nightclub strip, by officer Ray De Santis of the North Bay Village Police Department.

De Santis said Namath was speeding at 70 miles per hour. He charged the football star with drunken driving, careless driving and driving without a valid license.

"I got mad when he refused to allow me the courtesy of going back to the Palm Bay Club to get my driver's license. In Pennsylvania they give a person 48 hours to do that. I could have done it in 10 minutes," he said.

Namath's residence is on the mainland end of the causeway to Miami. Halfway between is Broadway Joe's Restaurant, a quick service eatery owned by Namath.

De Santis reported when he stopped the car, Namath said "You know me. You know who I am."

Namath's attorney, Laurence Schroeder, said he "had a few words" with the officer.

In the car with him were Lenny Perna, a nightclub entertainer; Mike Bite, an attorney; and a "young lady" who was Bite's date, Namath said.

Namath was taken to Dade County Jail at 6 a.m. where he volunteered for a Breathalyzer test. The device showed an alcoholic blood content of .02 per cent, one-fifth the legal level for intoxication.

He was released on order of Metropolitan Judge Louie Bandel without posting bond about 7 a.m. in the custody of his attorney. Bandel said he did not know when Namath's case would come to trial.

Fish's Javelin Throw Of 256-1 Sets Ohio Mark

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Bobcat strongman Don Fish hurled the javelin 256 feet, 1 inch in the Ohio Relays Saturday to set an all-time Ohio record.

The feat was one highlight of the 10th annual relays, which also saw sprinter Orin Richburg of Kent State and distance runner Sid Sink of Bowling Green each win two events.

Fish's toss cracked his own relays record of 225-11 set a year ago. The 6 - foot-3, 185-pound senior from Manchester, Conn., also eclipsed the all-time Ohio mark of 231-7 set by Larry Bell of Miami (Ohio) in 1938.

Richburg, two - time Mid-American Conference cash king, won the 100-yard in 9.8 and sped the 220 in 21.8. The swift senior also helped the Kent runners cop the sprint medley relay with a 47.6 locking on the 440 leg.

Sink ran the mile Saturday in 4:12.7 after settling a relays' record Friday in the six-mile with a 28:50.5 effort.

A total of six records were broken and four individuals successfully defended their 1968 titles. Other records fell in the 880-yard run, three-mile run, 440 hurdles and hammer throw.

Some 600 athletes from 23 schools competed in the spring meet, which signaled the start of the outdoor collegiate track season.

Ohio U. Led the 27-event program with six victories, followed by Ohio State with five and Kent State, four. No team totals were kept.

Cubs Knock Bucs From 1st; Expos Win Home Opener

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dan McGinn and the Montreal Expos were upset winners as major league baseball came to Canada for the first time ever. Back in the United States Richie Allen came up with a surprise, too.

The Expos won a wild home opener 8-7 Monday over St. Louis before a standing room crowd of 29,184 on Coco Laboy's double and run-scoring single by winning pitcher McGinn in the seventh inning.

And in Philadelphia, Allen crashed a 500-foot two-run homer that helped the Phils to a 5-1 victory over the New York Mets. The tape-measure blast of Allen's comes as no surprise though, but what he did after it certainly rates a double-take.

Allen, trotting to his first base position after the third-inning clout, tipped his hat to the applauding home opener crowd of 13,070. It was the first time in years he had acknowledged the cheers of the fans who have booed him in the past.

In other National League games, Chicago swept to its sixth victory in seven games, stopping Pittsburgh 4-0 and Houston bombed Los Angeles 11-5. The San Francisco at Cincinnati game was rained out in the only other scheduled game.

McGinn, a fireballing lefthander, earned his first major league victory with 5 1-3 scoreless innings of relief, allowing only three hits.

McGinn, drafted by the Expos from the Cincinnati Reds, said he was getting even with the Cardinals. "They beat me in my first major league game last year in 11 innings."

The Expos had blown a 6-0 lead as Mack Jones drove in five runs with a three-run homer and two-run triple in the first two innings but the Cards came back with a seven-run fourth inning.

The Expos contributed five errors and Dal Maxvill sliced a grand slam homer to right field in the inning.

Deron Johnson's second-inning homer had given the Phils a 1-1 tie before Allen cracked a Jim McAndrew pitch over a 10-foot high sign atop the left field roof for his first home run of the year.

Woody Fryman got the victory as he scattered four hits as the Mets lost their fourth straight.

After the game Allen was asked why he tipped his hat: "If I told you why, they'd shoot me in the morning," Allen said.

"I'm not looking to change my image around here," he said. I don't care a thing about the crowd."

Allen hasn't changed his attitude against the Mets, either. It was his 26th home run against them and he has a .330 lifetime average against New York pitching.

"I'm a mistake hitter and the Met pitcher must make a lot of mistakes," Allen said.

Doug Rader and John Edwards knocked in two runs apiece in a seven-run third inning in the Astros' victory. Houston right-hander Larry Dierker blanked the Dodgers on two hits until the eighth when Wes Parker crashed a two-run homer.

Ken Holtzman stopped the Pirates on seven hits and the victory moved the Cubs into first place in the East Division.

The Cubs shelled Pirates' starter Bob Veale for two runs in each of the first two innings as Billy Williams doubled in one run and Randy Hundley singled in another in the opening inning. Don Kessinger and Glenn Beckert knocked in the Cubs' second-inning runs.

Kansas City Wins, Widens West Lead

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pete Ward and the Kansas City Royals have pocketed a pair of prized keepsakes—reluctantly gift-wrapped by Hoyt Wilhelm and John Kennedy.

Ward's two-run double off knuckleballer Wilhelm climaxed a four-run eighth inning rally that swept the Chicago White Sox past the California Angels 4-3 Monday night.

Kansas City capitalized on two errors by Seattle shortstop Kennedy and nipped the Pilots 2-1 in the season's first meeting of American League expansion teams.

"It's so difficult to hit Wilhelm, I'm gonna clip out the box score and frame it," Ward said after bringing the White Sox from behind against the 45-year-old relief specialist, who pitched for Chicago last season.

Kennedy would like to forget his first 1969 start. The Seattle glove man misplayed a sixth-inning grounder before Joe Foy's checked-swing single tied the game 1-1, and booted Jerry Adair's smash in the eighth as Foy raced home from second with the winning run.

In the only other game on the AL schedule, Boston topped Baltimore 5-3, Tony Conigliaro delivering the deciding run with an infield single in his first Fenway Park appearance since he suffered a serious eye injury two years ago.

The White Sox went into the eighth trailing 3-0, with just one hit off Jim McGlothlin. But successive singles by Gail Hopkins, Buddy Bradford and pinch hitter Walt Williams produced one run and chased the Angels starter.

Wilhelm came on and fanned Duane Josephson, but Carlos May doubled home another run and Ward stroked his go-ahead double one out later.

Dick Stuart homered for the Angels off winner Tommy John.

Foy poked four hits for the Royals, who remained atop the league's West Division, reliever Dave Wickersham rescued winning pitcher Roger Nelson from a bases-loaded jam in the ninth.

Tommy Harper doubled off Nelson in the first and moved around to score on two ground outs, but the Kansas City right-hander allowed only five more hits before filling the bases on three walks in the ninth. Wickersham came out of the bullpen and retired Mike Hegan on a foul pop for the last out.

Conigliaro, who sat out the 1968 season after being hit in the eye by a Jack Hamilton pitch on Aug. 18, 1967, broke a 3-3 tie in the fourth by beating out a bases-loaded roller down the third base line.

The Red Sox banged out 14 hits on the way to their fifth victory in six games. Winner Ray Culp allowed five hits, including Elrod Hendricks' three-run homer, before giving way to reliever Sparky Lyle in the eighth.

W. Beaver Nine Nips Northwestern

Western Beaver rallied for two runs in the last of the sixth to edge Northwestern 4-3 on the Golden Beavers' field yesterday.

The win evened Western's mark at 2-2, while Northwestern is 1-3.

Mike Hornick's club made good use of the bunt in the winning rally. Eli Rakas started the inning with a pinch - hit single. Ron Misorski and John Petchel bunted safely. Don Traylor forced Rakas at home, but Misorski scored on a passed ball. Dave McCreery then bunted to score Petchel with the winning run.

Traylor was the winning pitcher, going the route. He also slammed a triple.

Pacers, Chaps Stave Off Elimination

By The Associated Press

Indiana and Dallas, with barely enough time to take a deep breath after avoiding elimination from the American Basketball Association semifinal playoffs, start panting again tonight when they face another do-or-die situation.

Indiana kept alive in its Eastern Division semi by crushing Kentucky in the final period for a 116-97 victory Monday night in Indianapolis that cut the Colonels lead to 3-2in the best-of-7 series.

Dallas also pulled within 3-2 of New Orleans in its Western Division semi by pulling away early to a 123-112 triumph at New Orleans.

The scenes for the sixth games now shift to Louisville and New Orleans tonight, while Minnesota also tries to avoid elimination in its sixth game against Miami in another East semi at Minnesota. Miami leads that one 3-2.

Indana led only 80-78 after three periods, but Kentucky went more than 10 minutes without a field goal in the final quarter to hand over the decision as Bob Netolicky scored 35 points and Roger Brown 34 for the Pacers.

Dallas led by Cincy Powell's 31 points,went ahead late in the first quarter and moved to a 68-53 bulge at halftime that increased to 20 points as the Chaparrels breezed home in the final half.

Jimmy Jones of New Orleans led all scorers with 37 points in the game that was marked by technical fouls, arguments and irate fans throwing objects on the court in protest.

New York Wins, Trails Boston 3-2

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — With their backs against the wall, the New York Knicks have resorted to thievery to make sure their no tomorrow wasn't today in the National Basketball Association playoffs.

Stealing time by swiping the ball, the Knicks fought off elimination in their Eastern Division final series against Boston by beating the Celtics 112-104 Monday night to cut their deficit to 3-2 in the best-of-7 series.

"But we still have to get that game back we lost here," said Dick Barnett, thinking ahead to the Knicks' next all-or-nothing test in Friday's sixth game in Boston while looking back to their series opening loss in New York which cost them the home-court advantage.

Boston still needs only one victory to eliminate the Knicks and advance to the NBA final against the Western Division winner—Los Angeles or Atlanta.

The Lakers take their 2-0 lead into the third game of that best-of-7 set, which continues tonight in Atlanta.

Despite the figures which show only an eight-point victory and Boston outshooting the Knicks from the field, 52.5 per cent to 44.3, New York rebounded from a one-point loss Sunday in Boston for an easy victory Monday.

The Knicks forced Boston to give up the ball 17 times in the first half—when New York surged into a 60-46 advantage—and 25 for the game.

"You can't pinpoint one man," said Sam Jones of the Celics. "They all played well. They had a job to do and they did it. They knew if they didn't win there would be no tomorrow."

Player-Coach Bill Russell of the Celtics, who had only six rebounds and six points when the Knicks took control in the first half, also gave New York credit.

"We took only 80 shots and threw the ball away 25 times," he said. "Sloppy, but New York's defense contributed to it."

"I don't remember getting many free shots," agreed John Havlicek, whose 29 points led Boston.

"When you get 17 more shots than a team, you should beat them," said Willis Reed, who led the Knicks' balanced offense with 24 points.

Leading the thieves, as usual, was quick-handed Walt Frazier, who also scored 23 points and led the Knicks with 12 rebounds and nine assists.

"Aggressive defense," he called it. "We knew we had to go out and win and we knew we had to do it with defense."

The Knicks opened a 54-36 lead and then increased it to 81-57 before the Celtics came on in the final minutes to make the score respectable.

Burgettstown Outlasts South Side

Burgettstown scored four times in the seventh inning to pull out a 13-10 decision over South Side on the losers' diamond Monday.

The Rams, in losing their fourth straight game, were hurt by 11 errors. Nicksick had five hits for the winners and Haluka a triple and single.

Doug Williamson had three hits for the losers, while Larry Anderson and Larry Cox had two hits each. Larry Lockhart had a double. Sam Laughlin went the distance for the loss.

ABA Draft Slated Today

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — The American Basketball Association holds its player draft today to honor a new member, the Carolina Cougars, formerly the Houston Mavericks.

Officially, all 15 rounds will be held today, but there has been specuaation the first two rounds were held secretly several weeks ago.

The league has not announced results of any previous draft, but the Miami Floridians have signed their first choice, Larry Cannon of LaSalle.

Results of the first five rounds are to be announced at midday and there is to be another announcement in the evening.

The picks are to be made in reverse order of the regular season standings.

The New York Nets, Eastern Division tailenders, have announced that their first choice is three-time All-American Lew Alcindor of UCLA, but he already has signed with Milwaukee in the National Basketball Association.

The Carolina Cougars, who as the Houston Mavericks finished last in the Western Division, will get the second pick.

They lost a coin toss with the Nets as to who should pick first. The Cougars have announced their first choice will be Neal Walk of Florida.

Mel Daniels Heads ABA All-Stars

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Indiana center Mel Daniels missed by just two ballots of becoming a unanimous selection on the American Basketball Association All-Star team announced today.

Daniels received 965 points out of a possible 1,000 in the voting by a panel of sports writers and broadcasters covering the league. Joining Daniels on the first team were guards Larry Jones of Denver and James Jones of New Orleans, and forwards Rick Barry of Oakland and Connie Hawkins of Minnesota.

The Jones boys, first in ABA history to score more than 2,000 points in a single season, received an identical number of points—895.8.

Barry received 876.7 and Hawkins 873.3.

Daniels, 6-foot-9 star at New Mexico two years ago, and the league Rookie of the Year in 1967-68, was named the league's outstanding player.

Named to the second team were Miami's Don Freeman, Louis Dampier of Kentucky, John Beasley of Dallas, Doug Moe of Oakland and Austin Robbins of New Orleans.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of J. T. Watkin, Jr. who passed away, April 14th, 1967: Sad and sudden was the call of one so dear and loved by all. His loving heart had ceased to beat, Before we knew it, he was gone, a bitter grief, a shock severe, to part with one we loved so dear. God loved him, too, and thought it best, so He took him home to eternal rest. But only those who loved him best can tell the heartache of not saying farewell. Sadly missed by niece and family, Janet and Jimmy Shaw and "Kristi Ann" and sister and husband, Mae and William Snyder.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, April 15, the 105th day of 1969. There are 260 days left in the year.

On this date in 1945, the body of President Franklin D. Roosevelt was buried in the rose garden of his ancestral estate at Hyde Park, N.Y.

In 1638, English settlers arrived at what is now Haven, Conn.

In 1850, San Francisco was incorporated as a city.

In 1865, President Abraham Lincoln died in a Washington boarding house, across the street from Ford's Theater, where he had been shot by John Wikes Booth.

In 1923, insulin, which had been discovered by Dr. Frederick Banting of Toronto, was made available for general use.

In 1942, Japanese artillery blasted American positions on Corregidor in the Phillippines.

In 1955, the Atomic Energy Commission reported that fallout from atomic tests in Nevada had not resulted in any harmful effects.

Ten years ago — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro arrived in Washington on an 11-day unofficial goodwill tour of the United States.

Junior Editors Quiz on NIAGARA FALLS

QUESTION: Why does the water at Niagara Falls run downstream?

* * *

ANSWER: Water always seeks the lowest point it can flow to. This is because the attraction of gravitation is always pulling it down toward the center of the earth. Niagara Falls is situated on the Niagara River, which connects Lake Erie with Lake Ontario. It is water from all the Great Lakes except Lake Ontario which is thundering over Niagara Falls. To understand why it runs the way it does, you must understand the relation between the Great Lakes, Niagara Falls, and the sea. This is clearly shown in our diagrams (left, above). On top is a Great Lakes steamer, which gives some idea of how big these lakes are. In the middle we look down on them. Lake Superior, to left, is the highest, so the water must spill down into the others. It goes spilling down from lake to lake. After spilling into Lake Erie, it races down the Niagara River, spilis over Niagara Falls and into Lake Ontario. From here it spills down into the St. Lawrence River and finally, going down in a north-easterly direction, spills from the river into the sea. The cross-section view will tell the story even more clearly.

Just 25¢ enrolls your entire family for the first month

ACT NOW—YOUR ENROLLMENT-APPLICATION MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT SAT., APRIL 19, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

ONE out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family tomorrow . . . next week . . . next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept on going the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in the famous Presidential Extra Cash Hospital Plan that

. . . Pays you $100.00-a-week tax-free cash whenever you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have an extra $100.00 cash coming in every week—beginning the very first day you enter the hospital.

Now, Presidential's economy plan enables you to enjoy this protection at once. Because it will NOT cost you $20.00. It will NOT cost you $10.00—or even $5.00. Your special low price is just 25¢ for the first month's coverage for your entire family. Then continue at regular low Presidential rates.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this Presidential $100.00-A-WEEK Hospital Plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Spend the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage payments—or any necessary but costly extras not fully covered by usual hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why Presidential developed low-cost Extra Cash protection that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses!

You get your $100.00 per week — TAX FREE — from your first day in the hospital, and as long as you are confined there, even for 2 years, if necessary. And, when you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, Presidential pays out an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE CASH BENEFIT. You receive not $100.00, but $200.00 a week. Your spouse receives not $100.00, but $200.00 a week. That's $400.00 in all, in cash payments to you every week while you both remain in the hospital . . . even for as long as 2 whole years!

For older folks—greater protection than you ever would have thought possible!

Right now, would advancing age prevent you from getting hospital insurance, or income protection with another company? Or if you could get a policy elsewhere, would you have to pay a big premium for it? Your "life saver" could be this wonderful Presidential Extra Cash Plan—because Presidential welcomes folks of all ages into its Plan. Even if you're 65 or over, even if you're OVER 100 — when you go to the hospital you collect $70.00 a week for 13 weeks and a full $100.00 weekly while you remain in the hospital afterwards . . . even for as long as 2 years!

We can never cancel your policy!

And you can count on Presidential's wonderful protection no matter how old you get or how many times you collect from us. It is written into your policy that we cannot cancel your protection after you've made a lot of claims, or become old—or both. It is GUARANTEED RENEWABLE FOR LIFE!

And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family—this special Presidential Plan (HP 35L-868) . . .

. . . Pays you $100.00-a-week cash maternity benefits!

Ordinary hospital insurance may take care of part of your expenses when you go to the hospital to have a baby. But what policy can you think of that gives you cash to help buy all the things you need for the new baby? Now, if both husband and wife are insured for the entire pregnancy and have added Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits, you get extra cash to use any way you want. If a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, 10 days — as long as necessary — you get $100.00 a week for every day of your confinement, up to 2 years if necessary!

All these added cash benefits.

Yes, in addition to $100.00 a week for hospitalization or $100.00 a week maternity benefits . . . you get all this:

Added cash benefits: Up to $2,000.00 cash for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight, when the loss occurs anytime within 90 days of the accident. The loss of a limb or eyesight is a terrible thing. Nothing can replace the loss, but a check for $1,000.00 or $2,000.00 brings peace of mind during the period of adjustment.

Added cash benefits: Choose Coverage for Children (with or without Maternity Benefits) and all your dependent, unmarried children from ages one month through 18 years will be covered, too! Presidential pays up to $6,240.00, at the rate of $60.00 a week, when your youngster is hospitalized . . . for tonsilitis, appendicitis or any other illness or injury. Yes, you will receive $60.00 a week cash, week after week while the child is in the hospital, even for as many as 104 weeks!

We pay your premiums when you are not able.

As a special consideration to you, if you — the person to whom the basic policy is issued — are hospitalized just 8 weeks or more, all premiums for you and all Covered Members that come due while you are still in the hospital after this period will be paid by Presidential. And your protection continues as if you were paying the premiums yourself! Then if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 180 days, Presidential will again PAY ANY PREMIUMS WHILE YOU ARE IN THE HOSPITAL—TO A MAXIMUM OF 2 YEARS—for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force — you collect a maximum of $10,400.00 for the confinement!

PAYS up to $10,400.00 CASH for each accident or illness, starting the very first day in the hospital.

PAYS up to $10,010.00 CASH if you're 65 or over—at the rate of $70.00 A WEEK for first 13 weeks, and a full $100.00 weekly while you remain in the hospital thereafter, (for 91 more weeks if necessary) . . . in addition to whatever benefits you receive from Medicare.

PAYS up to $41,600.00 CASH when both husband and wife are hospitalized at same time for accidental injury, for as long as both remain in the hospital—at the rate of $400.00 A WEEK.

PAYS up to $2,000.00 CASH for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.

PAYS $100.00-A-WEEK CASH for each pregnancy requiring a hospital stay, when both husband and wife are insured for the entire pregnancy and have Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits.

PAYS up to $6,240.00 at the rate of $60.00 A WEEK when a child goes to the hospital for any accident or illness (when Coverage for Children has been added to the basic plan).

NO age limit — no medical examination required — no salesman will call.

IF YOU ARE 65 OR OVER YOU WILL COLLECT UP TO $10,010.00 CASH IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE BENEFITS

Why are smart folks over 65 now hastening to protect themselves with the Presidential Extra Cash Plan in addition to what Medicare will do for them?

Even though Medicare is a great boon to folks over 65, it will not, of course, pay all the bills that quickly pile up as a result of illness or accident.

Regardless of your age, you still need additional health protection.

We have designed this plan as the important addition to whatever is paid by Medicare — or health insurance you may have in any other companies. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. And you will be glad to know the checks will be big ones! In addition to what is paid by Medicare, Presidential pays you $70.00 a week for first 13 weeks, and a full $100.00 weekly while hospitalized thereafter . . . for an additional 91 weeks, if necessary! You can receive as much as $10,010.00 for each new illness or injury when hospitalized!

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON

Only 25¢ for First Month — Money-Back Guarantee.

You can now have your first month's protection for your entire family for only twenty-five cents! But you must act immediately. Your request for this wonderful Extra Cash Hospital Plan must be mailed on the convenient Enrollment-Application NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT of the date shown.

This midnight expiration hour cannot be extended. If your enrollment form is mailed later, it cannot be accepted.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your Presidential policy covers every conceivable kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by war or any act of war; any mental disease or disorder; where care is in a U.S. Government hospital; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy . . . during the first 2 years only.

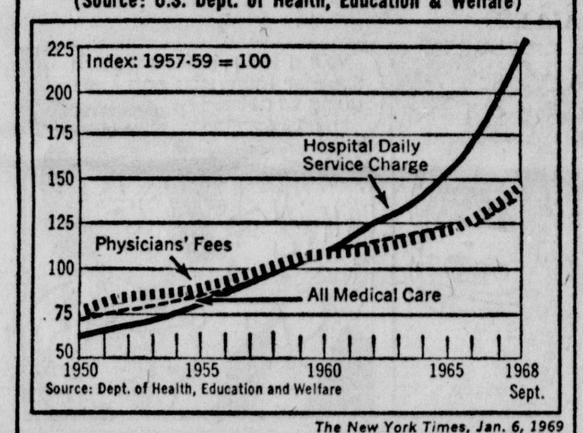
This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered immediately!

How can 25¢ buy so much?

You can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay the regular rates, if you wish. But Presidential can now provide you and your entire family with tax-free Extra Cash Protection for just 25¢ the first month. Only because we enroll a large number of people at one time — direct by mail! This highly efficient "Mass Enrollment" method cuts costs to the bone — and the savings are passed on to you!

Medical Costs Skyrocketing!

(Source: U.S. Dept. of Health, Education & Welfare)



The New York Times, Jan. 6, 1969

Govt. figures reveal your present health protection . . . may no longer protect you against today's rising medical costs! Don't leave your loved ones defenseless! Act at once to add coverage that provides to a maximum of $10,400.00 health protection for only 25¢ for the first month for entire family.

Make your decision carefully.

Think how costly a hospital confinement will be. Imagine paying for those indispensable doctor, surgical and nursing services that are not covered by your present insurance.

Would you be able to afford the quiet and privacy of a private room and a private nurse, should you so desire? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones? Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? Who would pay your bills that keep on coming in at home? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet such expenses. And no one knows whose turn it will be next.

Why you must act before the date shown on your Enrollment-Application—just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to apply for your insurance policy--only a few days? Because we must receive your Enrollment-Application the same time as all the others in order to pass on to you the savings that come from processing many policies at one time.

We mail you the policy as soon as we receive your enrollment form. When the policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. Take all the time you need. It's a very short document, and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover there is NO FINE PRINT. Then — show it, if you wish, to someone you trust. Perhaps your lawyer, accountant, or doctor. Better still — show it to your own insurance man . . . even though he may very well be working for another company! If he is a personal friend, he has your best interests in mind. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere — at any price!

Money-back guarantee — in case you change your mind.

Even after you mail your Enrollment-Application below . . . even after you examine the policy in your own home and talk it over with anyone you wish . . . even after all this you are still free to return the policy within 15 days and your quarter will be refunded at once. There will be no obligation whatever.

Meanwhile, all during the 15 days you are making up your mind — you'll be protected by $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash benefits just as if you had already said "yes." That's right, you will be covered all this time for any accident or illness which puts you in the hospital, even if you finally decide to return the policy.

However, after you've seen the policy for yourself, you will surely agree that this is a tremendous value and you'll want to continue this $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash protection.

HERE ARE THE WONDERFUL LOW RATES

The following rate chart shows how little it costs after the first month to cover yourself, your spouse, and any adult dependents. Each person must be 16 years old or over, and pays (per person) the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
16-44	only $3.45
45-49	only $3.95
50-54	only $4.45
55-59	only $4.95
60-69	only $5.95
70-74	only $6.95
75 and over	only $8.95

Only $2 more covers all your dependent, unmarried children.

. . . from the ages of one month through 18 years. And then, if you wish, just add $1 more to that, and you're covered for maternity benefits, too! Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month — at no additional cost!

NOTE: The regular Monthly Premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this Presidential plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

Act NOW — "Later" May Be TOO Late!

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.)

THESE 19 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell you how Presidential's EXTRA CASH HOSPITAL PLAN gives you the protection you need—at amazingly low cost!

1. How much will my policy pay me when I go to the hospital? $100.00 per week—to the full maximum of $10,400.00 cash. (If you're over 65, you collect to a maximum of $10,010.00 cash benefits on top of any Medicare benefits. $70.00 a week for first 13 weeks, and $100.00 weekly while you remain continuously hospitalized afterwards, for a maximum of 91 additional weeks!) You collect cash not just for yourself, but for all covered members of your family when they are hospitalized! And you collect cash even if you're in the hospital for only one day!
2. When do I collect $2,000.00 extra cash for accidents? We pay you $1,000.00 extra cash for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye, and $2,000.00 extra cash for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes—even if the loss occurs as long as 3 months after the accident.
3. What if I am hospitalized by the same illness—again? You still collect your $100.00-a-week extra cash to the full maximum of $10,400.00. You need only to have resumed full normal activities for just 180 days—then if you are hospitalized for the same illness you begin to collect all over again.
4. If I receive more money than my total medical bills—do I keep the "extra cash"? You certainly do! We always pay you the full $100.00 a week—all the way to the maximum of $10,400.00 cash. And even if your bills add up to just part of that amount, you still keep every dollar of the extra cash—tax-free! That's why this policy's called an extra cash plan. It's perfectly possible under this plan for you to come out of the hospital with extra dollars you can use for bills, rent, or anything else. And if you already have some health or hospital insurance—all the better for you. Because we pay you anyway, on top of what they pay you! On top of Blue Cross, Major Medical, Workmen's Compensation, or whatever insurance policies you have with other companies!
5. Do you pay me cash even for my children, too? And . . . for my "future" children? You collect $60.00-a-week cash anytime your child goes to the hospital, when Coverage for Children is added to basic plan. A maximum of $6,240.00 each time any dependent, unmarried child (ages 1 month through 18 years old) is in the hospital for sickness or injury. And if you have a growing family—as soon as your newborn child's one month old, he too is covered —automatically . . . at no additional cost to you.
6. Will you pay me $100.00-a-week cash—even for pregnancy? Yes! Many health plans don't cover pregnancy. But we do, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits are added to the basic plan. You collect maximum cash benefits of $10,400.00—for pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay. (Both parents have to be enrolled in this plan for entire pregnancy period.)
7. Are there times I might collect as much as $20,800.00 . . . as much as $41,600.00? There are! Remember, we pay cash not just for you, but for every covered member of your family. So if you or your spouse are hospitalized more than once . . . or even both of you more than once . . . or if a child gets sick or has an accident—you could end up collecting $20,800.00 or more! And that's not the whole story. Presidential gives policyowners an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE-CASH BENEFIT. If you and your covered spouse are both in an accident and go to the hospital at the same time . . . Presidential pays you $400.00-a-week tax free cash. This amount is paid for as long as both of you remain in the hospital. Even for 2 years! You receive up to a maximum of $41,600.00—to pay for doctor and hospital bills and other expenses resulting from one accident alone! We hope illnesses and accidents don't strike your home—but should something happen, isn't it reassuring to know you're so well protected?
8. Can I spend my cash benefits any way I please? Yes! Spend the money any way you choose. Use it to pay your hospital, doctor, and nursing bills. Use it to pay for rent, food, clothing. Or put it in the bank to replace any savings spent during your hospitalization. All cash comes straight to you (not to doctor or hospital unless you request it) so you alone decide how it is to be spent!
9. Must I pay taxes on the money you send me? Certainly NOT! Every dollar we send you is 100% tax-free.
10. Am I ever allowed to stop paying premiums during a long stay in the hospital—yet still remain fully covered? Yes, you are! All premiums that come due after you—the person to whom the basic policy is issued—are in the hospital just 8 weeks or more . . . do not have to be paid! Yes, even if you are in for months, a year, or longer! We pay all premiums for you, and for all covered members of your family, too, while you remain hospitalized. You aren't expected to pay us back either.
11. How can you give me so much—for so little? Because you buy your policy directly from the company. You don't deal through middlemen. You eliminate costly processing charges and "red tape" that are included in the cost of most insurance. That's the reason why Presidential can provide you with exceptional high-savings health insurance protection, including a full month's coverage for your family for only 25¢!
12. How do I go about submitting a claim? We invite you to contact CASH BENEFITS HEADQUARTERS direct. Whether you want to submit a claim, or just ask us a question, don't hesitate to contact us. As a Presidential policyowner, you are entitled to prompt, courteous and direct attention at all times . . . and you will get it.
13. Because Presidential costs less . . . do I get less protection? Absolutely not. You get more! $100.00 weekly cash payments for a maximum of 2 years for each hospital stay. And that goes for all covered members of your family. Yet all you pay to put this policy in force for one month is . . . 25¢. And if you want, continue this protection afterwards at the regular low Presidential rate! That's why we urge you—for your own satisfaction—to compare these big cash benefits with any comparable policy issued by any other insurance company . . . anywhere.
14. Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover? Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers everything except conditions caused by (a) war or act of war; (b) mental disease or disorder; (c) where care is in a U.S. Government hospital; (d) pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and (e) any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for only two years. Everything else is definitely covered.
15. Will you cancel my policy if I make too many claims? Or because of age? No—positively not! Only you can cancel. The company cannot—no matter how many claims you have . . . how old you get or for any other reason whatsoever. A GUARANTEED-RENEWABLE-FOR-LIFE clause has been written into your policy.
16. If I'm hospitalized less than a week—do you still pay in full? Yes! We pay you every day you're in the hospital. There's no "waiting period" before you start collecting.
17. What are the requirements to enroll in this Extra Cash Hospital Plan? You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health; and, to qualify during this enrollment period, you must enroll before midnight of the date shown in the Enrollment-Application.
18. Besides saving money—are there any other advantages of joining Presidential during the enrollment period? Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a regular application — just the brief enrollment form in the corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
19. How do I enroll? Fill out the brief Enrollment-Application and mail it with just 25¢ for the first month's protection for your entire family. Mail to: The Presidential Life Insurance Company of America, 11401 Roosevelt Blvd., Philadelphia, Pa. 19154.

Get your Enrollment-Application into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today — before anything unexpected happens.
